

Pig Pickin', Auction Saturday

Three whole pigs will be on the griddle, Bland Simpson will provide the entertainment and Phil Ford's practice jersey will be up for auction Saturday when the N.C. Civil Liberties Union holds its third annual Auction and Pig Pickin' at the Community Church on Purefoy Road.

The auction, starting at 2 p.m., also will feature a 10-speed bicycle, a 10-course dinner for six—with 10 wines—at the Avanti Gardens Restaurant, books, records, prints, pottery and the services of a stud horse at Cullowhee Springs.

Bland Simpson, co-author of the music for the Chapel Hill-to-Broadway musical Diamond Studs, will start the musical entertainment at 5 p.m., when the pig pickin' begins with three pigs, corn bread, slaw, desserts and vegetarian dinners. Beer, hot pretzels and other snacks will be available all afternoon.

The Community Church, at Purefoy and Mason Farm roads, is behind Odom Village apartments on South Campus.

Bland Simpson

'Star Wars' music highlights concert

Music from Star Wars will highlight the "Pops" concert presented by the North Carolina Symphony at 5:30 p.m. Sunday in the Forest Theatre.

The "Suite from Star Wars" by composer John Williams, which will conclude the performance, is one of the most popular movie scores ever written and was performed in the movie by the London Philharmonic.

Other selections to be played include "Overture" to Die Fledermaus by Strauss, An American in Paris by Gershwin, "Waltz" from Swan Lake by Tchaikovsky and "Sabre Dance" from the Gayne Ballet by Khatchaturian.

James Ogle, associate conductor of the Symphony, will conduct the "Pops." A graduate of the University of Michigan, Ogle opens this season as associate conductor, after having served four years as its assistant conductor.

Admission is free.

Craftsmen gather at Durham fair

More than 200 craftworkers and exhibitors from throughout the state will line the streets of downtown Durham 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday, as part of the Fifth Annual Street Arts Celebration.

Continuous musical entertainment will be presented on two main stages, with the music ranging from blues and jazz to classical.

Exotic foods, including tacos, egg rolls, falafels and natural foods, as well as traditional festival foods like ham biscuits and hot dogs will be available.

Activities for children include construction of a fantasy village, face painting, mural painting and a video theatre. Adults will be able to help create giant metal and clay sculptures.

Admission to the festival is free. For further information call 682-5519.

YARD SALE

comprising the bulk of a rather large library recently bought. There are many books on various subjects, including old readers, spellers, grammars, children's books, the sciences, history, geography, art. Also some books from our regular stock marked down for this special sale.

Saturday, September 30, commencing at 10:30

The Old Book Corner

137-A E. Rosemary St.
CHAPEL HILL, N. C. 27514

WEEKENDER

is a tabloid supplement published each Friday by the Daily Tar Heel.

Reid Tuvim
Editor

The Daily Tar Heel

Lou Bilionis, Editor
Chuck Alston, Managing Editor
Betsy Flagler, Features Editor
Mark Scandling, Arts Editor
Lee Pace, Sports Editor
Allen Jernigan, Photography Editor

STUDENT STORE

VALUE PACKED
FALL SIDEWALK

SALES

ARE NOW RUNNING!
THIS WEEK'S SALE

ART PRINTS

BUTLERS

Wiggle your toes in the cozy fleece lining of this ankle-high, padded suede lace-up and you can just forget about the cold!

15<sup>99</sup>

UNIVERSITY MALL

All merchandise guaranteed

Eastgate Shopping Center
(15-501 By-Pass)
929-0289

2 for 1 SPECIAL

Buy one pizza,
get one the same size
(or less) value

208 W. Franklin St.
942-5149