

Clemson defeats 'Cocks to finish unbeaten

Rod McSwain blocked a punt for a first-period touchdown to trigger a Clemson rally and his older brother, Chuck, ran for a pair of second-half touchdowns as the second-ranked Tigers defeated South Carolina, 29-13, Saturday and completed their first perfect regular season in 33 years.

Clemson's defense, ranked 12th in the nation, also set up an 11-yard scoring scramble by quarterback Homer Jordan for a 15-7 halftime lead after Bob Paulling made up for the first missed extra point of his career with a 23-yard field goal that put the Tigers in front to stay.

After South Carolina closed within 15-13 early in the third period on a 10-yard pass from Gordon Beckham to Horace Smith — a 2-point conversion try failed when Beckham was sacked by Jeff Suttle.

Clemson wrapped up its 12th consecutive victory when Chuck McSwain leaped across from a yard out later in the third quarter and bolted 23 yards for a fourth-quarter score, breaking three tackles along the way.

Clemson, bound for the Orange Bowl against Nebraska, finished the regular season 11-0. Only twice before has Clemson won 11 games in a season and those years, 1948 and 1978, included bowl wins. South Carolina is 6-5 with one game left and probably could have gone to the Hall of Fame bowl by beating the Tigers.

Tailback Charlie Wysocki ran for 153 yards and four touchdowns Saturday and Boomer Esiason set a school single-season passing record as Maryland rolled to a 48-7 victory over Virginia.

Wysocki ran in two first-half touchdowns from 8 and 13 yards as Maryland took a commanding 27-0 lead at intermission. He scored two more touchdowns in the third quarter on runs of 1 and 2 yards.

Esiason completed 10 of 13 passes for 191 yards, including a 53-yard pass to Russell Davis that set up Wysocki's one-yard TD plunge in the third period.

Esiason completed his 122nd pass of the season to break the old school record of 121 completions set in 1962 by Dick Shiner.

Virginia, 1-9, did not cross the 50-yard line until late in the second quarter. The Cavaliers got no closer than the Maryland 38 in the first half.

Virginia's defense failed to stop Maryland until Tim Whittie fumbled in the end zone late in the second half.

Early in the first quarter, the Cavaliers stopped the Terps on the Virginia 10, but were penalized for having too many players on the field. The penalty enabled the Terps to score on a one-yard run by Whittie.

Mark Sanford scored Virginia's only touchdown in the third period on a 5-yard pass from Todd Kirtling.

Vernon Carter ran 11 yards for a Maryland touchdown in the fourth quarter. Jesse Atkinson added

Miami's 11th-ranked Hurricanes started Saturday as if they might blow North Carolina State off the football map, but the Wolfpack nearly weathered the storm before bowing 14-6.

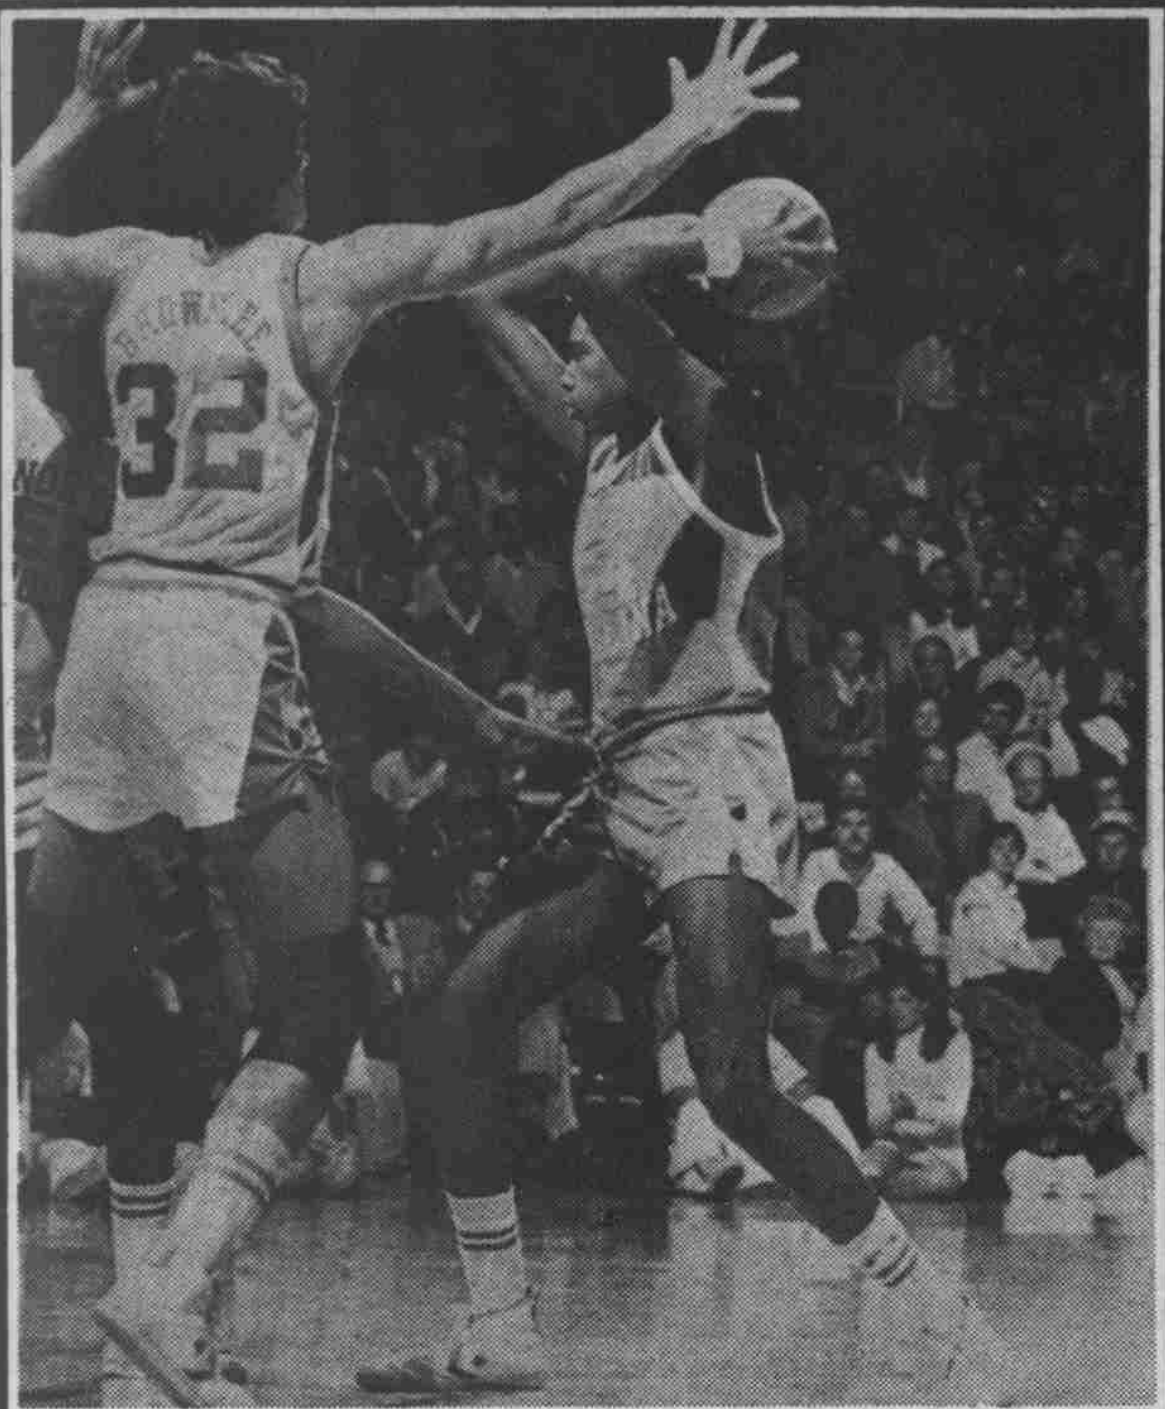

"After the first five minutes we never did play well enough offensively to put the game away," said Miami coach Howard Schnellenberger.

"It was obvious that we were the dominant team, but North Carolina State's seniors are to be commended on the way they hung in there. If they had been able to move the ball consistently on offense, it would have been a much different game."

For North Carolina State head coach Monte Kiffin, it was the same old story of the past six weeks — his club played close but came up short.

"It was a tough loss for us," Kiffin said, "but it's been that kind of year. But like I told the squad, this was a team that never would say die. Down 14-0 right off the bat and after five straight losses, they still didn't quit."

Miami, led by quarterback Jim Kelly, struck for two touchdowns the first five minutes of play while the Hurricane's defense shut down the Wolfpack and the early scores stand up for the victory.

Volleyball team takes regional title

From staff reports

The UNC volleyball team earned a shot at a national title with two thrilling victories in winning the AJAW Region II tournament in Raleigh over the weekend.

It took come-from-behind efforts in both the semifinals and finals to put Carolina in the national tournament to be held in Tallahassee, Fla. Dec. 8-13.

The Heels beat N.C. State in the finals, 15-7, 11-15, 3-15, 15-8, 15-7 Saturday night.

And they had to win a cliff-hanger to even get into the final match with State. The semifinal win, over Eastern Kentucky, was by scores of 15-10, 13-15, 12-15, 15-9, 15-6.

Linda Kantz, Donna Meier and Laura Held were named to the all-tournament team.

Kantz said the comebacks took a considerable team effort.

"I feel like I didn't have that good a tournament, but the hitters behind me made me look good," she said. "Those guys (teammates) really played great."

Carolina will go into the national tournament with a 36-9 record. Hawaii, the current No. 1-ranked team, will be the team to beat in Tallahassee.

Cami Berizzi celebrated her 20th birthday among friends, both in and out of water, as the North Carolina women's swimming and diving team defeated the University of Tennessee Volunteers, 98-51, in the home season opener Sunday.

The birthday girl finished second in both the 100-yard backstroke with an NCAA national qualifying time of 59.13 and the 200-yard backstroke, behind teammate Sue Walsh, with qualifying times of 57.90 and 2:07.56, respectively. Berizzi also led off UNC's winning 400-yard medley relay team, with Janet Strickland, Barb Harris and Walsh. That combination finished in a qualifying time of 3:55.21.

"To have as many national qualifying times as we did is rare this early in the season," Berizzi said of UNC's six qualifying performances. The remaining two were Strickland's 100-yard breaststroke time of 1:06.21 and Amy Pless' 100-yard individual medley in 59.59.

Only three bowl spots remain

Most spots in the college football bowls, including Carolina and Arkansas on Dec. 28 in the Gator Bowl, have been filled following weekend action.

Only three spots in 16 bowl games have not been filled.

West Virginia will play the winner of Saturday's Florida-Florida St. game in the Peach Bowl in Atlanta New Year's Eve. Oklahoma's opponent in the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas, Dec. 26 has not been named, and the same situation ap-

Divers Janice Dalrymple and Sue Perriater both qualified for the zone diving championships as well as the nationals. Dalrymple scored 168.50 and 246.0 points in the one-meter events. Perriater scored 159.60 and 241.90. The women finished 1-2 in both events, but reversed positions.

"This was one of the best opening meets I've ever seen the women have," coach Frank Comfort said. "University of Tennessee's a good team."

UT coach Terry Carlisle, in his second year, expects to bring the Vols up to the level of UNC next year through selective recruiting. He said that is a tall order, since "North Carolina has a good shot at the national title this year."

Both the men's and women's teams will be at Duke today at 7 p.m.

plies to the Hall of Fame Bowl, to be played in Birmingham, Ala. on New Year's Eve. Mississippi State will play a team to be announced in that game.

The four major bowls will see Clemson against Nebraska (Orange), Alabama against Texas (Cotton), Iowa against Washington (Rose) and Georgia against Pittsburgh (Sugar).

The Fiesta Bowl moves to New Year's day this year with Penn State and Southern Cal.
