

Wierman, Pistole announce plans to run for senior class positions

By JANET OLSON
Staff Writer

Scott Wierman, a junior industrial relations and economics major from Salisbury, and Sally Pistole, a junior business major from Morehead City, have announced their candidacy for senior class president and vice president.

"Our basic goal is to try to put more pizzazz into the senior class," Wierman said. "We'd like to make senior year a little more special and eventful."

"We'd like to create some unity and try to put some integrity back into being a senior," Pistole added.

Lack of communication is a current problem, Wierman said, and if elected, he said he planned to publish a regular newsletter and to hold a senior information day during fall semester.

The information day would be held in conjunction with the Job Placement Office, Pistole said. On this day, seniors could stop by a table in the Pit to pick up resume packets or to learn how to tap the resources available for them at the University.

If elected, Wierman said he and Pistole would also work with the administration to try to secure an outside speaker for graduation. In addition, he said they would like to work with resources such as the Educational Foundation or the Alumni Association to leave behind a memorable class gift.

"We'd like to be able to leave something more memorable than a tree," Pistole said.

Pistole said they were also very interested in improving homecoming.

"In the past, it's been looked upon as a joke," she said. "We'd like to work with the Alumni Association and the CAA to make homecoming more memorable, not only for the returning alumni, but for the seniors."

Other plans Wierman said he would work to accomplish if elected are to hold a special senior ticket distribution for the last football and basketball games, to organize a senior trip to an away game and to continue the tradition of a senior class trip.

Wierman has served as both president and vice president of Graham Dormitory. He has also served on committees for the council of the Morehead Federation and has been a R.A.P.E. escort for three years.

Pistole was publicity chairman for Joyner Dormitory last year and was active in the Residence Hall Association's regional and state conferences. She also served on this year's Homecoming Committee.

Speaker O'Neill endorses Mondale for nomination

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — Echoing the Democratic campaign theme of fairness and the need to end the nuclear arms race, House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill Jr. on Wednesday endorsed Walter F. Mondale for his party's presidential nomination.

"We desperately need a president who has the experience, the political skill and the character to be a tough negotiator at the peace table," the speaker said.

The nation's highest-ranking elected Democrat, O'Neill broke personal precedent to support Mondale for the 1984 Democratic presidential nomination.

"I will do everything I can to make sure that Walter Mondale is elected President of the United States," he said.

"We Americans believe in fairness," added O'Neill. "Every American has a right to feel that the president of the United States is on his side. That goes just as much for the poor man who lives on a park bench as it does for the rich man living on Park Avenue."

State and Nation

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — The $925.5 billion budget President Reagan sent to Congress on Wednesday mirrors his goals for the nation: to increase its military strength and to do it without the pain of raising taxes. But the plan is burdened with a projected $180.4 billion deficit.

It recognizes the reality that in an election year Congress would impose cuts in domestic spending.

Absent from Reagan's package for the 1985 fiscal year that begins Oct. 1 is any comprehensive blueprint for significantly cutting the deficits within the next several years.

WASHINGTON — House Democrats gave overwhelming support Wednesday to a resolution calling for prompt withdrawal of U.S. Marines from Lebanon, but President Reagan said he would not pay any attention to their demands.

No vote was taken in the closed meeting of the Democratic majority in the House, but Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill Jr., D-Mass., said, "Everybody was pretty much in agreement."

House Majority Whip Thomas S. Foley, D-Wash., said no date was set for floor action, but it could come before Feb. 10, when Congress takes an 11-day recess.

WINSTON-SALEM — The judge hearing the civil rights trial of nine Ku Klux Klansmen and Nazis has ordered that a transcript of the secret jury selection process be made available to the public and press.

His order came as a key prosecution witness Wednesday said he was confused about the events of Nov. 3, 1979, which left five communists dead at a Greensboro anti-Klan rally.

In an order filed Tuesday in U.S. District Court in Greensboro, Judge Thomas Flannery ordered that one copy of the transcript be placed in the public docket for inspection as soon as copies are available.

Eight North Carolina newspapers challenged the secret jury selection, but the judge's order was upheld by a three-judge panel of the 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Flannery's order cited several reasons for making the transcript available, including the cost of a transcript, estimated at about $3,400.

RALEIGH — A federal election report made public Wednesday reflects the importance of nationwide direct mail contributions to the re-election efforts of Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C.

The report, which had to be mailed to the Federal Election Commission by midnight Tuesday, shows that 70 percent of the contributions were less than $200 and many were the result of appeals received in the mail.

At least half the contributions listed in the Helms for Senate Committee report came from outside North Carolina.
