COVER STORY: Rock 'n' rollin' out of bed

You thought your first class was early. These disc jockeys are up long before the sun. So was Anne Doggett to report on morning radio in the Triangle. Cover photo by Dan Charlson. 4

Is AM dead?

Not the morning, the radio. The spread of FM radio has slowly deteriorated AM radio's audience. Jeanna Baxter investigates. 5

Surowiecki's version

James Surowiecki leaves the sports desk long enough to review John Updike's new novel, "Roger's Version." 3

Worth a thousand words

Elizabeth Ellen reviews the movie "Mona Lisa," a masterpiece on the scale of its artistic namesake. 6

The beat goes on

WXYC's Kevin Gottesman praises the latest offerings from two of rock's legends — Paul Simon and Neil Young. 7

Fare enough

Week's Fare offers a rundown of local live entertainment offerings and movie listings. 8
