Prime sentenced after espionage conviction

The Associated Press
LONDON — Soviet spy Geoffrey Prime, convicted of espionage that caused "incalculable harm" to Britain and its Western allies during 14 years of treachery, was sentenced Monday to 35 years in jail.
The 44-year-old former translator for British intelligence was sentenced to three additional years for sexual assaults on three young girls. Police questioning about those crimes led him to confess his guilt and his espionage activities to his wife, who informed police.
Prime started blatantly ahead as sentence was pronounced. His 37-year-old wife, Rhona, sobbed.
"By your treachery you have done incalculable harm to the interests and security of this country and the interests and security of our friends in the alliance," Lord Chief Justice Lord Lane said.

Prime held a finger to his lips, but did not flinch as defense lawyer George Carman, pleading for leniency, declared: "What you see before you is a desperately lonely and totally inadequate person, a sexual and social misfit."
Earlier this month intelligence sources said Prime knew every monitored Soviet message and every code broken at Britain's Government Communications Headquarters for electronic intelligence-gathering in Cheltenham.
Prime, who learned Russian and German in the Royal Air Force, pleaded guilty to seven counts of passing top-secret information to Soviet agents between 1968 and last April, and to sexually molesting girls aged between 11 and 14.
The hushed courtroom No. 1 at London's Old Bailey Central Criminal Court was told that after Prime's April 28 arrest, his wife found espionage equipment under a bed in their home.

The prosecution said his "indispensable tools of the modern spy" included a false bottom briefcase, a top secret British document, powerful radio, signal times and frequencies for radio contacts.
"As a Christian I could not live with that on my conscience and on my husband's conscience," she told the court. "I can forgive him because he is so utterly filled with remorse and guilt."
With unusual frankness for a security trial, Attorney General Sir Michael Havers identified two Soviet contacts, Igor and Vladya, with whom Prime met regularly in 1968 after volunteering to spy while stationed with the air force in West Berlin.
Prime, then 31, made his first contact by leaving a note with a Soviet guard at a checkpost because, his lawyer said, he "needed something to believe in."

Emergency loans to Mexico, Argentina approved

The Associated Press
WASHINGTON — The International Monetary Fund has tentatively approved emergency loans of $3.8 billion to Mexico and about $2.1 billion to Argentina to help them meet their huge foreign debts, financial sources said Wednesday.
In return for the aid, both financially troubled nations will be forced to take stern belt-tightening steps at home, according to the sources.
Meanwhile, banking sources in London said Wednesday that U.S. banks provided Brazil with about $600 million in emergency short-term loans to help the South American country cover an expected shortfall of up to $4 billion in its current trade account.

The U.S. government is expected to loan Brazil another $500 million to $1 billion later this year, the sources said.
The twin actions by the IMF, an international lending agency of last resort to countries in financial straits, could help allay fears that a global banking crisis will arise from the inability of a growing list of developing nations to pay their debts.
Between the two of them, Mexico and Argentina owe foreign lenders an estimated $120 billion.

Both loans are subject to the formal approval of the IMF's board of directors, a formality that will take at least a month.
In Mexico City, government officials said the loan would not alter its policy of strict exchange controls.
Treasury Secretary Jesus Silva Herzog said Mexico had agreed to drastic cuts in government spending to eliminate a multibillion dollar budget deficit as part of the accord with the IMF.
Carlos Tello Maciaw, president of the Bank of Mexico, the country's central

The Associated Press
SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador — Troops poured into northern Chalatenango province Wednesday in a major push against leftist guerrillas, military sources there said.
In northeast Morazan province, the rebels claimed to have captured 60 troops and killed between 30 and 35 others in fighting since Sunday near the town of Corinto.
Troops from five garrisons, including the American-trained Atlacatl battalion, pushed into northern Chalatenango Wednesday in an effort to dislodge rebels who control a 100-square-mile swath of mountainous terrain along the Honduran border, military sources said.
As many as 3,500 troops may be taking part in the anti-rebel push, according to estimates by various sources.

Blue-ship stocks flirted with record levels Wednesday but then dropped sharply in active and volatile trading on Wall Street.
Sales by U.S. retailers, meanwhile, rose a moderate 0.6 percent in October, while initial claims for jobless benefits fell, the government reported.
Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co. in New York, the nation's fourth-largest commercial bank, said its new rates on mortgages and cooperative apartments — ranging from 13.5 percent to 15.75 percent — are effective Friday.

MOSCOW — Soviet sources said Wednesday that an important figure in the Kremlin hierarchy had died. No one would say who it was, but President Leonid I. Brezhnev's name apparently was missing from a state document he normally would have signed.
The other names most frequently mentioned in rumors of a death in the aging leadership are those of Andrei P. Kirilenko, 76, and Arvid Y. Pelise, 83, Brezhnev's 76.
The rumors circulating around the capital did not focus on any one member of the governing 13-man Politburo.
NEW YORK — Frederick W. Richmond, who resigned from Congress to avoid indictment on other crimes, was sentenced Wednesday to a year and a day in prison and fined $20,000 for income tax evasion and possession of marijuana.

Durham clinic offers vaccines to combat winter influenza

With winter just around the corner, a local medical clinic is offering free immunization against flu during the month of November.
The Memorial Emergency Medical Services clinic in Durham has announced that it will administer influenza vaccinations for anyone who needs them, especially those people who each winter suffer from flu.
MEMS requests that individuals planning to receive the immunizations phone one day in advance to make an appointment.
The medical clinic is located at 5529 Chapel Hill Blvd. in Durham. For further information, call 493-7585 in Durham and 942-8578 in Chapel Hill, between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m.
