

CONGRATULATIONS, SENIORS!

And Best Wishes for Many Successful Years Ahead
from
The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
General Alumni Association

*But now that you're leaving . . .
don't leave Carolina behind!*

Join the General Alumni Association and keep up with you classmates and what's happening on campus through your alumni association and its publications. Special half-price offer to all graduating seniors — only $6 now

Here's what you'll get to keep Carolina on your mind:

The Alumni Review

Carolina's alumni magazine, published continuously since 1912, offers feature stories, photo-essays, and regular columns such as short alumni items and campus capsules. Five issues a year with full-color covers will come to you beginning in September. A Chapel Hill memory book — every other month.

The University Report

The Carolina alumni newspaper reports news events and the latest developments on the campus at Chapel Hill. Its format offers timely news articles and features including a complete Tar Heel sports section. It's published five times a year beginning in October — (alternating monthly with the Review).

If you join the GAA now you'll also receive the following:

- PROUD TO BE A TAR HEEL decal — a six- by three-inch auto sticker that needs no moistening to adhere to bumpers and car windows.
- I-dento key ring — Carolina blue and white key holder displaying the Old Well. If you lose your keys, the finder may drop them in any mailbox and we'll return them to you — postage free.
- Membership card — a handy wallet-size card to proudly identify you as a Tar Heel alumnus.

In addition, membership now automatically enters you in our drawing for two free 50-yard line Kenan Stadium season tickets for '78.

For an extra dollar

Receive all 11 issues of the Weekly Football Edition — A 4-page sports special will keep you up with every football game of the Tar Heels' 1978 season. Complete with action shots of every game, it's mailed 1st class every Wednesday for an extra dollar — only to paid members of the General Alumni Association.
