WASHINGTON — The Soviet Union has fired a new intercontinental ballistic missile in a test which could raise questions about whether Moscow is violating the unratified SALT II nuclear arms treaty, U.S. intelligence sources said late Tuesday.

Officials said a small, solid-fuel missile was launched Feb. 8 from Plesetsk and that preliminary analysis of information picked up by American monitoring equipment suggests it may have been the first successful test of a second new Soviet ICBM.

Hunt's bill gets initial approval

RALEIGH - A modified version of Gov. Jim Hunt's dram shop proposal was approved Tuesday by a state Senate committee, while one lawmaker looked for support to raise the drinking age to 21.

State Sen. Robert Warren, D-Johnston, said he hoped to get enough votes in the Senate Judiciary III Committee to raise the drinking age from 18 to 21 instead of 19, as proposed by Warren said if he can't get enough votes, he'll wait and introduce the amendment on the Senate floor.

"We need consistency here," he said. "If the drinking age is 21 for one thing it ought to be for everything. You can get just as drunk off beer as you can off whiskey."
