Student still critical A UNC sophomore injured in Raleigh on April 4 remains in critical condition, Rex Hospital officials said Tuesday.

Richard Norfleet Hoggard III received severe pelvic and head injuries and a severe leg laceration after being struck by a car, N.C. State University campus police said.

Hoggard was injured during the celebration that followed N.C. State's victory over Houston in the finals of the NCAA basketball tournament.

Hoggard was struck by a 1980 Honda Accord while crossing the street between the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity house and the Kappa Alpha Order house on Fraternity Court, said patrolman Wesley Shattuck of the NCSU police. Shattuck said the accident occurred before 1:25 a.m.

No charges have been filed in the incident, pending the completion of the investigation, Shattuck said.

CCCA drops request

From staff reports

The Cane Creek Reservoir controversy took a new turn Monday when opponents of the reservoir dropped their request for an injunction that would have prohibited Orange Water and Sewer Authority from condemning land necessary for the reservoir.

The Cane Creek Conservation Authority, a citizens group opposed to the 758-acre reservoir to be constructed in western Orange County, had filed a motion in Wake County Superior Court for a preliminary injunction.

But CCCA attorney Ted Corvette Jr. withdrew his motion after Judge James H. Pou Bailey called the motion premature.

MOSCOW - The new U.S. proposal for an MX missile system is a "rather sinister" step forward in an increasingly dangerous arms race, a leading Soviet arms control specialist said Tuesday.

But the specialist, Oleg Bykov, acknowledged at the same time that the Soviets were readying their own new missile.

"Of course, it takes two to make an arms race. And the Soviet leadership has put it in so many words: We will respond," said Bykov, acting director of the Institute on the World Economy and International Relations.

Bykov was interviewed in his 17th-floor offices at the institute's headquarters in southern Moscow. He stressed he was not speaking in any official capacity. But his views have generally reflected those of the Kremlin leadership,

WASHINGTON - The Senate launched its longdelayed debate on arms control nominee Kenneth L. Adelman on Tuesday, with both sides still uncertain of the outcome. But a key opponent conceded the swing votes of a few undecided Republicans were turning Adelman's way under "a lot of pressure from the White House."

"Nobody has the votes" yet, said Sen. Paul Tsongas, D-Mass., a chief critic of the nomination. "Neither side has 50."

Assistant Republican Leader Ted Stevens of Alaska agreed that "it's too close to call" and said the best he and other Adelman backers could hope for was a oneor two-vote victory.

strength since last weekend, when his count was 46-46. He said his latest count was 47-43 in Adelman's favor.

WASHINGTON - The Republican-dominated Senate Budget Committee on Tuesday rejected President Reagan's domestic spending freeze and slated an additional $5.9 billion for programs ranging from housing to environmental enforcement.

Just days after slashing Reagan's proposed Pentagon buildup by one-half, the panel made clear it was systematically ignoring his cap on domestic programs, voting for 2 percent increases in many cases. The spending boosts also include energy, agriculture and transportation.

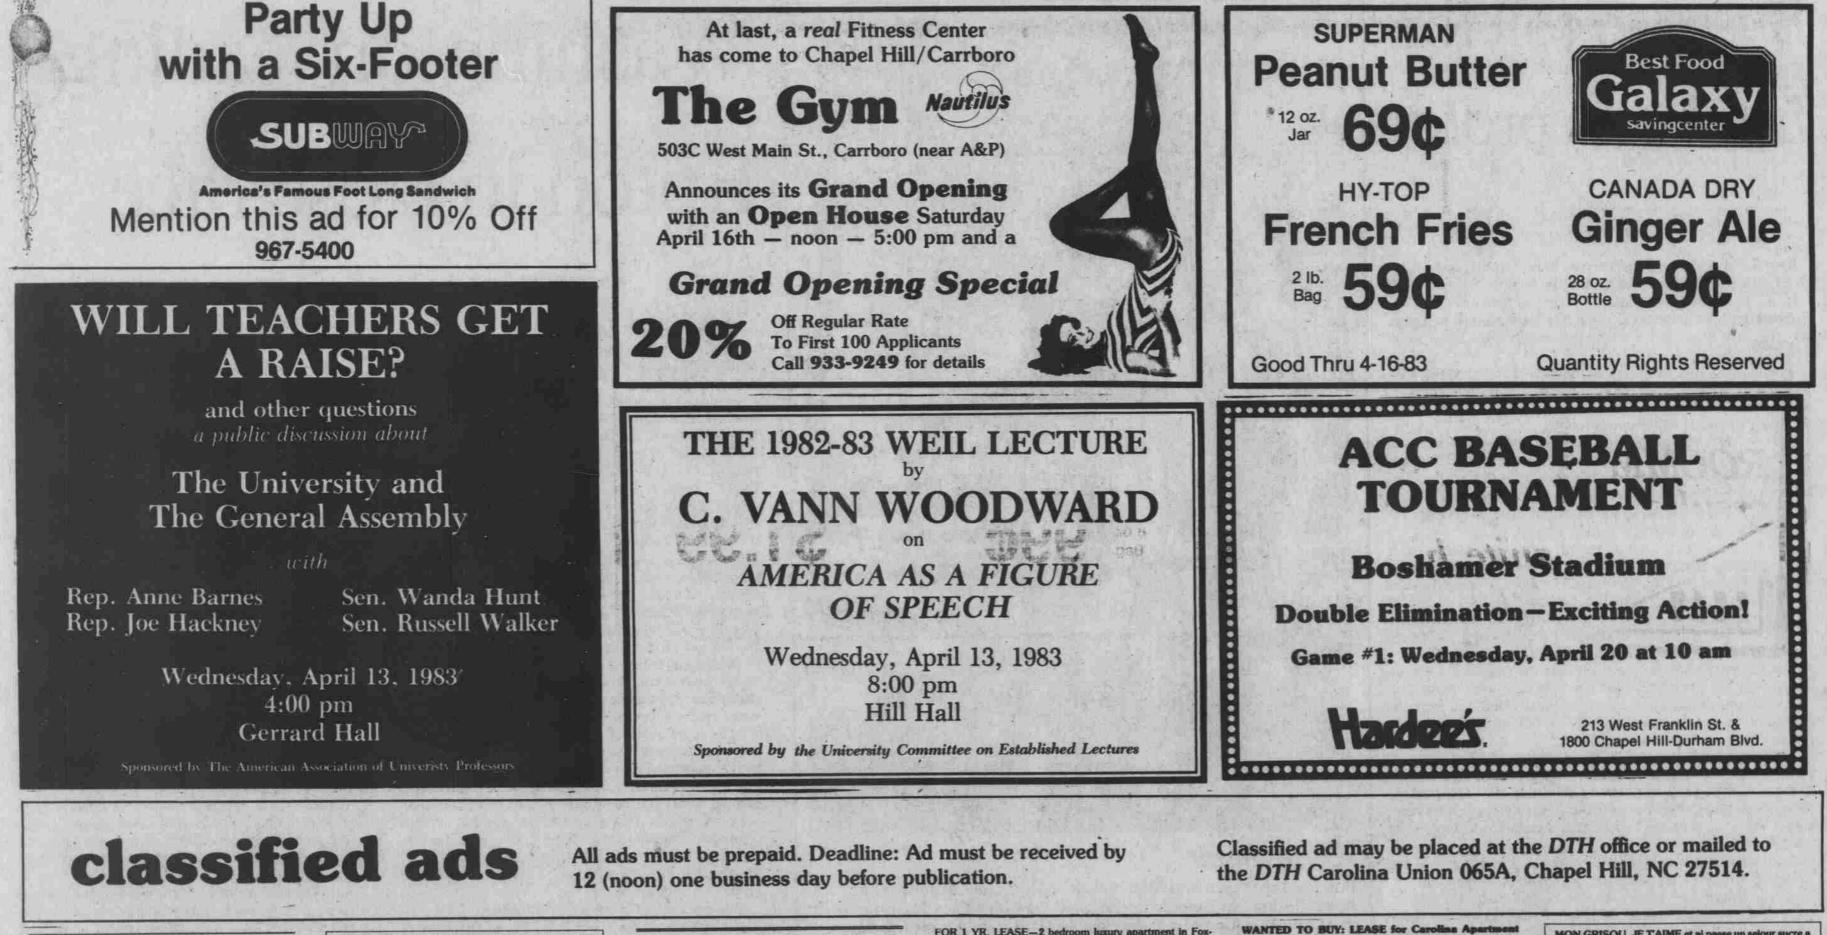

Chairman Pete V. Domenici, R-N.M., said the panel would reconsider some of its decisions, declaring, "The general pattern is too high." Even so, committee aides said the final outcome would be several billion dollars higher than Reagan wanted.

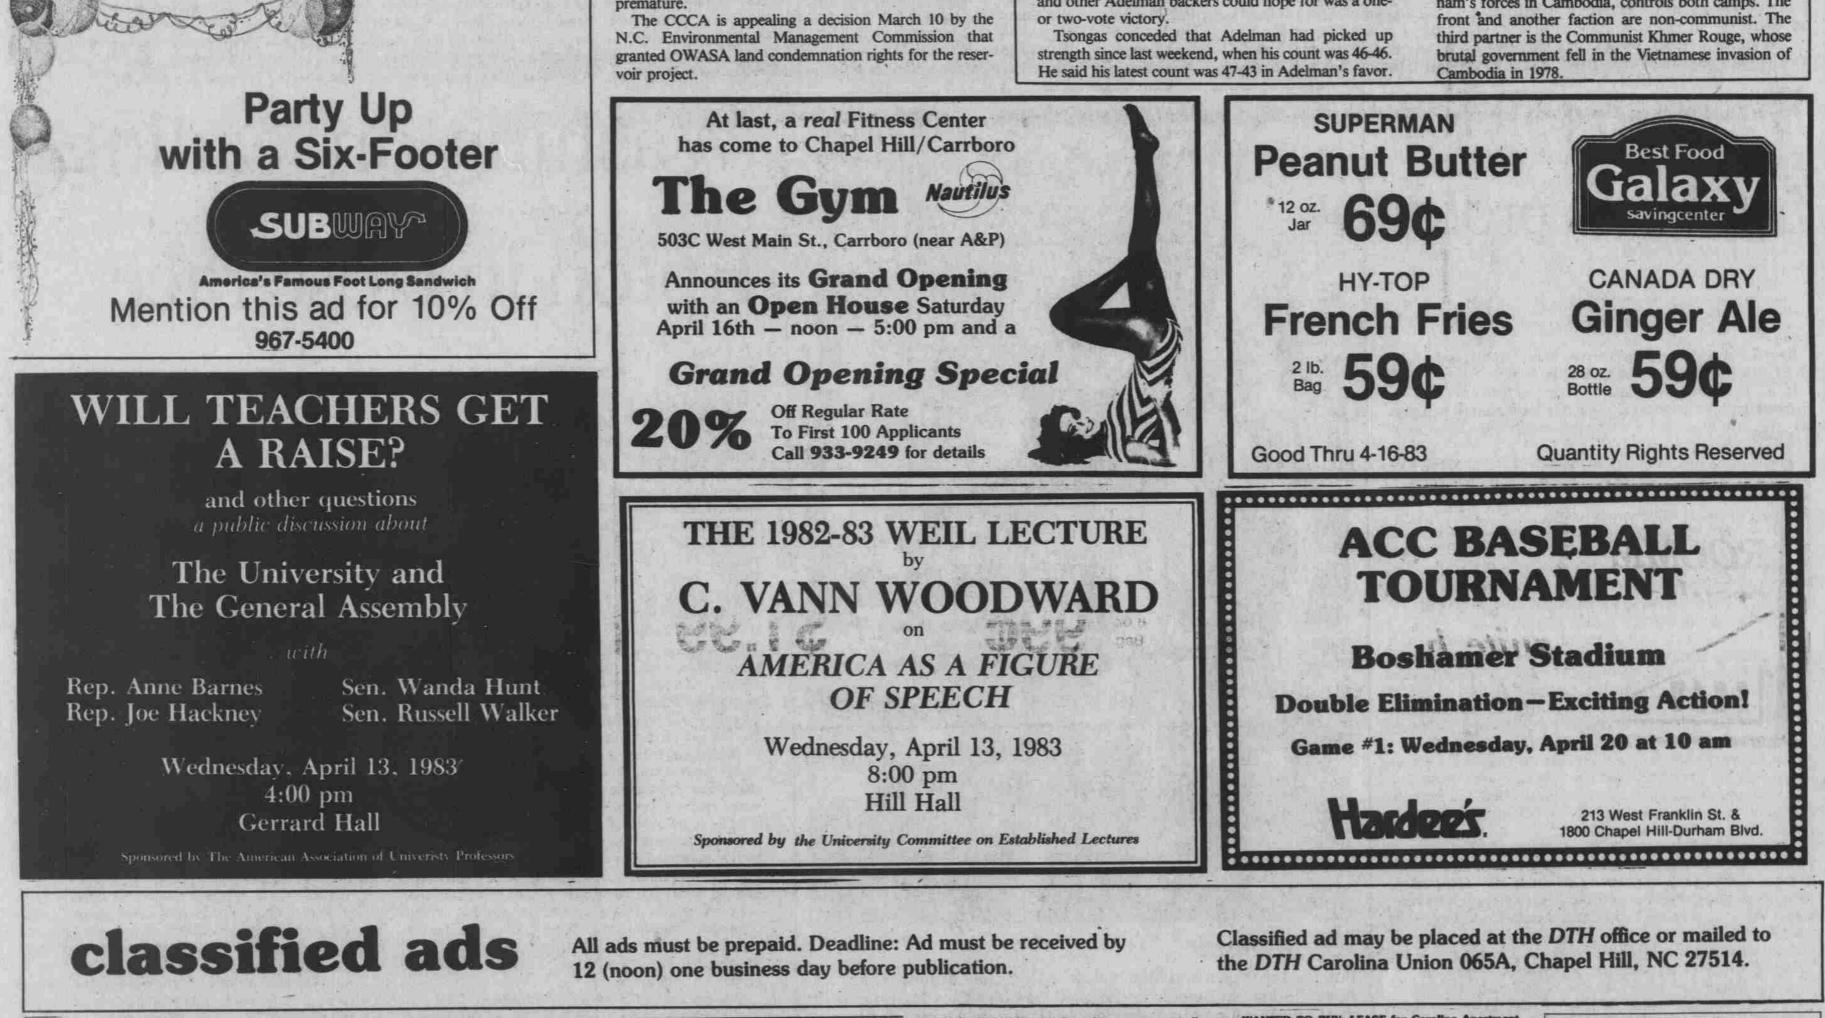

ARANYAPRATHET, Thailand - Red Cross and U.N. agencies set up emergency shelters Tuesday to receive 100,000 Cambodians following reports that Vietnamese soldiers were poised to strike two guerrillacontrolled camps along the Thai-Cambodian border.

Thai military sources in this border town said sizable Vietnamese forces, backed by tanks and artillery, were just outside the sprawling settlements.

Ban Sangae is a narrow encampment that runs along the border and has some 23,000 civilians. Nong Samet, which reliable Western sources say spills over into Thailand, has more than 77,000 people.

The Khmer People's National Liberation Front, one of three groups united in fighting communist Vietnam's forces in Cambodía, controls both camps. The Cambodia in 1978
