

Center One — I Never Promised You a Rose Garden. At 3:30, 5:20, 7:10 and 9. Schizophrenia seen up close. Rated R.

Center Two — Gator. Starring Burt Reynolds. At 2:42, 4:48, 6:54 and 9. Rated PG.

Northgate One — The Spy Who Loved Me. Roger Moore as the suave 007. At 6:45 and 9. Rated PG.

Northgate Two — Between the Lines. Comic account of life on a Boston underground newspaper. At 7:15 and 9:15. Rated R.

Yorktowne One — Star Wars. At 2:30, 4:40, and 9:20. Rated PG.

Yorktowne Two — to be announced. Phone 489-2327.

theatre

A Streetcar Named Desire — This Pulitzer Prize winner by Tennessee Williams continues through Sunday. Box office, 933-1121. Playmakers Repertory Company.

A Doll's House — This classic by Henrik Ibsen is produced by UNC Lab Theatre. At 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights in Graham Memorial. Tickets are free.

South Pacific — Village Dinner Theatre, Raleigh, near RDU Airport. The classic romantic musical of the South Seas. Dinner, et-ups and show for $14 Friday and Saturday, $12 Sunday. Reservations are necessary. Phone 1-596-8343.

Guys and Dolls — Raleigh Little Theatre. This Broadway classic capturing the flavor of big-city life opens Friday at 8 p.m. Also playing Saturday at 8 p.m. Box office, 821-3111.

The New Song of the South — An exciting musical, based on the tales of Uncle Remus. Presented at Theatre in the Park, Pullen Park, Raleigh. Friday and Saturday at 8:15 Sunday at 3. Call 755-6058 for reservations.

radio

Scar Wars — "A long time ago, in a galaxy far away..." It may sound familiar, but some new twists have been added. Hear the continuing saga Friday nights at 9 p.m. on WXYC, 89.3 FM.

Classics in Stereo — The Sunday Concert on WDBS-FM 107. From 7 to 11 a.m. and from noon to 1 p.m.

music

Jimmy Buffett with Jesse Winchester — At 8 p.m. Saturday in Cameron Indoor Stadium at Duke University.

Chorale Concert — Presented by the Duke University Music Department at 8:30 Friday in Page Auditorium.

Organ Recital — On the Benjamin N. Duke Memorial Organ at 5 p.m. Sunday in Duke University Chapel.

Percussion Recital — By Lynn Glasscock at 4 p.m. in Hill Hall, Sunday afternoon.

nite life

Cal's Cradle — Friday and Saturday nights, Adele Foster and the Upfront Trio. Sunday night is Jazz Night, featuring Epilogue.

The Mad Hatter — Dance to the sound of The Blazers Friday and Saturday nights. The UNC Jazz Lab performs Sunday.

The Station — John Bachmann (Friday), Smiler (Saturday), and George Bailey and Scott Anglez (Sunday) bring their music to Carrboro at 9 p.m.

The Pier — The Brightstreet Band lights up Raleigh Friday and Saturday nights. For additional information call 832-3258.

television

Friday

Evening At Pops — "American Vignettes." New York City ballet star Edward Villella is featured in a salute to America in song. Channel 4, 9 p.m.

ABC Friday Night Movie — "The Trial of Lee Harvey Oswald" enacts the probable proceedings against JFK's assassin, had he been brought to trial. Starring John Pleshette, Ben Gazzara and Lorne Greene. Channels 5 and 8, 9 p.m.

Murder One — The documentary looks at capital punishment through the eyes of six convicted murderers in North Carolina and Georgia, their families and their victims' families. Channel 4, 10 p.m.

Tonight Show — Johnny Carson celebrates his 15th anniversary with this special two-hour show. Channel 28, 11:30 p.m.

Saturday

NCAA Football — East Carolina vs. South Carolina. For those students who cannot find Kenan Stadium. Channels 5 and 8, 1:30 p.m.

NBC Saturday Night Movie — The Reivers. Steve McQueen, Mitch Vogel and Rupert Crosse star in this movie adaption of William Faulkner's latest novel. The trio of "reivers" remove a new Winton Flyer automobile from their Mississippi town and take it for a fling in booming 1905 Memphis. Channel 28, 9 p.m.

Sunday

Bill Dooley — Football. Highlights of Saturday's game between UNC and Texas Tech. Channel 11, noon.

NFL Football — The New York Giants vs. the Falcons at Atlanta; Channel 11, 1 p.m. The Buffalo Bills vs. the Colts at Baltimore; Channel 28, 2 p.m. The St. Louis Cardinals vs. the Redskins at Washington, D.C.; Channel 11, 4 p.m.

'Scar Wars' heroes to attempt rescue of Princess Lay-la tonight

"A long time ago, in a galaxy far, far away..."

Contrary to popular opinion, this is not the prelude to "Star Wars" but the beginning of "Scar Wars," a spoof of the blockbuster movie and the featured attraction on WXYC, 89.3 FM, each Friday at 9 p.m.

Some interesting twists have been added to the original story. The names have been riotously altered so that Princess Leia is "Lay-ya," and Chewwin-Tobacca is the heir-apparent to you-know-who. "O-Bee Wayne-Canobie" is the one with the power to free the universe from the evil grasp of "Dark Vapor."

"From the beginning they were outnumbered, but the light of truth shown bright through the galaxy of the beaten and oppressed people."

Episodes one through three dealt with the introduction of characters, the capture of "Lay-ya" and the droids' enthralling escape. In this week's installment, our heroes face numerous obstacles in an attempt to free the Princess.

The series will run throughout the semester and possibly for the remainder

Evening at Symphony — Seiji Ozawa conducts the Boston Symphony Orchestra as they perform music by Bartok and Vieuxtemps. Violinist Joseph Silverstein is soloist. Channel 4, 8 p.m.

ABC Sunday Night Movie — "The Trial of Lee Harvey Oswald." The conclusion of Friday night's drama. Channels 5 and 8, 9 p.m.

Madame Bovary — Francesca Annis stars as Emma in this four-part dramatization of Flaubert's novel. The first episode is entitled "Marriage." Channel 4, 10 p.m.

Lyndon Fuller, campus wit extraordinaire, has written, directed and stars in his latest work, Scar Wars, a continuing saga on WXYC, 89.3 FM. It airs on the next nine Fridays at 9 p.m.

of the year if enough interest is shown.

Nine episodes remain in the series, allowing plenty of time for listeners to get into the action.

"They were in the wrong place at the wrong time. Naturally, they were fools."

— Princess Lay-ya of Alderman

Tobacco Barn

The first exclusive tobacco shop in North Carolina. Largest and finest selection of pipes in the Southeast.

"No bite" house blend tobaccos guaranteed to satisfy or money back.

Open until 8 PM this Friday and Saturday

On Franklin St. next to The Intimate Bookshop 967-9960

the MAD HATTER

128 E. Franklin Street
Next to Yogurt Barn Downtown
Bar Phone: 929-8276 Deli Phone: 929-3824

Coming Sunday
JAZZ LAB

MEET YOU AT

THE STATION

'ON TRACKS - CARRBORO'

AN AUTHENTIC TURN OF THE CENTURY RAILROAD DEPOT—BUILT IN 1913 BY SOUTHERN RAILWAY AND RESTORED BY STATIONS, LTD; IN FALL OF 1975

'WHERE MA COMES TO GET HER HOME COOKIN''

ENTERTAINMENT
FRIDAY: JOHN BACHMAN
SATURDAY: SMILER
SUNDAY: GEORGE BAILY & SCOTT ANGLELEY

DINNER: 5:30 - 9:00
FOOTBALL SAT.: 5:00 - 9:15

Tonight & Saturday!

THE BLAZERS

Dance to English, Beach and Rock & Roll