BRIEFLY

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — After years of avoiding a stand on the issue, the League of Women Voters declared its support on Wednesday for the right of American women to have an abortion. League president Dorothy S. Ridings said the league believed that the government should leave the question of abortion and other matters dealing with reproduction to the conscience of each person.

League officials said the organization's board adopted the position at a meeting Tuesday, almost 10 years after the U.S. Supreme Court returned its decision legalizing abortion in most situations.

FAYETTEVILLE — More than 120 Fort Bragg soldiers and 60 other troopers have begun a six-month tour with the multinational peacekeeping force in the Sinai Peninsula.

The group departed Tuesday aboard a Boeing 707 commercial jet. They included 82 paratroopers from the 82nd Airborne Division and 101 members of the logistical support unit, including 41 from Fort Bragg's 1st Corps Support Command.

In infantry unit will man checkpoints and run patrols in an area along the eastern coast of the Sinai Peninsula. The 82nd Airborne supplied the first U.S. infantry unit for the peacekeeping force last March.

RALEIGH — Rep. Sam Bundy, D-Pitt, died Wednesday of an apparent heart attack. He was 76.

Bundy was stricken at 8:30 a.m. while he was in the restaurant at the Raleigh Hilton Inn, said hotel desk manager Patty Wells. He was pronounced dead at Rex Hospital at 9:55 a.m., said hospital spokesman Nancy Miller.
