Hillmont student tenants seek advice

Sadat

By MICHAEL WADE
Staff Writer

Several UNC student tenants of Hillmont Apartments in Carrboro have sought advice from Student Legal Services in connection with a planned increase in their rent which their charge is illegal.

The apartments, located at 700 Fidelity St., were owned by the Herb Holland Co. but were transferred recently to Robert Oakes, who also owns the Fidelity Court and Cedar Court Apartments. The tenants say that Oakes plans to raise their rents although their leases have not expired.

However, Oakes said he is not planning to raise the rent on any tenants under their present leases. He said tenants whose leases are less than 12 months old will not have their rents increased until their leases expire. Anyone who has lived in the apartments for more than a year, however, will be given 45 days notice that his lease will be terminated and then will be offered the option of getting a new lease with $25 more in monthly rent or moving out.

Oakes said recently that "my attorney said we can terminate that lease after 12 calendar months at any time." He said tenants who have lived in Hillmont Apartments more than a year are not living under their original leases because the leases were not renewed, although they allow for succeeding years.

The tenants have said that the lease automatically renews itself unless the landlord gives them 45 days notice before the beginning of the next term of the lease.

The tenants in the Hillmont Apartments were notified of the planned rent increase by a letter Oakes sent to each apartment. Oakes said he "made a mistake and acted in haste" by sending a copy of the letter to every apartment instead of only to those apartments whose tenant's leases were more than 12 months old.

Oakes said he has told only those tenants who have contacted him whose leases are less than 12 months old and that he will honor their leases at present rent prices until they expire. He declined to comment on why he had not contacted every tenant whose lease is less than 12 months old, but added, "I have told everybody that has contacted my office."

Oakes said he told one tenant of the apartments that he would change the lock on her door if she refused to pay higher rent after being given 45 days notice her lease was being terminated.

At least seven student tenants of the apartments have asked for help from the Student Legal Services. Student Attorney Dorothy Bernholz said she could not comment on the case because litigation is possible, but she emphasized that "we're not involved in a legal action right now."

conference.

It called for Israeli withdrawal from occupied Arab territories, the creation of a Palestinian state, guaranteed secure boundaries for all, establishment of relations in the region under the U.N. charter and termination of the state of war.

Then he came close to recognizing the Israel state, whose existence is not even admitted by the Arab world.

"We rejected you in the past, yes," Sadat admitted to a people who are in a state of war with his nation and fought it four times in 29 years. "We refused to meet with you, yes. We described you as the so-called Israel. Yes. This did occur."

"I tell you today and I declare to the whole world that we agree to live with you in a permanent and just peace. We do not want to besiege you with rockets ready to destroy and we do not want you to besiege us similarly."

When you take away the uniform and the lifestyle what have you got?

The Job.

The Coast Guard's involved in things like saving lives, fighting pollution, enforcing the law, and maintaining navigational systems. They're big jobs and they're important jobs. To the country and to the people who do them. And you could be involved in one of them after just 18 weeks in Officer Candidate School in Yorktown, Va.

As an officer in the Coast Guard you would be in a position of responsibility and leadership. It's a challenging job. One where you'll prove to yourself and others that the 4 years you spent in college were well worth it.

The Pay & Benefits.

As an Ensign in the Coast Guard, your starting salary will be over $10,000 a year. During your first 3 years, normal promotion and seniority will increase your salary by over 40%. Along with that come generous living allowances and benefits. Your medical and dental care is free. If you get married, your family also receives medical coverage. If you make the Coast Guard your career, you can apply for post-graduate training. And if you're selected, we'll pay your tuition plus keep you on full salary while you're attending school.

There's also a generous retirement plan if you stay with us for at least 20 years. That's something you won't find with many private companies.

The Opportunities.

The jobs the Coast Guard does are anything but ordinary. Which means that doing those jobs will pay off in training and experience that is anything but ordinary. You'll develop skills in management and leadership that will be invaluable to you and your career. Skills you can use whether you stay in the Coast Guard or not.

And you'll be able to travel. A Coast Guard Officer doesn't stay put. Your assignment could be in any of a variety of locations around the country or overseas.

The Future.

As with any job you're interested in now, the future has got to be an important consideration. Where's the job going to lead you? In the Coast Guard your future is, to say the least, expandable. Whether you make it a career or not, the experience and skills you'll develop will be hard to match anywhere else. The most important of which will be the skill of handling yourself in a management situation. Because that's what you'll be involved in on the first day of your job as a Coast Guard Officer. And when you've got that kind of experience, you can use it anywhere.
