Agents harass Walesa's wife, children

WARSAW, Poland - Security forces stripped Lech Walesa's wife naked and tried to undress his two screaming daughters in an attempt to find evidence that could be used to place the detained labor chief under formal arrest, the wife said.

Danuta Walesa, visibly upset after her return home to Gdansk, said the strip-search by female agents took place Friday in a police station in southeastern Przemysl, near the resort where she visited her interned husband for five days. Walesa, leader of the now outlawed Solidarity labor federation, has been in detention without charge since martial law was decreed Dec. 13.

Mrs. Walesa told The Associated Press in an exclusive interview in her Gdansk home Saturday that she protested at the time of the strip-search and planned to file a protest with the Communist government's martial-law authorities.

There was no immediate comment from Polish officials on Mrs. Walesa's claims.

She said her daughters Magda, 4, and Anna, 2, screamed and cried when the agents tried to strip them in a room next to the office where she was forced to take all her clothes off.

"It was the most horrible thing. It's impossible to put into words," she said when asked what went through her mind when she was forced to submit to the strip-search and heard her daughters screaming.

She said Magda and Anna finally were frisked with their clothes on after the agents gave up trying to undress

Mrs. Walesa said she believed the agents were searching for any kind of smuggled appeal or statement from her husband with which they could formally charge him with a crime and place him under formal arrest. She said they found nothing and that she and her daughters were released after two hours. She said it was the first time authorities had strip-searched her since her husband was interned and his independent union was suspended under martial law.

In the hour-long interview with the AP, Mrs. Walesa said her husband would have used different methods than those of the Solidarity underground to fight martial law, but believes "every form of protest is good."

She said her husband remains defiant after 10 months of internment, and had refused an offer of freedom in exchange for endorsing new trade unions replacing Solidarity under the country's new labor law.

Mrs. Walesa also said her husband "looks and feels very well," has shaved off a full beard he grew earlier this year and fights daily boredom by reading and think-

Walesa, along with thousands of Solidarity activists, was interned when martial law was imposed and has been held in isolation since then, first in a suburban Warsaw villa and since May at an isolated government resort at Arlamow in southeast Poland near the Soviet

LONDON — Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher on Sunday was asked to make an urgent statement to Parliament on allegations that a man accused of spying for the Soviets achieved one of the deepest penetrations of Western intelligence since World War II.

"What we are concerned about is whether or not...our national security is at risk," said Labor Party Member of Parliament Ted Leadbitter in calling for the statement.

The Times identified him as Geoffrey Arthur Prime, 44, a translator of Russian at Cheltenham.

In July, Prime was arraigned on espionage charges that a prosecutor described then as being "of the gravest possible nature." Prime was ordered held in custody for a hearing at a later date.

The Cheltenham facility in Gloucestershire, western England, where Prime is said to have worked from 1968 to 1977, is at the heart of Britain's intelligence network and works closely with the U.S. National Security Agency. Canada and Australia also participate.

WASHINGTON - Secretary of State George P. Shultz set out Sunday on a fence-mending mission to Ottawa, prepared to discuss the full range of irritants in U.S.-Canadian relations.

The 24-hour trip, Shultz's first official bilateral visit to another country since he took office last summer, is expected to be a forum for frank talk, not new agreements.

"They will discuss the state of relations, which is not in the best of shape these days," said one Canadian official who asked not to be identified.

"What we would like to see is a commitment to avoiding any kind of disruption or deterioration in our relationship," Canadian Ambassador Alan Gotlieb told reporters last week. "We want to clear up a number of odd misunderstandings."

Gotlieb characterized relations between the two countries as "not as bad as they have been made out." But he acknowledged that relations recently have often been marked by "rhetoric of a high decibel level."

BERLIN — Squatters battled West Berlin police with their fists into the early hours Sunday in an escalating fight over a housing shortage that has become a symbol of German youth protest.

Police said about 100 protesters fought officers hand-to-hand, kicking and punching them in the third night of violence triggered by police eviction of squatters from two dilapidated buildings.

Three more people were arrested - bringing to around 1,350 the number of people arrested since the squatting issue erupted into violence almost two years ago.

BRIEFIN

Since then, the squatters have carved out their own world in a shabby neighborhood of West Berlin, sealing themselves off with metal-screened windows, padlocks and bars on doors.

MIRACLE VALLEY, Ariz. -Roadblocks sealed off this community Sunday as the FBI joined an investigation into a violent confrontation between members of an allblack religious sect and police that left two dead and nine injured.

Killed in a burst of gunfire Saturday was William Thomas Jr., 38, the son of the founder of the controversial Christ Miracle Healing Center and Church, and another member of the sect identified as either Agustar or Arguster Tate, 52. Both were shot with high-powered rifles, police said. Two other church members remained hospitalized, one with a severed spine. Two deputies also were in a hospital, while five officers were treated and released Saturday. Nine church members were arraigned Sunday before Justice of the Peace John Sharp in nearby Bisbee on one count each of aggravated assault on a peace officer. They were ordered held on bond of $68,500 each, according to Undersheriff Dale Lehman.

Authorities said deputies had entered Miracle Valley to arrest three church members, two for misdemeanor traffic violations and a third on a warrant charging felony fleeing.

Witnesses said the shooting erupted after a large crowd of church members surrounded deputies who reinforced the officers trying to serve the warrants.
