

Students must file property tax

By LYNDA THOMPSON
Staff Writer

Since most students at the University do not list Chapel Hill as their permanent home, the adviser for the office of Student Legal Services said that they did not think that the Orange County property tax applied to them. But Jan. 31 is the deadline for listing any accumulation of property valued at more than $300 with the county, and the tax applies to all residents who have lived in Orange County for more than six months.

Kermit Lloyd of the Orange County tax office said failure to list taxes may result in a punishment of up to six months in jail and a $500 fine. People who do not pay their taxes only receive a remainder, he said.

He continued to explain that bills are sent out in July and August and that payment is due Dec. 31. He said that it is generally assumed that students living in dorms did not have more than $300 in property, so they were not taxed. And students living in apartments usually have household goods which do pass the $300 limit, so the tax office receives a list of the apartment tenants in Orange County, Lloyd said.

Dorothy Bernholz, the Student Legal Service's adviser, said this past year was the first for which the tax office got a list of apartment tenants from apartment owners. For previous years, the tax office used a computer list of car owners from the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Contrary to popular belief, out-of-state students are not exempt from the property tax. If their property is in Orange County as of Jan. 1, they are required to file their property. Freshmen and junior transfers are the only students that are exempt. Lloyd explained that freshmen and junior transfers have two places of residence for that year and would list taxes at the residence where they lived for the most of that year, which is usually their hometown.

When asked about the property taxes many students replied, "I'm an out-of-state student so I don't pay taxes in Orange County."

Others said, "I'll be graduating and leaving Chapel Hill, so I don't need to pay a property tax."

Bernholz said many students who had received a bill from the tax office and had not paid, came to her for advice.

"I urged the students who came for advice to pay the taxes they owed," she said. "There is a lot of misunderstanding about property taxes. Not every state has a personal property tax, and out-of-state students may not be aware of the tax here in Orange County."

Lloyd warned that students should pay the taxes despite the lack of punishment for not doing so, because he said that employers of large companies frequently come to the tax office for records on students who are looking for jobs.

"Students don't realize that companies will often check their past history. They want to see if they are good citizens and have paid their taxes," he said.

Notification for taxes was advertised in four Orange County publications, Lloyd said.

Cherry Point seminar to focus on management

"Personal and Managerial Leadership in Action" will be the topic of a seminar at Cherry Point Marine Corps Air Station Wednesday, Jan. 26. Sponsored by the 20th Marine Aircraft Wing, the trip and seminar will focus on management and organizational philosophy, rather than equipment and procedure.

The itinerary will include attending a briefing for Gen. K.A. Smith by staff officers and group commanders, touring headquarters of the air traffic control center, and attending a formal dinner at the officers' club.

A 40-seat bus has been chartered for the trip, and seats can be reserved for $12. Meal expenses will be approximately $7.

Anyone interested in the trip should contact Mary Fuller at the Office of University Affairs, 103 A South Building, or call 962-6962.

'DTH' arts staff to meet Tuesday

The arts staff of The Daily Tar Heel will meet in the DTH office at 5 p.m. Tuesday. All writers are required to attend. New assignments will be made and a special feature article will be discussed. Any writers with schedule conflicts should notify Jeff in advance at 962-0245.

Personnel needed for mock trial

The UNC Law School is sponsoring the National Mock Trial Regional Competitions for 1983 on Feb. 14, 15 and 16. A total of seven different law schools will be competing for an opportunity to send the winning team to Houston, Tex., in March.

As sponsor for the regional competition, the UNC Law School is responsible for providing support personnel for each of the 17 trials to be held. Four witnesses and one bailiff are required for each trial. Volunteers to play the roles of the witnesses are needed as soon as possible. If interested, contact Bill Mills during the day at 688-8058 in Durham.

This ended worldwide concern that the satellite, which has been tumbling for more than a month, might rain deadly debris on populated land.

WASHINGTON — An out-of-control, radioactive Soviet spy satellite plunged to fiery destruction in Earth's dense atmosphere over the mid-Indian Ocean Sunday, the Pentagon announced.

Air Force Col. Robert O'Brien, a Pentagon spokesman, said U.S. observers on the island of Diego Garcia reported seeing a "40-second burn" in the sky at 5:15 EST, six minutes before the satellite's main hull rammed fully into the dense atmosphere.

WASHINGTON — The 98th Congress, more cautious and more Democratic than its predecessor, reconvenes this week to hear President Reagan's plans for a budget soaked in red ink before moving on to shore up the crumbling Social Security system.

The new Congress finished its organizational business earlier this month and returns Tuesday to hear the president's State of the Union address.

A net gain of 26 seats in the fall elections gave House Democrats a 102-seat margin and House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill Jr., D-Mass., a stronger base from which to bounce back after legislative defeats of the past two years.

In the Senate, meanwhile, Republicans still have the 54-46 majority that existed in the 97th Congress, but support for the administration's economic program among GOP members is not as strong as it used to be.

Senate Republican Leader Howard Baker put himself at odds with President Reagan on key budget policies Sunday, saying he opposes a standby tax intended to hold down future deficits and would vote to repeal inflation-adjusted tax cuts.

Baker also served notice Congress will insist on deeper cuts in Pentagon spending, scaling back the defense budget perhaps twice as much as Reagan has proposed.

The president is due to send his new budget to Capitol Hill on Jan. 31.

TEL AVIV, Israel — Defense Minister Ariel Sharon, angry at what he called U.S. interference in talks with Lebanon, warned Sunday that without an American change the Israelis would "consider other ways" of obtaining a security agreement with their occupied neighbor.

Israel radio quoted Sharon as saying that the United States was pressuring Lebanon to reject Israeli proposals on security arrangements and mutual relations.

Israel insists on manning three electronic surveillance stations in the Lebanese central mountains as a condition to withdraw its 25,000-man occupation army simultaneously with a Syrian pullout from Lebanon.

GENEVA, Switzerland — Ministers of the OPEC cartel held day-long talks Sunday on oil production and the shrinking world demand and then recessed for the night amid conflicting progress reports.

Carlos Gonzalez, an adviser to the Venezuelan delegation, told reporters the emergency meeting of the 13-nation cartel was moving toward an agreement on a plan limiting production and envisaging a $2 cut in the Saudi price.

A series of price cuts by major producers could lead to a sharp drop of prices worldwide. That would sap the OPEC members' already weakening financial strength.
