Virginia match 'big' to booters

By BILL FIELDS

After doing the equivalent of 'kissing the sisters' by tying Guilford College Wednesday, Tar Heel soccer players will try to score a little more-literally-against Virginia at 2 p.m. Saturday on Fetzer Field.

The Tar Heels played one of those "nothing" games, a 0-0 tie with the Quakers in a game that went the full 20 minutes of overtime.

"We missed a lot of scoring opportunites," Coach Anson Dorrance said. "We came close several times. Roy Baroff just missed a couple of headers, and John Fernandez and Steve Turner had some close tries, too."

But Guilford goalie Bob Sanguinetti stole all those opportunites from Carolina, once making a stop of a Fernandez shot with his left hand as his body moved in the opposite direction.

"He (Sanguinetti) was tremendous," said Tar Heel David Blum. Steve Scott added, "That goalie was amazing." Dorrance agreed with both of his players.

"Sanguinetti really did his job," said Dorrance, referring to the Guilford goalie's eight saves of Tar Heel shots.

Carolina goalie Kevin Kane, who replaced regular goalie Martin Trimble last Saturday, recorded three saves. Kane said he was pleased with his performance. "I guess 'the defense and myself did our jobs. Anytime you get a shutout it's nice, but not winning took something away from it."

Kane's position on the Tar Heel team, even though he has played two strong games as goalie, remains uncertain. The injured Trimble said he is "going to try and play" against Virginia. "It's (the calcium deposits) not any better but it's not worse, either," Trimble said Thursday.

Meanwhile, Kane said he is going to take the situation in stride. "I'll be ready to play Saturday, and if I'm out there I'll do my best," Kane said.

Another injured Tar Heel, John Fernandez, played some against Guilford, and Dorrance said he's almost 100 percent, but isn't yet back to game fitness.

Carolina meets Virginia which is now 3-0 under new Coach John Arena-not playing the type of soccer which Dorrance would like to see. "We didn't play with intensity," he said.

"The Guilford game showed us that we have to take everygame as a challenge. Virginia is a conference game; it's big."

"We have got to get our stuff together," said utility player David Blum. "The breaks seemed to go our way last year in the close games. There have been no lucky breaks this year; maybe the law of averages is catching up," he said.

Dorrance said no major lineup changes will be made Saturday. but he will continue experimenting with different combinations of players on the forward line. "Steve Scott is the only forward to by just 240 yards as the conference's all-time rushing leader. score consistently this year," he said.

The Tar Heels are ranked 10th in the South this week by the Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America. Clemson is Carolina ball carrier with 111 yards on 18 carries for 6.2 yards a carry. ranked first, and Appalachian State is third.

The UNC women's volleyball team travels to Richmond, Ky., Matt Kupec is ninth, averaging 78.5 yards per game. Based on a

State's Brown closes in on Voight rushing mark

Through the first three weeks of the college football season, N.C. State's Ted Brown has shown he just might be a legitimate Heisman Trophy candidate.

Brown has already gained 480 yards in 89 rushes for a 5.4 average while scoring four touchdowns to lead the undefeated Wolfpack. He became the ACC's all-time leading scorer last week with three touchdowns against West Virginia. Former UNC tailback Mike Voight leads Brown

Duke's Greg Rhett and Maryland's Steve Atkins have gained over 100 yards in each of their games this year and rank second and third in rushing with 390 and 277 yards, respectively. Doug Paschal is the leading Clemson quarterback Steve Fuller leads the ACC in total offense with 204.5 yards a game followed by Brown with 184. Tar Heel quarterback

Passing game concerns Sherrill

The Pitt Panthers have one of the nation's best pass receivers-the best according to coach Jackie Sherrill-in senior split end Gordon Jones. They call him "Too Much" around Pittsburgh because he also returns punts and kickoffs.

He runs the 40-yard dash in 4.6 seconds. He jumps vertically 36 inches. He's caught 88 passes in three years and has scored 18 touchdowns.

But most of those passes came from Matt Cavanaugh, a gifted quarterback who's no longer around: And Jones and the rest of the Panther receivers have been having trouble in Pitt's first two games catching passes thrown by Pitt's quarterback Rick Trocano and Lindsay Delaney. Trocano has hit only 10 of 25 throws while Delaney had connected on 6 of 16.

"We may quit throwing the ball and just run it." Sherrill said this week. "We haven't been happy with our passing game."

The Panthers will try to work those problems out Saturday when Carolina goes to Pitt. Kickoff in Pitt Stadium will be at 1:50 p.m. ABC (Channel 5) will televise the game beginning at 1:30 p.m. A crowd of more than 50,000 people is expected.

Trocano will likely have the quarterback job all to himself Saturday after sharing time with Delaney in Pitt's opening wins over Tulane and Temple. Delaney has a separated shoulder and sprained ankle, and probably won't play against the Tar Heels. Trocano also has a mild shoulder separation, but he should

The Panthers will be without linebacker Desmond Robinson, who was lost for the season last week with a knee injury.

Tar Heels Bunn Rhames, Rick Donnalley and Lawrence Taylor, who sat out all or part of UNC's 21-20 loss to Maryland last week, are expected to return to the Carolina lineup.

Despite Pitt's 2-0 record. Sherrill has not been pleased with the Panther's play so far. "We need to improve on a lot of little things." he said. "We've had an

Golf tourney starts

The Carolina men's golf team sharpened its skills over the challenging Foxfire Country Club layout Thursday in preparation for this weekend's Foxfire collegiate golf tournament. The 54-hole tournament begins today with the final round scheduled for Sunday. The Tar Heels' A team has not participated in a tournament yet this fall but has won dual matches against Duke and N.C. State.

awful lot of busts, penalties and little mistakes. It hasn't been a total team breakdown, just individuals.

"We've certainly got to improve our passing game. Our quarterbacks may be trying to force the ball too much to Gordon Jones or waiting too long for him to get open."

for the Eastern Kentucky Invitational. The tournament begins today, when the teams will be divided into divisions. The two top teams from each division will advance Saturday to the singleelimination tournament. The undefeated Tar Heels will be going up against teams such as Duke, Miami-Dade Junior College and the host Eastern Kentucky team.

The field hockey team has away games with Westhampton and William and Mary today and Saturday at Longwood, Va. The Tar Heels defeated Longwood 2-0 last year. William and Mary was the runner-up in last year's regionals.

PARTS-"The Essential Bike" There are three things to look for when you shop for a new bike. First, a fully lugged frame. That's lugged, not faked. We can show you the difference.

Second, a one-piece hub. All forged into one piece, not just press-fit together.

And third (an easy one to miss), a forged, cotterless crank. The crank is the second-most expensive part of a bike, and extremely important. Some cranks are press-fit together. This design can separate or loosen. When this happens, the crank begins to make creaking noises and robs your bike of the tight strength it needs to have. These are the essentials of a good bike. If you're interested in good bikes, come by The Clean Machine and we'll show you the essentials.
