SADLACK'S HEROES AND DELI

"WHY DO THE HEATHEN RAGE?"

Psalms 2:1 and Acts 4:25

This question is the opening words of the Second Psalm of The Bible, God Almighty's revelation of Himself to man. "The heathen are those who do not believe in The God of The Bible." They rage against God, and His King, seeking to overthrow their Kingdom by doing away with its Laws and Commandments. No kingdom or government can endure long when its laws are neglected, rejected, and not enforced. But God's Kingdom is an Everlasting Kingdom that shall not pass away, and men and devils who rage against it sooner or later are "broken as with a rod of iron, and dashed in pieces like a potter's vessel!"

"He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh. The Lord shall have them in derision; then shall He speak unto them in His wrath, and vex them in His sore displeasure." Psalm 2:4, 5.

"He poureth contempt upon princes." — Job 12:21, Psalm 107:40, and Daniel 4:17.

"He bringeth the princes of the earth to nothing; He maketh the judges of the earth as vanity." — Isaiah 40:23.

In our day and century has not God laughed at, held in derision, spoken in His wrath, and poured contempt upon many a king, prince, or ruler? And in this visitation has not most of the nations, including our own, had to drink of "the wine cup of His wrath and indignation?" We blame this man, and that, this nation and that, but the blame according to this message from God lays at the door of those who rebel against His Commandments, seeking to get rid of their restraint Elijah, the man taken to heaven without dying, by-passing the grave, said to King Ahab: "I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the Commandments of God—" "There is no peace to the wicked, saith my God!"

There are some who are offended because this column calls attention to these Truths from God's Book. "What do we have to do to stop these extreme ads," writes some churchman, sending one of his own church ads that cries Peace, Peace, but takes no notice of the evil all around about to swamp us! "Extreme conditions" require "Extreme measures!" You can't catch and capture a lion that is loose with a net made to catch "butter-flies!"

We suggest two ways effort might be made to stop these extreme ads: One is that you face squarely their contents, refuting and showing where they are wrong and in error. Flip the switch in a dark room, and instantly the light drives out the darkness. "The lip of truth shall be established forever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment!" — Prov. 12:19. If there be untruth and lies in these articles you will do us and the public a noble service to expose them. Surely you are not in favor of doing away with freedom of speech so long as it is carried on in a responsible way, with valid and authoritative reasons given for the opinions expressed. To silence one by force instead of debate and argument would be oppression! God's Word says: "Surely oppression makes a wise man mad!" Eccles. 7:7. Hope you do not object to the assumption, or presumption, that you are a wise man?

The other suggestion as to what to do get these extreme ads stopped, is that you pray and call on your god for help. We are praying and calling on our God for help! We think your god and ours is not the same! In the 18th chapter of 1st Kings there is the account of the testing of our God with another god, and we will still cling to Elijah's God!"

"Now, I lay me down to sleep. I pray The Lord my soul to keep. If I should die before I wake, I pray The Lord my soul to take. In Jesus Name, Amen." If I should die before I wake I hope this article will find its way into Saturday's newspapers, for I would feel much better in going to meet my Maker knowing that I had borne witness to some of His Truth unknown, or unbelieved, or neglected, or rejected, or scorned! "What wisdom is in them: they have cast away The Law of The Lord of Hosts!"
