

Public service announcements must be turned in at the box outside the DTH offices in the Carolina Union by 1 p.m. If they are to run the next day. Each item will be run at least twice

BLACK ARTS FESTIVAL

Vocal Workshop-By UNC senior Brooksie Harrington. From 3:30-6 p.m. in Upendo Lounge, downstairs in the Chase Cafeteria Building Choral Concert-Featuring the New York Community Choir and the Bethel Male Chorus of Reidsville, N.C. at 8 p.m. in Memorial Hall. Admission $4.

ACTIVITIES TODAY .

There will be a me-ting of the Association of International Students at $:45 p.m. at the International Center in Bynum Hall

The department of speech communication will sponsor a rending hour at 5 p.m. in 103 Bingham Hall. Featured will be Dr. Paul Brandes reading selections from A.E. Housman's

The Association of Business Students will hold elections for 1979-80 officers at 4 p.m. in T-2 New Carroll Hall. Aloha, it's time for another Surf Club meeting. Meet at 6 p.m. in 206 Carolina Union. Very important business will be

The Campus Y is sponsoring a forum on "What's Happening in the Third World" at 8 p.m. in the Morehead faculty lounge. Presentations will be made by UNC faculty members on resource use, cultural changes, historical aspects and the new international economic order.

The Campus Governing Council will meet at 7 p.m. in 209 Carolina Unior

The Elections Board will meet at 7 p.m. in Suite C, Carolina Union to discuss the budget proposal for the coming year. All members please be present

The Full Gospel Student Fellowship invites you to join in a time of worship, prayer and teaching at 7 p.m. in SGMR. Carolina Union.

A free, public lecture on transcendental meditation will be held at 7:30 p.m. in 213 Carolina Union.

"Practical Applications of Solar Power" will be the topic at the solar energy symposium sponsored by ECOS at 8 p.m. in 100 Hamilton Hall. Speakers include a local architect, a Research Triangle researcher and president of the N.C. Solar Energy Association

AIESEC (The International Association of Students in Economics and Business Management) will hold a general meeting at 7 p.m. in 213-B Old Carroll Hall. All interested persons are invited to attend.

The Outing Club will meet at 7 p.m. in 207 Carolina Union. Officers for next year will be elected and a bike repair clinic will be held. Upcoming trips will also be discussed.

The Di-Phi Societies are sponsoring an evening of medieval music performed in costume by Nicholas Hodson at 7:30 p.m. in 300 New West Hall. All interested persons are invited to attend

Kappa Alpha Pai will be sponsoring a subscription drive for North Carolina's oldest black newspaper, The Carolina Times, from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. in the Carolina Union lobby. The UNC-CH Media Board will meet at 5 p.m. in 206 Carolina Union

The UNC College Republicans will meet at 7 p.m. in 351 Hamilton Hall. Convention plans will be discussed and nominations for club office will be held.

Are you interested in community organizing? How about social changed Then we have a career seminar for you! A representative from the N.Y. PIRG will be leading the discussion on how to get into this program at 1 p.m. in 215 Carolina Union. The event is sponsored by the Counseling Center

Want an exciting career with the F.B.I.? Come to a career seminar to find out about this agency at 7:30 p.m. in Toy Lounge, Dey Hall. The seminar is sponsored by the University Counseling Center.

UPCOMING EVENTS

All students who have ever borrowed funds from College Foundation, Inc. (CFI) are required to attend a meeting with a representative of CFI at 3 or 4 p.m. Wednesday in Gerrard system, in a talk on "Black Colleges and HEW" at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in Memorial Hall,

The Colloquium on Aging and the Aged will meet from noon until I p.m. Wednesday in the Newman Center library. Dr. David C. Kennie, a consulting physician with the department of family medicine at Duke University, will lead a discussion on geriatric medicine. All interested persons are invited to attend.

The UNC Tennis Club will meet at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the South Gallery meeting room. The tournament will be dealt with. Please he pros

The Campus Y and the Chapel Hill chapter of the N.C. Civil Liberties Union are holding a forum on N.C. migrant workers. There will be a keynote speaker and panelists to entertain tions from the audience. The event will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Morehead faculty lounge.

Episcopal Campus Ministry Eucharist will be held at 10 p.m. Wednesday in the Chapel of the Cross: "The Foolishness of God." Hymns from Godspell will make up the service

Delta Sigma Pi will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in 1-1 New Carroll Hall. All members must attend.

The weekly meeting of all ANE brothers and sisters will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in 221 Venable Hall. Some very ortant matters will be discussed.

The Sports Club Council will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday to discuss new budget forms and to meet the new officers. There will be a general meeting of all who oppose nuclear power at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the South Gallery meeting oom, Carolina Union. Everyone from the community and campus is invited to help fight nukes!

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Tickets for the Springfest concert, sponsored by the Student Government, will be sold today from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. in the South Gallery Meeting Room of the Carolina Union. A UNC-CH student ID is needed to purchase a student ticket at $4. Students may purchase only one student ticket with their ID and each student must purchase their own. All other tickets are Any UNC woman who will be a sophomore this fall is eligible for the Panhellenic Freshman Scholarship. For more information and applications, call or come by the Panhellenic Office, Suite A, Carolina Union (933-7601). Applications are due March 28.

Voter registration will be held from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. in the Chapel Hill Municipal Building and Carrboro Town Hall, and from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. in the Chapel Hill Public Library Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

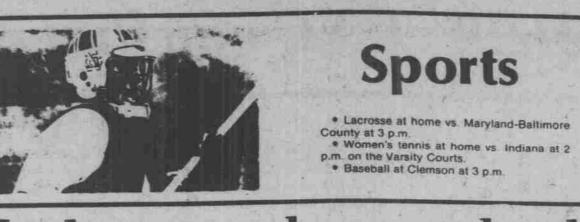

The Campus Governing Council is now accepting requests from university recognized organizations desiring student government funding. Budget request forms are available in the Campus Governing Council office, Suite C. Carolina Union this week. All requests and organizational information required is due in the CGC office by 3 p.m. Friday.

Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity is holding its second annual "Nupe Week"- Monday through Saturday, March 31. The brothers would like to take this opportunity to invite everyone to participate in the events scheduled for this week.

UNC Reader's Theatre presents Tell Me That You Love Me, Junie Moon by Marjorie Kellogg. Performances will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday in 204 Carolina Union. Admission is free and everyone is welcome.

The MCAT (Medical College Admission Test) needed for medical podiatric and osteopathic college admissions will be held April 28. Applications must be postmarked by April 2 and can be picked up in the predent premed advising office in 311 South Bldg. or University Counseling Center in 101 Nash

Applications are currently being accepted for members of the attorney general's staff. Any interested person is encouraged to apply. Applications are available in Suite C. Carolina Union and the deadline is April 2.

Heel netters bounce back with shut out over MIT

By ELLIOTT SHOENTHAL Staff Writer

The UNC men's tennis team, playing without No. 1 player Gary Taxman, had little difficulty performing a 9-0 whitewash of MIT Monday afternoon on the Varsity Courts.

Taxman, who also did not play in Saturday's loss to Miami because of his back injury, is not the only injured Tar Heel. According to UNC coach Don Skakle, the loss of players has forced him to go with a makeshift lineup.

Tiger Buford left the court complaining of stomach problems after he disposed of MIT's Joe Pasquiale in straight sets, 6-1, 6-1.

"I hope everyone is well soon," Skakle said. "It's tough getting hit with a rash of injuries in midseason." Skakle's Heels stand 12-4 for the year following Monday's match.

Even without its regular lineup, the Tar Heels had little trouble dominating the MIT squad. Ray Disco, playing No. 1 in Taxman's absence, had an easy time in beating Yusuf Maniya 6-1,6-1.

No. 2 player Jamie Karson was very strong in beating Stan Drobec, 6-1, 6-1, in a match that was closer than the straight set finish indicates.

Karson and Dek Petts teamed in the No. I doubles slot for the Tar Heels and easily defeated Drobec and Maniya in straight sets.

"The doubles pairs have been playing very nicely." Skakle said. "They've been working hard and it's beginning to pay off."

Carolina's next match comes at 2 p.m. Wednesday when the Tar Heels host N.C. State. Taxman, the only veteran on the team, may play against the Wolfpack if his back is better, Skakle said.

UNC stays at home later in the week, playing Iowa at 2 p.m. Friday and Princeton in a 2 p.m. match on Saturday. UNC plays its home matches on the Varsity Courts, located off Country Club Road on the site of the old Chapel Hill Country Club.

Singles

Ray Disco (UNC) d. Yusuf Maniya 6-1, 6-1; Jamie Karson (UNC) d. Stan Drobac 6-1, 6-1; Dek Potts (UNC) d. Marc Julian 6-0, 6-3; Tiger Buford (UNC) d. Joe Pasquiale 6-1, 6-1; Robbie Hines (UNC) d. Charlie Calkins 6-1, 6-0; Edward Dwight (UNC) d. Alex Hamza 6-2, 6-4; Mark Troutman (UNC) d. Ted Equi 6-1, 6-1.

Doubles

Potts-Karson d. Drobac-Maniya 6-1, 6-1; Heier-Disco d. Julian-Equi 6-3, 6-2; Hines-Dickson d. Humza-Pasquiale 6-2, 6-1

Heel baseball meets Tigers in Death Valley

It's always a difficult task for any team to go down to Clemson, S.C., and play a sporting event. With the Tiger paws on the roads leading into town and the very vocal fans once you get there, winning is tough.

The Carolina baseball team takes a shot at winning in Death Valley today at 3 p.m. in its third ACC game of the season. The Heels play the Tigers again on Wednesday at 3 p.m. UNC is 1-1 in conference play after beating Duke, 8-1 and dropping a 7-6 decision to N.C. State.

The Tar Heels completed a week of winning over non-conference foes Sunday afternoon, and following the game UNC coach Mike Roberts and members of the team said they had been gearing up for the Clemson game all week.

Roberts said Blaine Smith; a senior right-hander from High Point, would be on the mound today. Smith is 2-1 with a 2.42 ERA. Roberts indicated Greg Norris might get the starting nod for Wednesday's game, but he would have to wait and see how Norris felt Wednesday.

Michigan St. takes NCAA

Michigan State, led by Earvin "Magic" Johnson's 22 points ended the dreams of an undefeated season for Indiana State Monday night with a 75-64 win in the NCAA final in Salt Lake City.

National player of the year Larry Bird had 19 in a losing cause.

Michigan State, 26-6, led at the half 37-28 and extended the lead to as much as 16 in the second half. Indiana State chipped away and got it down to six, but the Sycamores were forced to foul to get the ball.

Indiana State finishes the season 33-1.

This was the first national basketball title for Michigan State, making its first appearance in the Final Four since 1957, when the Spartans lost to Carolina/in the semifinals.

In the consolation game, Mark Aguirre had 34 to lead DePaul to a 96-93 overtime win over Penn. Tony Price had 31 for Penn.

RALEIGH WOMEN'S HEALTH ORGANIZATION

ABORTIONS $150

Tuesday, March 27, 1979 / The Daily Tar Heel / 5

The curriculum in folklore of UNC will sponsor a slide lecture entitled "The Complex Relations of Material Folk Culture" at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Dey Hall faculty lounge. The speaker will be Dr. Bernard Herman, formerly a field researcher for the Virginia Historical Landmarks Commis and currently a professor at the University of Delaware. "Beach Access: Once You Find a Place to Park, How Do You Get to the Beach?"-slides and discussion will resented by Dave Brower, associate director of the UNC

Center for Urban and Regional Studies, at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in 209 Carolina Union. The event is sponsored by the N.C. Coastal Club and the public is invited.

Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity will hold a "Nupe Paraphenalia" display from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Wednesday in the Carolina Union lobby

Kappa Alpha Psi will present Dr. Cleon Thompson, vice president of Special Programs and Services for the UNC

'Third World' topic of forum

"What's Happening in the Third World?" will be the topic of a forum at 8 tonight in the Morehead Faculty Lounge.

A panel of UNC faculty members will discuss problems facing the third world, including resources uses, cultural changes and the new international economic order. The panel members will be Doug Eyre of the department of geography, Ann Dunbar of the department of Afro-American Studies and Dennis Appleyard of the department of economics. Herbert Bodman of the department of history will moderate the Campus Y forum

Date changed

The concert by the UNC Men's Glee Club, originally to be at 8 tonight, has been rescheduled for 4 p.m. Sunday. The UNC Women's Glee club will perform also.

