Seiber said a statement in the Democrats' ads that claimed Helms voted to cut $40 billion on Social Security was "blatantly wrong." She explained that the Democrats' source, an amendment proposed by Sen. Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y., to reject a $40 billion cut in the Social Security program, had been tabled. Helms voted to kill the Moynihan amendment.

soldiers blocked off the area and began gathering up the wreckage The A-6F Intruder crashed into a barren mountainside near Kfar Salwan, 15 miles east of Beirut. Jubilant Syrian soldiers stood or sat on parts of the downed aircraft, raising their hands in victory signs.

A Pentagon representative, Cmdr. Fred Leeder, said "unknown sources" have repeatedly shot at U.S. reconnaissance craft in the past, and two F-14 Tomcats on Saturday were fired upon by "a heavy volume of anti-aircraft fire and at least 10 surface-to-air

"The Syrian authorities clearly knew they were firing on U.S. reconnaissance aircraft, and the volume of fire makes it clear that it was not locally directed or random," Leeder said. "This attack on U.S. reconnaissance aircraft represents a serious and deliberate threat to the multinational peace-keeping mission."

Weinberger said that if other reconnaissance flights are fired upon, U.S. forces would act to defend them. Weinberger, who spoke to reporters after meeting with French Defense Minister Charles Hernu, stressed the attack was not connected to the Oct. 23 suicide attack on the Marine compound in Beirut, WASHINGTON — Union leaders are expected to push hard for ratification of a contract agreement aimed at ending a bitter, month-long strike against Greyhound Lines, although one union official said they "bit the bullet" on wage concessions.

After two days of intense bargaining, the Amalgamated Transit Union and Greyhound reached a tentative settlement Saturday on a new contract, with a ratification vote planned before December 20, according to federal mediators.

Meantime, the strike of 12,700 drivers and other employees against the nation's largest intercity bus line continued Sunday, and company officials said they will maintain sharply reduced services with non-strikers and newly trained drivers.

MOSCOW - The Soviet Union is making unprecedented efforts to rally its people and the Warsaw Pact nations behind President Yuri V. Andropov and his response to deployment of new NATO nuclear missiles in Western Europe.

The Soviet leader formally announced the Soviet retaliation on Nov. 24, and his statement is the centerpiece for the current campaign.

Andropov said the Soviet Union was quitting negotiations with the United States on limiting mediumrange nuclear weapons in Europe; enlarging its nuclear arsenal with missiles in East Germany and Czechoslovakia; and sending submarines loaded with nuclear weapons off U.S. shores.

Every day since then, state-run newspapers, radio and television have cited Andropov's statement.
