

The Week

Highlights

Da at 8:30 p.m. Friday with a 4 p.m. matinee Saturday in Memorial Hall. This touching comedy tells, with great affection, the story of a middle-aged writer who comes to Dublin to bury his father. Haunted by his father's roguish spirit, he relives memories of his bittersweet childhood. Tickets available at the Union box office.

Festfall 1980 from 1 until 5:30 p.m. Sunday on downtown Franklin Street. Entertainment includes Mr. Ken Kaye, the performing juggler, a lacrosse exhibition featuring UNC lacrosse team players, the Apple Chill Cloggers and the Leaky String Band. Exhibitions will include pottery batik, watercolors and spin art displays.

Allegro Non Troppo Friday at 7, 9, and 11 p.m. in Carroll Hall. Bruno Zoppetto's lovely and spirited animated send-up of Disney's Fantasia. Admission $1.

Cinema

The Overcoat at 8 p.m. today in Carroll Hall. An adaptation of Gogol's literary classic about a meek office clerk who fights to buy a coat for the winter, enjoys the popularity it brings him and suffers its loss. Admission by UNC student ID or Union privilege card.

Wuthering Heights at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Saturday in Carroll Hall. Sam Goldwyn's production of Emily Bronte's Gothic love story with Laurence Olivier as Heathcliff and Merle Oberon as Cathy. Admission by UNC student ID or Union privilege card.

The Last Command at 8 p.m. Sunday in Great Hall. Josef Von Sternberg's silent masterpiece is an ironic tale of a Czarist general reduced to work as an extra in Hollywood studios. Admission by UNC student ID or Union privilege card.

Being A Joiner at 8 p.m. Monday in Carroll Hall. This color film documentary of North Carolina folklore shown for the first time. Admission free.

The Lavender Hill at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Carroll Hall. Alec Guinness stars as a timid bank clerk who leads a gang of robbers in the hilarious British romp. Winner of the 1951 Academy Award for best screenplay. Admission by UNC student ID or Union privilege card.
