Tennis picks up first ACC win

The UNC men's tennis team was on both ends of 8-1 scores this weekend as it lost Saturday to the Atlantic Coast Conference's top-ranked Clemson Tigers and then defeated Georgia Tech by the same score Sunday.

UNC claimed five of six singles matches against the Yellow Jackets in dropping Tech's record to 8-10. The Tar Heels raised their overall record to 16-8 while capturing their first ACC win against two conference losses.

Ray Disco easily defeated Tech's Chuck Hyder, 6-4, 6-2 at No. 1 singles. Number two Ron Erskine (6-1, 6-0) and No. 3 Ken Whitaker (6-1, 6-0) also encountered little difficulty.

The Tar Heels' only bright spot against Clemson Saturday afternoon was at No. 1 doubles where Dek Potts and Chris Fenichel combined to win in three sets, 6-2, 4-6, 7-6.

North Carolina's next home match will be Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. against Wake Forest.

The softball team highlighted a busy weekend by winning the Western Carolina Invitational Tournament in Cullowhee.

The Tar Heels lost to Western Carolina 8-6, but came back to beat them 14-4 to win the double elimination tournament. They also defeated UNC-Charlotte 11-1, Milligan of Tennessee 18-2, and Campbell 6-3.

Carolina placed five players on the All-tournament team. Cathy MacFarland was named at third base, Laurie Bailey at shortstop; Ginny Schreiner at catcher; Susie Everett at second base; and Susie Wilson was named outstanding pitcher.

Carolina split a doubleheader against N.C. State at home Sunday, winning the first game 8-3 and losing the second 6-0. The Heels' record now stands at 25-12. They play a doubleheader at UNC-Greensboro today.

The women's tennis team won an important match here Saturday, beating nationally-ranked Tennessee 6-3. The Heels won five singles and one doubles to increase their record to 11-2.

Kathy Barton lost at the No. 1 singles in three sets 6-4, 1-6, 6-3, but teamed with Julie Kirby to win at third doubles 7-6, 6-1.

Lloyd Hatcher beat Paula Kelly 6-4, 7-5 at number two; Betsy Heidenberger beat Peta Kelly at the third spot 6-3, 6-0; Margie Brown won at No. 4, beating Sally Applebaum 6-1, 6-3; Katherine Hogan won at No. 5, 6-2, 6-2 over Karen Stewart; and Jennifer Balent beat Terri Kirk 6-3, 6-4 at No. 6.

The team travels to Duke to face the Blue Devils Thursday.

The UNC baseball team was rained out Sunday in Virginia which may have been a blessing after the Tar Heels were trounced Saturday by ACC foe Maryland 16-6.

Scott Bradley hit two home runs and Joe Reto, Pete Kumeiga, Greg Schuler and Eddie Waynick added one each for UNC.

The baseball team travels to East Carolina today before returning home Wednesday to face Liberty Baptist.

PRE-MED

Current undergraduate pre-medical students may now compete for several hundred Air Force scholarships. These scholarships are to be awarded to students accepted into medical schools as freshmen or at the beginning of their sophomore year. The scholarship provides for tuition, books, lab fees and equipment, plus a $400 monthly allowance. Investigate this financial alternative to the high cost of medical education
