The North Carolina Piano Trio will present a program at 3 p.m. Sunday in B. N. Duke Auditorium on Fayetteville Street.

Delta Sigma Pi will meet at 6 p.m. Sunday in the Carroll Hall lobby for pledge initiation. A banquet at Jordans will be held after the ceremony.

Elections for the 1978-79 Hill Student Board will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday at the Hill House on Cameron Avenue. For further details, call 942-4057.

Campus Christian Fellowship will hold worship at 11 a.m. Sunday. Check the Carolina Union desk for meeting room.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

The Committees to Save the Nantahala Wilderness has a petition for people to sign to oppose construction of a four-lane superhighway in or near the Nantahala Gorge area. A table will be in the Piz area from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. each day until April 22. Absentee ballot applications request cards are still available. For a card contact Bob Mann at 933-1538. The deadline for requesting an absentee ballot is April 20.

Anyone interested in being a co-chairperson for the Chapel Hill Walk for Humanity next year may submit his or her name for consideration in 102 Campus Y.

All persons interested in having their names in the Carolina Union typing or babysitting referral services please sign up at the information desk between April 12-19. This service will be arranged for the summer and next fall.

Students interested in working with the US Department of Agriculture in Lolo National Forest in Montana should come by Career Planning and Placement for more information. Positions such as Forestry Aid, Forestry Technician, and Civil Engineering Technician are available. Information is in the PEP Vacancy Notebooks under Sciences. Eligible students will be nominated through the Career Planning and Placement Office.

Campus friends are needed for new international students next fall. Sign-up now at the International Center, Byrum Hall.

Information on summer job opportunities in the federal government is now available in 211 Hans. Announcement 414 lists both clerical and non-clerical openings and locations. Application for the written test is also included.

Tryouts for the UNC Majorette Squad will be held at 10 a.m. April 22 in Carmichael Auditorium. For more information, contact Lisa Warner between 7 and 9 p.m. at 929-7016.

Applications for the UNC Women's Forum are available at the Carolina Union Desk. Applications are due April 14.

April 19 is the deadline to subscribe to the 1978 Yackety Yack. The price is $10. There is a $1 charge for mailing. Yacks can be purchased in the Yack office, Suite D Carolina Union from 1-5 p.m. Monday-Friday, or by mailing the Daily Tar Heel Coupon with payment.

Interviews for Speech 95, Communications in the Prison System, will be held April 16-15. For more information, contact by 205 Bingham.

The Carolina Course Review is now available at the Carolina Union, libraries, Campus Y and other central locations.

CAROLINA SYMPOSIUM

The Live Cougar will be presented at 8 p.m. today and 5 p.m. Saturday in Graham Memorial. Tickets are free and may be obtained in Graham Memorial.

William F. Buckley will be on campus April 17 to film two segments of Pring Line.

Senior nursing students at Odum Village Health Service are presenting Denver Day from 2 to 6 p.m. on Saturday for children from six months to six years. The Denver developmental screening tool will be used to provide parents with a measure of their child's progress. It is not an IQ test, but gives a rough measure of a child's social and motor skills. Sign-up sheets are posted at Victory Village and in the Odum Village laundry room. For further info call OVHS at 933-2040 on Saturday after 2 p.m.

Fund-raising set, money to NCCLU

A wine-and-cheese party will be held today to raise funds for the Chapel Hill-Carboro chapter of the North Carolina Civil Liberties Union. The party will be held at the home of John and Margaret Gulick, 1029 Highland Woods, from 5:30 p.m.-8 p.m. Suggested donation is $10 per person. Proceeds will be used to finance NCCLU programs in Orange County and statewide. The event is open to the public. For more information call chapter president Joe Eifort.

FOR THE RECORD

In the April 13 issue of the DTH the name of Rutledge Tufts of the Bull's Head bookstore was incorrectly reported as Rutland Tufts. The DTH regrets the error.

A story in the Daily Tar Heel Wednesday incorrectly reported that a proposed rebate of student fees being used to finance a new Student Health Services building would increase the cost of the University's building loan by $5.5 million. The cost of the loan actually would increase from the present $5.2 million to $5.5 million.

Action-packed RHA week focuses on dorm residents

By SUSAN LADD
Staff Writer

Life in the residence halls and contributions of dorm residents will be the main focus of Residence Hall Association Week, which runs today through April 21.

"This is the first time we've ever tried this, and we hope to get a lot of support from students," Don Fox, RHA president, said. "Hopefully RHA Week can become an annual event."

The Henderson Residence College Springfest will launch the activities today and Saturday featuring live bands including The Blazers, Brice Street, Arrango and Nightshift. The Springfest will be held on Conner Beach and is open to all campus residents.

Auditions will be held Sunday for all amateur comedians, actors, musicians and general crazies who want to participate in the First Annual RHA All-Campus Talent Variety Show Wednesday in Great Hall.

The first-place prize is $25 and the second-place prize is dinner for two.

RHA needs more entries, Fox said, and interested students may call the RHA (933-3901) or stop by the desk at Winston dorm to sign up. Also on Sunday will be a pig-pickin' at Morrison, featuring a live band. Tickets will be available at the Morrison desk Sunday at $1 per person.

A reception for former N.C. Sen. Sam Ervin and commentator William F. Buckley will be held Monday night in the Morrison social lounge following a taping of a segment of Buckley's Firing Line series by WUNC-TV.

The RHA Banquet will be held on Tuesday night to honor outgoing leaders and to present awards. Awards for outstanding achievements in residence life will be given in four categories. An award also will be presented for outstanding residence director.

Thursday will be RHA Field Day. The field day will feature campus-wide olympics including beer chugging contests, tug-of-wars and other "pseudosports."

The Chancellor's Awards Ceremony will be held Thursday night, and the Roger A. Davis Award will be presented to two individuals who have given outstanding service to the University through residence life with emphasis on lasting contributions to the University.

The week will end with a Blood Drive from 10 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Friday at Morrison. Donors must call RHA for appointments.

"People in the residence halls make up a significant population of the University and Chapel Hill," Fox said. "This is to highlight their contributions to the University and to the community."
