

Bankhead gets Olympic team win

From Staff and Wire Reports

North Carolina pitcher Scott Bankhead pitched two innings and got the win Sunday as the U.S. Olympic baseball team beat the Louisville Redbirds of the Class AAA American Association in an exhibition game in Louisville, Ky.

Bankhead, a senior, pitched the seventh and eighth innings, giving up an earned run, a hit and walking one.

Mark McGwire hit a pair of two-run homers and Will Clark added three hits to pace the U.S. offense.

Marsh takes first round lead

HAMPSTEAD, N.C.—North Carolina's Page Marsh shot a 1-under-par 71 Tuesday to take the first-round lead in the 35th Annual North Carolina Women's Golf Association Championship at The Olde Point Golf Club.

Marsh, last year's champion from Jamestown, was the only golfer to shoot under par on the 5,500-yard, par-72 course. Marsh, who was an All-American at North Carolina in 1982-83, was 2-under-par going into the final hole but bogeyed No. 18.

Lynn Mitchner of Smithfield is in second place with a 73, two shots behind Marsh. Leslie Brown of Charlotte and Lea Morrison of Wilmington, last year's runner-up, were three shots off the lead with 74s.

The final round will be played on Thursday as all 119 golfers will be flighted after Wednesday's second round. The combination 54-hole score will determine the winner.

Parker wins N.C. Amateur

North Carolina sophomore Greg Parker used an even-par final round to take the title in the 24th annual North Carolina Amateur in Wilson Saturday.

The 18-year-old Parker, who is believed to be the youngest player ever to win the Amateur, held off UNC teammate and NCAA champion John Inman to take the two stroke win. Parker finished the tournament with a 3-under-par total of 285.

Parker and Inman were the only two golfers to finish the tournament below par.

Five golfers finished tied for third, including Spring Lake's Mitch Perry, who will be attending UNC on a golf scholarship in the fall.

Bradley-Doppes named volleyball coach

Peggy Bradley-Doppes, volleyball coach at Miami of Ohio for the past five years, has been named as the new volleyball coach at the University of North Carolina.

Bradley-Doppes replaces Dr. Beth Miller, the Tar Heels' coach for the past nine years, who will become director of athletic business affairs for the University.

Bradley-Doppes led Miami to three Mid-American Conference championships and averaged 32 wins a season during her five-year tenure. She was named MAC Coach of the Year in 1981, when she led the Redskins to a conference championship and a school-record 43 wins, and again in '82 when Miami won its third straight league title and finished 18th in the nation with a 41-11 mark.

Miller led the Tar Heels to 276 wins against just 125 losses from 1975-1983. UNC has won four straight ACC titles and has advanced to the national tournament the past three years.

Area picks in NBA draft

Atlantic Coast Conference and area college players picked in Tuesday's NBA draft, with number selected:

First round

3. Chicago, Michael Jordan, g-f, North Carolina; 4. Dallas, Sam Perkins, f, North Carolina.

Second round

35. Golden State (from Atlanta), Othell Wilson, g, Virginia; 37. Chicago (from Seattle via Atlanta and Kansas City), Ben Coleman, f, Maryland; 39. Seattle (from New Jersey), Danny Young, g, Wake Forest; 40. Dallas (from Utah), Anthony Teachey, f-c, Wake Forest.

Third round

57. San Antonio (from Denver), Joe Binion, f, North Carolina A&T; 59. Phoenix, Murray Jarman, f, Clemson; 69. Los Angeles Lakers, George Singleton, f, Furman; 70. Boston, Rick Carlisle, g, Virginia.

Fourth round

72. Chicago, Melvin Johnson, f, UNC Charlotte.

Fifth round

102. Kansas City, Jim Foster, f, South Carolina.

Sixth round

119. Cleveland, Matt Doherty, f, North Carolina; 128. Phoenix, Herman Veal, f, Maryland; 133. New York, Eddie Wilkins, f, Gardner-Webb.

Seventh round

140. Indiana, Kenton Edelin, f, Virginia; 149. Denver, Mark Simpson, f, Catawba; 156. New York, Ken Bannister, f, St. Augustine's.

Eighth round

174. Phoenix, Mark Fothergill, f, Maryland; 181. Detroit, Dale Roberts, Appalachian State; 182. Milwaukee, Brad Jergenson, f, South Carolina.

Ninth round

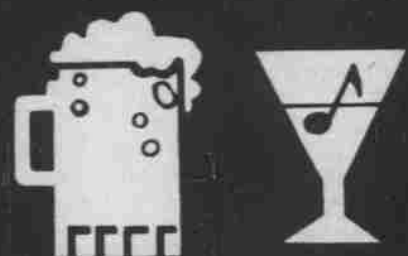

190. Washington, Mike Emanuel, g, Pembroke State, 194. Denver, Cecil Exum, f, North Carolina.

Tenth round

218. Phoenix, Ezra Hill, g, Liberty Baptist.

TUESDAY NIGHTS

IN CHAPEL HILL JUST GOT HOTTER

Ladies Only 'Til 10:30
Free Beer & Wine For Ladies 'Til 10:30
Ladies Admitted Free All Night!

LATE NIGHT HAPPY HOUR!

2 for 25¢ Draft — $1.25 Bar Special
From 10:30-12:00

Open at 10:00—Members & Guests Only
Members FREE with this coupon

Purdy's
on Franklin

$1.00 Off Cover With This Coupon!

SUMMER SPECIAL

FURTHER
MARKDOWNS
DRASTIC REDUCTIONS

10-50% OFF

Expires June 30, 1984

SECOND SOLE

Open Week Nights 'til 8 pm
UNIVERSITY SQUARE (Next to Granville Towers)

942-1078
133 W. Franklin

HERE'S A HALF PRICE SALE THAT'S SUITABLE FOR FRAMING.

Right now, we are offering an eye full of frames for half price! So for the classy, conservative or colorful frames to suit your lifestyle, visit today! This sale is being offered for a limited time, so hurry. But remember, in order to take advantage of this offer, be sure to bring this coupon.

OPTOMETRIC EYE CARE CENTER PA

Sales ends: June 30, 1984

Dr. Kenneth A. Gregg
The Franklin Center
128 E. Franklin
929-4733