Summer interns needed

By BERNIE RANSBOTTOM
University Editor

Career Planning and Placement is currently accepting applications for 13 summer internships with 11 departments and offices of the federal government.

The internships are open to juniors and seniors or graduate students with quality point averages of 3.0 or better. Applications are due by noon Friday at the CP&P office, Room 211 Hanes Hall.

Applications should include a resume detailing educational background and work experience related to the area of the internship. Ruth Everett, CP&P secretary, stressed that all applications should include the student's name, address, phone number and the exact name of the internship being applied for.

A summary (250 words maximum) which explains why the applicant is interested in the internship, how the internship would relate to his career interests and descriptions of any course or work experience he has had in the area of the internship should accompany the resume.

CP&P will nominate two applicants for each internship. Nominations will be submitted to the agency offering the internship, which will make the final selection of interns.

Internships open to juniors, seniors and graduate students are: an internship for liberal arts students with the Social Security Administration; an internship for law students and outstanding undergraduates with the National Institute of Health; an internship for students in English or journalism with the Alcohol, Drug Abuse and Mental Health Administration; and an internship for students in computer science, political science, social science or economics with the Office of Management and Finance (a division of the Department of Justice).

Three internships are available for seniors and graduate students. Two of these are with the Food and Drug Administration and one is with the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

Internships for graduate students are available with the Food and Drug Administration, ACTION, the Veterans Administration, the National Center for Health Statistics, the Civil Service Commission and the Office of Education.

Interested students should go by the CP&P office or contact Ruth Everett or Jane Kendall at 933-6507 for more information.

Rent has increased $10 per month at Kingswood, Royal Park and Old Well, and increased $15 at Estes Park. Monthly rates for two bedroom unfurnished apartments are $190 at Kingswood, $185 at Royal Park, $180 at Estes Park and $200 at Old Well. Only one bedroom unit is available at Yum Yum apartments, and their rent has increased from $175 to $185.

Bolnwood Apartments will accept only seniors and graduate students this year. They also have a waiting list. Rent for a two bedroom apartment there is $265, a $10 increase over last year's rent.

A spokesperson for Broadmoor Village Apartments said it accepts undergraduate tenants and is still guaranteeing space for next year. Both one and two bedroom apartments are available. Rents were upped $5 to $10. Residents pay $170 for one bedroom, and $180 and $190 for two bedroom units. Student residents are a minority at Broadmoor.

Carolina Apartments already has a long waiting list, and a spokesperson said rent will increase $20 from $205 to $225 in August. About 95 percent of its residents are students.

As of Monday, Foxcroft Apartments could guarantee 10 more units for August. Rent has increased $15 from $255 to $270 over the past year for two bedroom unfurnished apartments, and will increase to $285 in August. Foxcroft has many student tenants.

Laurel Ridge Condominiums usually do not accept undergraduates. Only 12-month leases are available, and no subletting is allowed.

The Village Apartments accepts undergraduates but will lease each apartment as it is vacated, so there is no waiting list. A $15 increase has made the rent $265. Of the 420 residents living at the Villages this year, 50 are undergraduates.

Is it sick to love a pen?

Is it crazy to love marker pens that give you the smoothest, thinnest line in town...and feel so right in your hand? Is it mad to worship pens with clever little metal "collars" to keep their plastic points from getting squishy?

Not if the pen is a Pilot marker pen.

Our Razor Point, at only 69¢, gives the kind of extra-fine delicate line you'll flip over. And for those times you want a little less line, have a fling with our fine point 59¢ Fineliner. It has the will and fortitude to actually write through carbons.

So, don't settle for a casual relationship. Get yourself a lasting one, or two, to have and to hold...at your college book store.
