A Dorset-Persky/Bright Feature

"An Unmarried Woman's' most sustained triumph belongs to Jill Clayburgh. Erica is the role this gifted actress has deserved for years, and now that she has it, she doesn't fool around."

Frank Rich, Time Magazine

"Paul Mazursky is a rare and exemplary kind of director and 'An Unmarried Woman' is an even rarer film. Jill Clayburgh gives the film its centrifugal force...with a multilevel performance of amazing velocity, beauty and guts."

Rex Reed, Syndicated Columnist
