For the record

In The Daily Tar Heel yesterday the story "University Day to celebrate UNC's 400th anniversary" should have said the school is 191 years old. Classes are canceled from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m., and professors wear their robes at graduation as well. The DTH, once again, regrets the errors.

Hey Linda Lou! Legality at last! May this be the best yet. That one, big wish will come true. Much luck!! Happy 21st! Love, HO.

Well I miss Beverly Horne Price an ashamed of some of my readers who find it very humorous to trash me for fifth. As I will always remind my loyal fans, I am still an honest woman. I have done nothing to cause this outrageous fifth that is floating around and even being published in the DTH. And to my most favorite reader, Tyrell as I said last week about that boy I spent the night with I only talked to RT. Exactly what did I lose in Hardee's? Whatever it was I'm sure I've lost it before then! Viva Alexiss!

Sally, I am cold. I ask for presents-my roommate gives me mold. Nah, Sarah-have a terrific birthday and a great friend! Love, Katie.

MAX, DARLING: Here I am in Europe's answer to San Francisco-Munch! This lovely city is just too flawless. It bounds with my type of man! Whew, I've got my work cut out for me!! Auf wiedersehen, darling, Elsa.
