John Rothman, a political and foreign policy consultant, will speak about the ethic element in the 1984 elections. Monday 6:30 at Hill, 210 W. Cameron.

RCF - Well we made it to the big FOUR. How about us! Let's keep up the good work! Love ya, MRC.

Ms. Beverly Home Price. Are the tidbits I have gleaned from the sisters correct? I am horrified. I simply cannot comprehend the implications of such activity. Reply quickly, mon cher, the Swoord of Damocles hangs over the remains of your fathered reputation. Aunt Mildred.

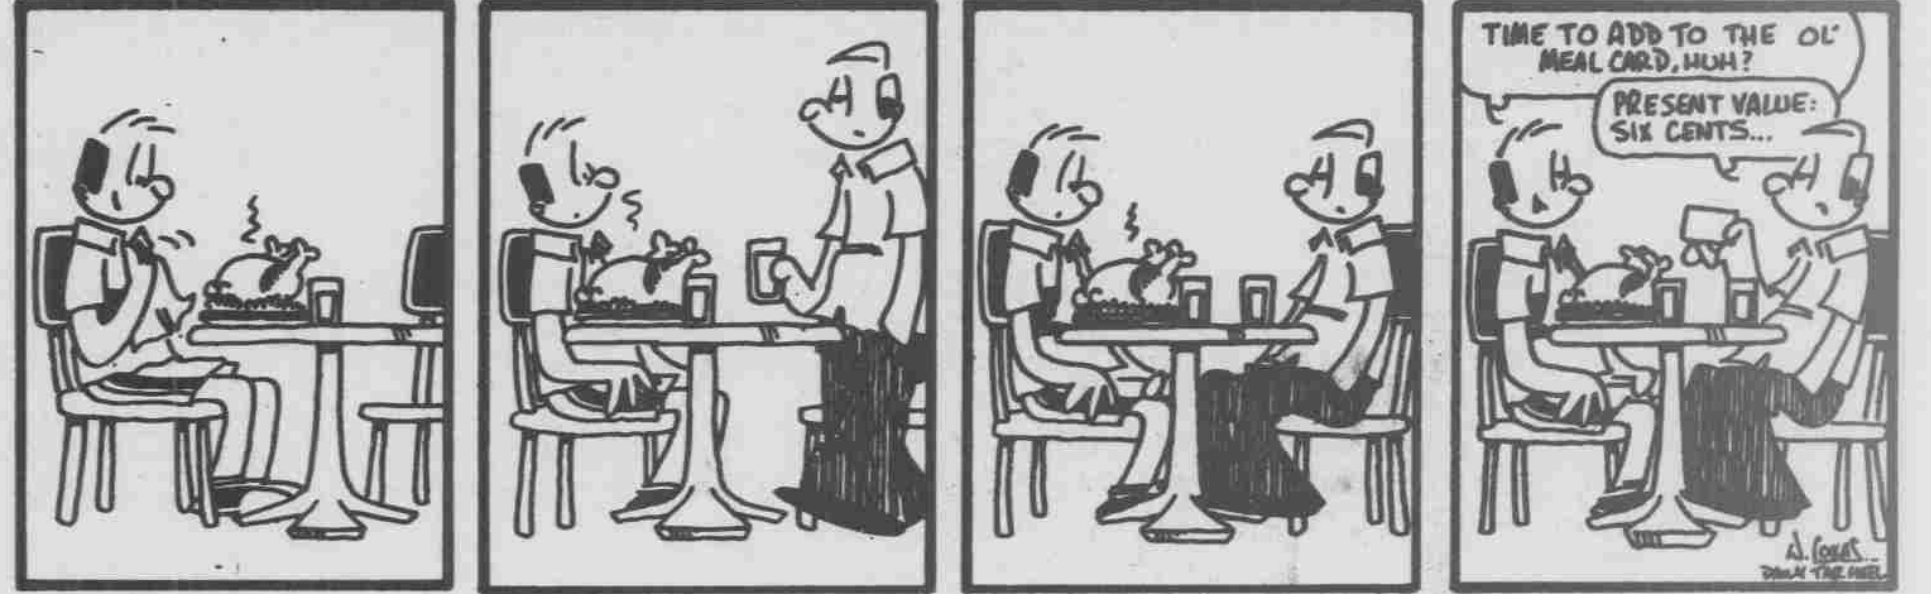

Well I Miss Beverly Home Price wish to apologize to all my readers for my brief leave of absence last week. I was in a flawless concert at La Mirage. Well girls it looks like Tyrrell is off my back. This person finally got a taste of the power of Miss Price! And to clear things up- I had nothing to do with the Fogels Ben personal. And please watch the coming episodes of "As the World Turns". It truly will be flawless.

Amy 9th E. Greenville your game plan was better than Crum's. Your smile as exciting as the game. Your hug as thrilling as the last minute TD. Let's have dinner and discuss the next move. Respond-Rick.

Ricky- Sorry about the episode Tuesday night. We should have all kept our mouths shut. Hope there are no bad feelings from you or Tina. I think we all screwed up. Tammy and Kris Episode One-The Party-everyone gets drunk at Stephanie Minnipad's. The virtuous Dana Nicole brought a charming man but once again did not put out. Bridgette B. still suffering slightly from PMS and related disorders, brought her physician. Kitty Barr-belle was still reeling from the lesbian overtures of Regina Von Gulp. Tracy and Shirley Wood were the picture of wedded bliss (after a traumatic summer). Jinny Coyote made an auspicious debut but still can not decide between twirling and shagging! Stephanie's guest was a flawless willowy young brunette, Bernice T. Girls, we parted like it was 1999 and then sped to Durham. More later-"As the World Turns". P.S. The girls would like to congratulate Miss Helen Spitt on starting her MBA at night! Go for it, Helen.
