From Associated Press reports

WASHINGTON — Thousands of American marijuana smokers were exposed to small but risky amounts of paraquat while the herbicide was sprayed on Mexican marijuana fields with U.S. support, federal researchers estimate.

Small amounts of the lethal weed killer were inhaled from marijuana cigarettes by 6,000 to 9,000 Americans each year from 1975 through 1979, according to a study by researchers from the Centers for Disease Control.

Most of the marijuana smokers exposed to the low but risky levels of the chemical lived in states near Mexico, the study said. The researchers' estimates were published in the July issue of the American Journal of Public Health.

NEW YORK — A husband-and-wife team of psychologists who had written books on psychic phenomena leaped from a Queens apartment building 5 floors to their deaths, police reported Monday.

Police said the couple, Paul Molow, 69, and his wife, Doree, 60, left a note asking that their two dogs and cat be taken care of. A second note found in their apartment indicated they felt unable to cope with certain problems, The New York Post reported.

The Molows were the authors of Beyond the Visible and Your Fantastic Mind, and several other works on parapsychology, according to the Post.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. — Prosecutors say jailing a 650-pound man convicted of raping his 2-year-old daughter would be too costly because of his bad health, but 50 protesters demanded his suspended sentence be reconsidered.

"We don't feel justice was served," said Natalie Babinski, president of the Springfield chapter of the National Organization for Women, and one of the protesters at a courthouse where Ralph Ward Rice Jr., 32, pleaded guilty to rape and incest charges.

Rice was put on three years probation, ordered to stay away from his six children and to undergo psychiatric treatment.

UPLAND, Calif. — Three members of an Iranian family were shot to death Monday by killers who burst through a back door and opened fire, police said. A neighbor said the family had been "living scared" for two years because of death threats.

The family's father returned to Iran in April, police said. The killers fired at, but missed, a teen-age girl and left two young boys alone in a bedroom, police said.

Capt. Merle Arneson said investigators were checking the family's background because there was no apparent motive. Valuables in the fashionable home were untouched and "the motive was apparently not burglary or robbery."

YALTA, U.S.S.R. — Saying "Let our countries be friends," Samantha Smith bade farewell to her Young Pioneer campmates Tuesday night and was showered with gifts including a fuzzy stuffed black bear.

The 11-year-old American schoolgirl who wrote to President Yuri V. Andropov and got an invitation to the Soviet Union read a short speech written by her father, Arthur, to some 400 members of the Soviet youth organization at the Artek camp by the Black Sea.

"My stay at sea camp in Artek has been wonderful, very wonderful. I shall miss my new international friends," said the child nervously as an interpreter translated for the audience.

WARSAW, Poland — The Polish government said Tuesday it was getting ready to lift martial law but gave no sign that the outlawed independent Solidarity union would be permitted or that other rights would be given to workers and dissidents.

"We estimate that normalization is in progress, so the conditions for lifting of martial law

Board members chosen

Three new members and five incumbents were elected to the UNC Board of Governors by the N.C. General Assembly last Thursday.

Each year, eight terms expire on the board and are subject to nomination and election by the legislature.

This year's BOG chairman, John R. Jordan Jr., a Raleigh attorney, was re-elected to one of the 32 seats.

J. Aaron Prevost of Haywood County, Louis T. Randolph of Washington, N.C., Wayne A. Corpening of Winston-Salem and Irwin Belk of Charlotte were also re-elected.

Newly elected members are Joan Fox of Oxford, Samuel H. Poole of Southern Pines and James Earl Daniely, the former president of Elon College.
