

 American Heart Association

"What television newscasts did to expose the horrors of the Vietnam War... KAFFIR BOY may well do for the horrors of apartheid."

—Chicago Tribune

"I'd like to think that KAFFIR BOY might acquire the same status that Richard Wright's Native Son or Claude Brown's Manchild in the Promised Land had for earlier generations of American readers. It is in every way as important and as exciting a book."

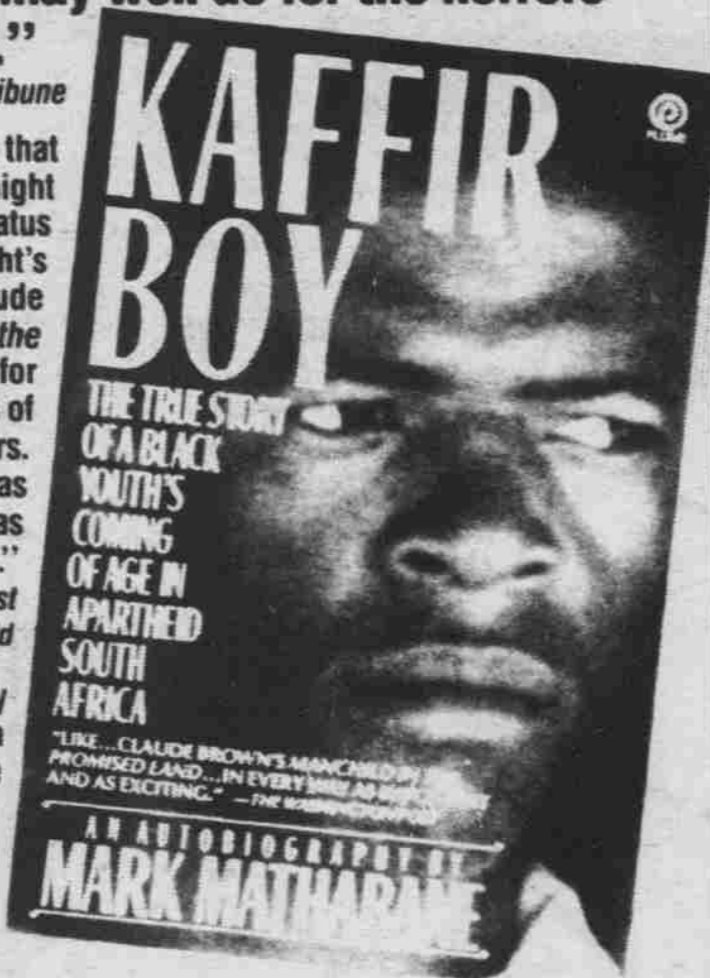

—Washington Post Book World

"Transcends any studies or media reports concerning the government of South Africa... Compelling and authentic."

—Milwaukee Sentinel

$8.95

PLUME PAPERBACK

$2.00 OFF all New LP's & Tapes
BACK DOOR RECORDS
 $1.50 OFF all used LP's & Tapes and new posters and T-shirts
 135 Rosemary St. Lower level
 NCNB Plaza near RAM Triple
 Mon-Sat 12-6pm 933-0019
BUY — TRADE — SELL

CRACOVIA
 european restaurant
 Polish, French, German and Scandinavian Cuisine
Early Bird Specials
 Sun.-Thurs 5:30-6:30
 Full meal of your choice $8.95
 Open for Dinner Only
 7 Days a Week at 5:30
 All ABC Permits
 Reservations Suggested
 300-B W. Rosemary St. • 929-9162

PURDY'S
 presents
The COMEDY ZONE
 and
UNC-Notre Dame NCAA Action!
Come laugh like you've never laughed before and then cheer the Heels to victory and the Final Four!
 ★★★★★★
 Appearing This Week:
WILLIE STRATFORD
 Also Appearing:
Brad Carver
 1 Show Thursday
 7:30 PM
 Doors open at 6:30pm
 Reservations suggested
 call 929-5430
Thank You, Chapel Hill, For making the Comedy Zone a huge success!
Purdy's On Franklin
159½ E. Franklin St.

OMNIBUS

MAGAZINE

A SUPPLEMENT TO THE DAILY TAR HEEL

COVER STORY:

6 "I'm just a bill, yes, I'm only a bill." Teresa Eatmon talks to some recent UNC grads sitting on Capitol Hill. What's life like as an up-and-coming politico? Five UNC alums, including 1983-1984 Student Body President Kevin Monroe, tell.

3 Trade your blood for 45s? Suffering from music madness? Law student Kevin Gilpin is. He's a music connoisseur who, like his fellow enthusiasts, would practically give an arm and a leg to take his collection to record-breaking heights.

4 Communist plots continue, but we've got Joe Bob back. He comes at you this week with the Intestine Fu Finale. What? That's what he's dubbed "A Nightmare on Elm Street 3: Dream Warriors." The drive-in man also mentions the Heels, so be sure to check it out.

5 It's new. It's hip. It's 80s. Watch out. Omni has started a new column named after your favorite bathroom literature — graffiti. If you're looking for anything unusual in events, quotes and happenings, look here. This week? Toilet talk from around campus.

8 "Oh, mum, I'll just DIE without daddy's Yale sweats!" You couldn't wear them anywhere and get away with it. Anywhere but college, that is. It's all but the juiciest of what you've ever wanted to know about college chic, from Fashion Ave. femme Sharon Kessler. Learn how to tie those blouchers right, Muffy.

10 You thought the action was at Fort Lauderdale. Sorry, that was last weekend for Spring Break. Find out what's up in the Triangle. Week's fare has it.

11 Reviewer Jim Surowiecki has survived his double book review of weeks ago, regained his vitality over Spring Break, and he's ready to go with another one. This week it's John Fuller's "Flying to Nowhere," the tightly structured mystery novella which features an abbot as its primary character.

Staff Writers: Beth Buffington, Ellen DeRosset, Chris Cain, John Cobbs, Teresa Eatmon, Joanne Gordon, Angela Hampton, Memsy Price, Sharon Kessler, Bowen Vanderbilt and Cathy McHugh, assistant editor.

Cover art by Trip Park

THE SWEATSHIRT COMPANY

Crewneck $10.99

OAKCREEK VILLAGE SHOPPING CENTER • 4600 CHAPEL HILL BLVD.