

SPORTS

Record in mile set at Hilton track meet

By EDDIE WOOTEN
Staff Writer

Villanova all-American Marcus O'Sullivan broke the state record for the indoor mile at 3:58.84 in the second annual Joe Hilton Invitational Saturday in the New Tin Can.

The junior from Cork, Ireland, won the event by almost seven seconds in becoming the first miler to break four minutes in North Carolina.

O'Sullivan said he did not expect such a good time on the UNC track, a 10-lap board track similar to the one used for the NCAA indoor championships.

"A lot of guys were slower (today)," O'Sullivan said after his race. "I was doubtful of getting a good time."

UNC's Scott Varney ran ahead of the field to set the pace. He dropped out after a fast half mile, leaving the work to O'Sullivan.

"I was surprised to run the half mile as fast as we did," O'Sullivan said. "When the rabbit dropped out, I knew I was on my own. I just pushed as fast as I could. I figured the earlier I started, the better."

Villanova dominated the meet, winning eight of the 11 events it entered. N.C. State won four events, Virginia State and Richmond won two each, and Tennessee won one event.

The meet produced two double winners. Villanova's Rodney Wilson won the 60-yard high hurdles and the 50-yard hurdles, while Virginia State's David McFadgen captured the triple jump and long jump.

North Carolina junior Mike Kominsky finished second in the 880 to American indoor record holder John Marshall of Villanova. Kominsky ran the race in 1:54.69.

"I didn't get out like I wanted to," Kominsky said. "I got boxed in, in the first lane, and couldn't move. I just had to wait for something to open up. I had planned to move with two laps, but when I started picking up, I guess everybody else started picking up, too."

Glenn Sparrow was second in the two-mile for Villanova. He just missed the NCAA indoor qualifying time when he crossed the line at 8:42.70. Sparrow was behind classy Sos Bitok of Richmond, who set a Hilton meet record in 8:34.64.

"Bitok picked it up in the second quarter," Sparrow said. "He had a big surge, but I decided not to go with him because I thought it might hurt me later in the race. He was really sharp. He's a world-class runner."

The Tar Heels were strong in the 1,000-yard run, which was won by Richmond's Ed Keoch. UNC's Brett Plummer was third with a time of 2:14.21, while freshman James Daye was fifth with 2:18.14.

Several former Tar Heel runners returned for the Hilton meet. Wayne Miller, running for the Atlantic Coast Club, was second to Villanova All-American Carlton Young in the 400-yard dash. Miller holds the Atlantic Coast Conference record in the 400-meter dash.

Todd McCallister, running for the Atlantic Coast Club, was second to O'Sullivan in the mile. McCallister, who is attending graduate school at the University of Virginia, was an NCAA mile qualifier for UNC last year and was fifth in the 1,500 at the 1981 National Sports Festival in Indianapolis, Ind.

Jimmy Cooper, a former all-American steeplechaser, was third in the two-mile behind Bitok and Sparrow. Skip Miller, representing the Atlantic Coast Club, finished fourth in the 50-meter hurdles.

Two runners, O'Sullivan and Wilson of Villanova, qualified for the NCAA indoor meet with their performances. But the competition in other events was strong, said UNC head coach Hubert West.

"With the caliber of guys coming in, I knew we would have some good performances all the way around," West said. "With Tennessee and Villanova, I knew the performances would be outstanding."

Assistant coach Don Lockerbie echoed West's sentiments. He said the results of this meet should lure another strong field next year.

"I predicted the mile would go under four minutes," Lockerbie said. "I think it (O'Sullivan's record) speaks well of our facility. I hope it will bring more attention nationwide. Our facility will be though: of well because of the mile and we can brag on that."

"These guys represented future Olympians, future NCAA champions, present Olympians and present NCAA champions. And our middle-distance guys came out very well."

Borg announces retirement

Associated Press

BANGKOK, Thailand — Bjorn Borg, whose icy calm dominated tennis for half a decade, announced his retirement Sunday at the age of 26.

Borg said he no longer had the competitive spirit that led him to an unprecedented five straight Wimbledon championships. He has played only sporadically in the past 18 months.

He made the announcement after exhibition matches in Thailand. His coach, Lennart Bergelin, said the blond Swede would continue playing exhibitions.

"Bjorn doesn't have the fighting spirit to go on practicing four hours a day," Bergelin said. "We have been playing for three months, and he is in good shape, but he has the feeling that he doesn't have it."

Borg dominated tennis from 1976 to 1980, but lost his grip on the world's No. 1 ranking to John McEnroe of the United States in 1981.

His career had one major disappointment — he never won a U.S. Open. He reached the finals four times, losing to Jimmy Connors in 1976 and 1978, and to McEnroe in 1980 and 1981.

DTH/Scott Sharpe

Villanova's John Marshall takes early lead in the 880 ... UNC's Mike Kominsky (center) took second in the race

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Compiled by Janet Olson

Public service announcements must be turned into the box outside the DTH offices in the Carolina Union by 1 p.m. if they are to be run the next day. Only announcements from University recognized and campus organizations will be printed. All announcements must be limited to 25 words and can only run for two days.

- | | |
|---|---|
| TODAY'S ACTIVITIES | COMING EVENTS |
| Professor J.S. Marron will speak on "Cross-Validated Bandwidths in Kernel Density Estimation" at 3:30 p.m. in 316 Phillips Hall. Refreshments will be served. The UNC Ballroom Dance Club will hold its first meeting of the semester at 7 p.m. in 7 Fetzer Gymnasium. Beginning and experienced dancers are welcome. The Performing Arts Committee of the Carolina Union will meet at 7 p.m. in 200 Carolina Union. Morrison Residence College presents a Resume Writing Workshop at 6 p.m. in the first floor social lounge. Morrison Residence College presents "Woman Beware!", a program about rape and its prevention at 7 p.m. in the first floor lounge. The Outing Club will meet at 7 p.m. in the Carolina Union. Activities include backpacking, canoeing, rock climbing, caving, and skiing. New members welcome. CHCC (Contraceptive Health Education Clinic), now meeting at 4 p.m. Mondays in the Health Education Section of the SHS is geared to help students to be responsible in matters concerning sexuality. Help make it happen again this year. The planning meeting for this year's Gay Awareness Week will be held in 205 Carolina Union. All are welcome to attend. UNC Clete K will meet at 6:30 p.m. in the Carolina Union. Everyone is invited. We'll be through by 10:00. T-shirts are in. Please bring your payment. Professor Burnside Powell, UNC School of Law, will speak on "A Judicial Hard Look at Administrative Policy-Making" at 4 p.m. in 207 Hamilton Hall. | A UNC Year-at-Montpellier informational meeting will be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday in the fourth floor Toy Lounge of Dey Hall. The College Republicans will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday in 226 Carolina Union. Get involved. Become part of the solution. Morrison Residence College presents an Assertiveness Training Workshop and a Career Planning Seminar at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the first floor lounge. There will be a GPSF Senate Meeting at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Carolina Union. Ask at the Union Desk for the room number. A Job Seeker's Club will meet at noon beginning Tuesday at the Office of Career Planning & Placement Services. Advance sign-up in 211 Hanes Hall is necessary. "Sign Language for Professionals", a continuing education course, will be offered beginning Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Biological Sciences Research Center. Sailors: There will be a meeting for new, old and non-members at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in 221 Greenlaw Hall. Be there, aloha. AIIESEC invites all people interested in international business management or affairs to our new members meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Carolina Union. There will be a meeting Tuesday in 105 Berryhill Hall for AED members and rushers. We will have a speaker and set dates for this semester's projects. Please attend. |

- Sports Club Council meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Carolina Union. This meeting is mandatory for all club presidents and treasurers.
- Carolina Union Forum Committee will meet at 4 p.m. Tuesday in 205 Carolina Union.
- The North Carolina Student Legislature will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 226 Carolina Union. All members please attend. Newcomers are welcome.
- There will be a BSM Central Committee meeting at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Upendo Lounge.
- Free clogging lessons are provided by the UNC Clogging Club at 7:30 p.m. every Tuesday in the Carolina Union.

- ITEMS OF INTEREST
- The deadline to apply for summer internships in state government is Feb. 11. Applications should be mailed to "Institute of Government, Knapp Building 59A, UNC-CH. Applications are now available at the Union Desk for invitations to the reception to be held for Garret Morris after his lecture on Feb. 7.
- Nominations for the Society of Juniors are due by Feb. 18 and should be submitted to 103-A Carr Building. Extra forms are available at Carr or at the Union Desk.
- The UNC-CH Media Board is now accepting applications for the editor and business manager of the Carolina Quarterly and the Phoenix. Applications are due Friday in Box 13 Carolina Union. For more information, call 933-1668.
- Playmakers Repertory Company is now recruiting volunteer ushers for its production of The Greeks which will run Feb. 1 through Feb. 27. Sign up at the PRC office, 203 Graham Memorial Hall call 962-1122.

THE Daily Crossword by Ellen Beckett

ACROSS	21 Greek goddess	50 Actress Merkel	22 Exhausted
1 New Testament book	29 Not proven	51 Fe or Cruz	24 Carriages
5 French port	34 Leonine sound	53 Eucalyptus	26 Semitic people
10 Land measure	35 Father	57 Deficiency disease	27 Namely
14 Flight maneuver	37 Famous Indian	61 Paddles	28 Greeting
15 Tanker	38 Pointed tool	62 Dairy product	30 Kind of beer
16 Bucket	39 Divert	64 Peril	31 Painful struggle
17 Weekend follower	41 Fabulous bird	65 Make joyful	32 Wear away
19 Money players	42 Bar with shackles	66 Resembling: surif.	33 Of a peer
20 Blue (speedy ones)	44 Dynamic beginning	67 Saiver	36 Type style: abbr.
21 Ornament	45 Fizzy water	68 Marry again	39 Accomplish: ing
23 Chops	46 Impassively	69 Combustible heap	40 Topped with a decorative piece
25 — tree (cornered)	48 Do a shoemaker's job	DOWN	43 Of dubious value
		1 Vestments	45 Jar
		2 Foal	47 Painter of sorts
		3 Journey	49 Impress clearly
		4 Patrol car's prey	52 Ridge
		5 Library item	53 Diamond fragments
		6 Flush	54 Den
		7 Antiquity, old style	55 Major or Minor
		8 Parch	56 French title: abbr.
		9 Audition	58 Slippery
		10 Soothe	59 Despot
		11 Vehicle	60 Parched
		12 Public disorder	63 Union monogram
		13 Otherwise
		18 Sinclair Lewis' street

Yesterday's Puzzle Solved:

1/22/83

14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56 57 58 59 60 61 62 63 64 65 66 67 68 69

Stop By SUBWAY After The Game For A Tasty Sandwich Treat!

SUBWAY

Famous Foot Long Sandwiches

MARATHON Restaurant

SUBS

Steak & Cheese	2.95
Steak & Mushroom	2.95
Reuben with Fries	3.25
Ham Sub	2.95
Roast Beef with Fries	3.25
Cold Sub	2.95
Chicken Salad Sub	2.95
Pizza Sub	2.95
Big Sub	4.05

MISCELLANEOUS

Hot Dog	.75
Chicken Salad Plate	2.95
Shrimp Eggroll	.95
Tossed Salad	.85
Baklava	.95
French Fries (Lg)	.59
(Small)	.49

BEVERAGES

Coke, Sprite, Dr. Pepper, Lemonade, and Orange
Small — 40	Medium — 50	Large — 65

GREEK DISHES

Gyro Sandwich	2.75
Souvlakia	2.75
Gyro Platter	3.25
Marathon Special	3.25
Greek Salad	2.75
Athenian Style Chicken	3.25
Angean Grilled Cheese	1.75
Chef Salad	2.75
Western Omelet with feta cheese & fries	2.95

SANDWICHES

Hamburger	1.20
Cheeseburger	1.30
Chicken Salad Sandwich (on pita bread)	1.75
Barbecue Sandwich	1.45
Chicken Breast Sandwich	1.45

MARATHON DELUXE

Small	7.00
Large	10.00

pepperoni, onions, mushrooms, ground beef, green peppers, and ham.

FREE DELIVERY
416 WEST FRANKLIN (across from McDonald's)
933-0590

Weekend roundup

Swimmers beat State; rally after late changes

From staff reports

It was a disappointing weekend for the UNC swim teams.

On Saturday, the men and women were to swim Clemson, one of the biggest men's meets of the regular season. The women were to compete against two-time AIAW champion Texas in a tri-meet at N.C. State Sunday.

Because of adverse weather conditions, neither team arrived. Clemson was stranded in South Carolina; Texas was rerouted to Charlotte.

The only meet to come out of what was to have been the biggest regular-season weekend for UNC was a women's dual meet against rival N.C. State on Sunday. North Carolina beat the Wolfpack 91-58, increasing the team's undefeated record to 8-0.

A record crowd of approximately 1,200 watched the meet.

Polly Winde had NCAA qualifying times in three events, along with setting two N.C. State pool records.

Winde qualified in the 100-yard breaststroke (1:05.25), the 200-yard breaststroke (2:20.72) and the 400-yard individual medley (4:22.84). Her times in the 200 breaststroke and the IM were new pool records.

Winde also was a member of the winning 200-yard medley relay (1:46.50). Other members of the relay team were Amy Pless, and co-captains Sue Walsh and Cami Berziz.

Walsh swam better than the NCAA cut time in the 100-yard backstroke (56.42). Pless had a qualifying time in the 100-yard individual medley (58.97), while Berziz qualified in the 200-yard backstroke (2:06.67).

Walsh's final win of the afternoon was in the 100-yard freestyle (51.77). Walsh, along with Pless, Sue Scott and Sarah Durstein also won the 400-yard freestyle relay for Carolina (3:31.79).

Cay Andres finished first in the 500-yard freestyle (4:58.09), rounding out North Carolina's wins at an even 10.

There are two things UNC gymnastics coach Derek Galvin would like to see from his squad each week.

First come the kind of strong, aggressive routines from each gymnast that are impressive to the judges and, as Galvin puts it, "aesthetically pleasing" to the eye. Second is the kind of overall team performance that will keep UNC in the hunt for a post-season meet.

Galvin more or less got what he was looking for Saturday when the Tar Heels hosted regional power Duke. However, the Blue Devils prevailed by a 171.85-169.0 score.

North Carolina put in strong performances on the vault and the floor exercises, but scores fell off dramatically on the uneven parallel bars and the balance beam.

Tammy Gilbert's 8.35 was the best score on the bars, while UNC's Allison Hunter took fifth in the event with a 8.30.

There was little improvement on the balance beam, where Christine Thorne's 8.35 was the only score to place in the top five. Thorne took second on the vault with an 8.95, while posting a 9.0 in the floor exercises.

Also emerging from the pack was Anne Ruppert, who managed an 8.80 on the vault and a 9.05 on the floor — her best performance of the season.

Galvin had predicted that this would be the most exciting home meet of the season, and it was nothing less than that.

"We had a super crowd of about a thousand people, and they really responded to the girls' performance," Galvin said.

Three Tar Heels scored 9.0 or better on the floor and finished in the top five in the event. Karen Kaiser led the way with a 9.2.

Maryland dealt UNC's women's basketball team its second loss in three games Saturday in College Park, 91-77, to preserve the Terrapins' undefeated status and third-place national ranking.

Maryland sprinted to a 14-2 lead and trailed only once, at 22-20, before reeling off the first six points of the second half to seal the victory.

North Carolina shot a healthy 50.6 percent from the field but Maryland pulled off a robust 58.5 percent. The difference, though, came at the line. The Terps hit 15 of 24 attempts, but the Tar Heels only got four all afternoon.

Kathy Crawford and Tresa Brown led the way for North Carolina with 22 and 23 points, respectively.

The women's indoor track team, a diverse group of sprinters, hurdlers, throwers and distance runners competed in the Moving Comfort Invitational in Blacksburg, Va. Friday.

"They had good performances, but not excellent ones — it's a place to start from," assistant coach Michelle Rushing said.

Freshman Holly Murray placed second in the 1000-meter with a time of 3:04.6. Shunta Robinson, another freshman, competed in the shot, throwing 42-4 1/4, earning sixth place in the meet and setting a new indoor school record.

Alisa Murray ran the 600 in 1:40.3, but was injured in the race and was unable to compete in the mile relay. Michelle Cashwell filled this void after previously competing in the 55-meter hurdles.

In the middle distances, Yvette Morehead ran the 600 in 1:44.5, and Kathy Stetson ran the 800 in 2:23.

Distance runner Madlyn Morreale ran the 3000, finishing with a time of 9:57.7, and Valerie Roback ran 4:48.7 in the 1500.

PLITI THEATRES

CAROLINA CLASSIC SERIES

The Lion in Winter

2:30 • 5:05

Timerider

7:30 • 9:30

Lady Chatterly's Lover

3 • 5:15 • 7:15 • 9:15

UNION FILM SCHEDULE CHANGE!

RUDE BOY

Saturday, Jan. 29
7:00 & 9:30 pm
Union Film Auditorium

FREE

SNOW WE GO

DATSUN 260 Z 4x4

Winton Press

Web Offset Printers

563-3111 (919) 563-3122
MEBANE, NORTH CAROLINA