"WHY DO THE HEATHEN RAGE?" Psalms 2:1 and Acts 4:25

Before we started advertising our article in the Columbus, Ohio paper, we received and responded to a request to send our articles to a man in that city.

The man wrote us and thanked us for sending the articles, saying he found them stimulating and enjoyable, however, our concept of Christianity was quite a bit different from his and it was seldom that he agreed with us. Also he wrote: "If you don't mind a word of caution, be wary that you are not 'using' God to justify your own wants and desires - many have used God's Word to suit their own prejudices - a despicable feat, at least." Then he asked that we please write and comment on his ideas. We replied that we were not in a position to comment on his concept of Christianity for the simple reason that he did not tell what it was nor point out where ours was wrong. Therefore, we could not comment nor were we in a position to "see the light and get right," provided we were wrong and it was he that was living and walking "in the light and right paths." We stated we did not consider it charitable to leave one "walking in darkness until he falls in the ditch," especially since "the ditch of eternity" is a little ways ahead for every soul that continues walking in darkness.

In regard to the word of caution: "Be wary that you are not 'using' God to justify your own wants and desires - many have used God's Word to suit their own prejudices - a despicable feat, at least." Our comment was that we would have to confess that that was exactly what we were doing, 'using' God and His Word to justify our wants and desires, and whether or not it was a "despicable feat" depended on what the wants and desires were.

After some consideration of this criticism, we appraised our two greatest wants and desires to be, first, to get to heaven when we die, "to flee the wrath to come - eternal hell fire; second, to persuade as many as possible to go along, or do likewise, and obtain "the inheritance, incorruptible, undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven" for the faithful unto death! Our final comment was that over the years had often noticed when some were unable to answer the facts and logic of an opponent, then they begin to attack the other's motives and character regardless of their knowledge of either, and to borrow his own expression that appeared to be "a despicable feat, at least." Of course, however, my correspondent would not be guilty of such!

John The Baptist's message to prepare men for the coming of Christ was to "flee the wrath to come," for Christ would gather His wheat into the garner and burn the "chaff" with unquenchable fire - if you call yourself Christian what do you consider yourself, "Wheat," or "Chaff" - there is no life, no spiritual life in "chaff!" The Apostle Paul was caught up into heaven and heard "unspeakable words" not lawful for him to utter, and later, in speaking of "the judgment seat of Christ," he said: "Knowing the terror of the Lord, we persuade men," and at another time he said he could "wish himself accursed from Christ" in order that his brethren after the flesh might be saved!

The great work for God accomplished by men like Luther, Calvin, Knox, Bunyan, Wesley and others, began as a result of their want and desire to be saved from their sins and escape "eternal hell!" Recently I read that mighty man of God, Jonathan Edwards, said the cause of his beginning to seek the Lord and to do His will was the result of meditation on The Bible's message of hell fire for the lost soul that Jesus Christ so often and so faithfully warned men, and then suffered the awful death on the Cross to make the way of escape! Therefore, we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip... HOW SHALL WE ESCAPE, IF WE NEGLECT SO GREAT SALVATION... Hebrews 2:1-3.

Self preservation is the first law of nature - preservation of a life that at the most will end in a little over seventy years, a life that is like a vapor that appears a moment and is gone! Is one foolish or unwise to 'use' God and the means of grace to accomplish the want and desire for the self preservation of his soul "while the ages of eternity roll?"
