

House panel approves bill relaxing pot penalties

RALEIGH (AP)—A House judiciary panel Thursday approved a bill relaxing the criminal penalties for possession of up to four ounces of marijuana.

The bill, introduced by Rep. Al Adams, D-Wake, would make possession of four ounces or less of marijuana a misdemeanor rather than a felony. It was originally written to make possession of up to a pound of the substance a misdemeanor but was changed by the committee.

Current law makes possession of more than an ounce a felony, punishable by up to five years in prison.

The bill was approved by the House Judiciary II Committee and sent to the full House for consideration.

Adams said the proposal is needed because the state should have an intermediate range of penalties for possession of marijuana. The bill, initially proposing to place up to one pound of marijuana under the misdemeanor classification, was first sent to the House Judiciary III Committee. The panel voted to reduce the amount to one-half pound, but the proposal ran into trouble on its first trip to the House floor because some members said it was too lenient.

It also contained a provision making possession of 20 marijuana plants a misdemeanor. The Judiciary III Committee cut that amount in half.

The bill was sent back to the Judiciary II Committee Thursday, which halved the amount again, making possession of four ounces a misdemeanor and deleted the section on plants altogether.

The bill now goes back to the full House for consideration.

Surgeon General's report. The study found that, in 1975, men who had completed college smoked considerably less than their peers with less education. Women followed the same trend, except for a slight increase among those who have some college education but not a degree.

Flaxman, who treats people trying to kick the habit, said college students may be able to quit smoking more easily than older smokers simply because they've been smoking for a shorter period of time.

For UNC students who want to quit smoking, cold turkey is no longer the only way to do it. Smoking clinics abound, all designed to aid the smoker in withdrawing from tobacco consumption. One such clinic is conducted by the UNC medical fraternity, while another is run by the Duke University Comprehensive Cancer Center, which also supplies information and tips on quitting through a toll-free answer line (800-672-0943).

The Cancer Society, located at 125 West Main St. in Carrboro, also has information and advice on quitting.

bottles of imported red wine and six bottles of Pouilly-Fuisse white wine (at $10 a bottle), two cases of Perrier water (with large cups), and 20 dark towels.

Among the various other items are: one quart of Schnapps, one quart of Tanguary Gin, one quart of Canadian Club, two six-packs of tonic water, an assortment of Dr. Pepper, Coke and 7-Up, and assorted fruit juices.

According to Springfest Committee member Jay Tervo no items on the list, which will cost nearly $1,000, may be deleted without the written consent of Buffett or his agent.

Nantucket, the Top 40 group which opens the show at 5 p.m. Saturday in Kenan, has simpler needs. A large mirror and key to the dressing room will accompany their $4,000 payment.

The Spinners, who follow Nantucket on the concert program, have asked for six bottles of Blue Nun wine and eight cases of Pabst Blue Ribbon beer. They will receive a $7,500 salary. Tickets for the concert ($8) are still available at the Carolina Union desk until 5 p.m. today or at the north gate of Kenan Stadium beginning at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow. Gates will open at 3 p.m., but once entered cannot be left without a re-admission charge. Students may bring food and drink in to the stadium but no glass will be allowed. Rain date for the event is Sunday, April 22, at 2 p.m.

News In Brief

Bobby Roberts trial goes to jury

Attorneys presented closing arguments in the trial of former apartment complex developer Bobby Ray Roberts Thursday and sent the case to jury in Orange County Superior Court.

Roberts is charged with false pretense in the sale of a Carrboro home in September 1975, saying the home was free of any previous liens or mortgages, although a lien was discovered from a loan made to Roberts to build the house.

Roberts' attorneys said he did not lie, but only failed to keep a promise to clear up the lien.

If convicted, Roberts faces up to 10 years in prison on the felony charge.

Former GOP head Rogers Morton dies

EASTON, Md. (AP)—Rogers C.B. Morton, cabinet secretary for two presidents, a five-term Maryland congressman and former head of the Republican Party, died at his home near here Thursday. He was 64.

Morton, who was operated on for cancer of the prostate in 1973 and for a related problem in 1978, had been confined to his home for four weeks.

Morton served in Congress with two presidents-to-be, Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford, then served in both their cabinets as interior secretary for Nixon and commerce secretary for Ford. Morton also served as a campaign official for both Nixon and Ford.

Morton was elected to five terms in Congress, representing the Eastern Shore from 1962 until 1970. For part of the time he served in the House, his older brother, Thurston Morton, represented Kentucky in the Senate.

Leader says Japan must combat Soviet arms

TOKYO (AP)—Japan must increase its military strength to counter a Soviet arms buildup in Asia and needs as much deterrent power as possible, Prime Minister Masayoshi Ohira said Thursday.

He also said trade friction between Japan and the United States can be eased but probably not eliminated.

The 69-year-old Japanese leader, who is to leave April 30 for summit talks with President Carter in Washington, said the defense topic likely will arise then. However, observers here say trade is expected to play a larger role in the talks.

Bomb kills one as Egyptians vote on treaty

A parcel bomb killed a postal worker in Cairo Thursday as Egyptians voted in a referendum on the peace treaty with Israel.

The bombing in Egypt occurred in Cairo's central post office. Four workers were injured in the explosion of the package. Egyptians blamed the parcel bomb on Arab opponents of their nation's peace with Israel.

Egyptian police authorities who are supervising the vote count said unprecedented turnout for the referendum which President Anwar Sadat predicted would draw 99 percent yes votes.

Ugandan minister urges end to killing

KAMPALA, Uganda (AP)—Uganda's new defense minister told the citizens of the battle-ravaged nation Thursday to stop killing for vengeance because the government is to rule by the law.

Tanzanian and Ugandan troops continued their slow march north and east to wipe out remaining pockets of soldiers loyal to deposed dictator Idi Amin.

Murders continued in areas beyond the new government's control. Amin has disappeared after losing his capital at the end of a five-month war that began when Ugandan troops invaded Tanzania late last year.
