

The rip-roaring comedy show that will knock you out of your seat!

The Second City

"Second City" is brilliant."
TIME MAGAZINE

"Subtly & Superbly funny!"
NEW YORK POST

Touring Company®

SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 8:00 pm CAROLINA THEATRE
215 Roney St., Durham
Tickets: $10.50 advance, $12.00 day of show
Available at: Carolina Theatre Box Office 688-1939 • Poindexter Records, Perry St., Durham • Oasis Records, Hillsborough St., Raleigh • Record Bar, Franklin St., Chapel Hill
FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL 942-2021
A BLUE QUAIL PRODUCTION

Oh, the Temptations!

Prime Rib

Grilled Halibut with Avocado-Thyme Butter

Grilled Beef and Shrimp Kabobs

Beef and Broccoli Stir Fry

You've Been Hungry Too Long

Rich. Succulent. With a spritz of lemon, or a dollop of butter. Dripping with cheese, or laced thick with cream. Grilled, broiled, sauteed, or stir fried. Go ahead, give in to temptation.

Spinnaker's
RESTAURANT

South Square Mall

Omnibus

Up front:

8 And the Envelope Please Yes, boys and girls, it's that time of the year again — the stars will come out Monday night to celebrate Oscar's 60th birthday. Staff writer Richard Smith gives the lowdown on who's nominated for what, along with a few opinionated picks.

3 Prof Rock Can you imagine one of your professors up on stage belting out the blues and R&B? Staff writer Beth Tripp talks to Scrapyard, the band that boasts an English professor and a grad student.

3 Drach and Roll Staff writer Rhys Williams talks to folksinger Tracy Drach, a transplanted New Yorker who tempers her politically-flavored music with humor.

4 Thrift-shop Rock Fetchin Bones brings its "no rules" brand of punk, soul and blues to Cat's Cradle.

5 Totally Tubular You'd rather veg out on the couch than hang out in the beautiful spring weather. Assistant Omnibus editor Jenny Livingston knows this — don't be ashamed, check out The Tube.

5 Ramble On They started out as actors in a musical in 1975 — now, 13 years later, The Red Clay Ramblers are still performing their music as a band.

6 $300 Hookers And a greater expanse of cleavage than the San Andreas fault. It's Joe Bob's favorite show: the Miss USA Pageant.

7 Finding the Flicks All the movies playing now, or coming soon, to a theater near you. Popcorn not included.

7 A-TTEN-tion! Catch Matthew Broderick as he gets some basic training from sergeants and hookers in "Biloxi Blues." Staff writer Sally Pearsall reviews this Neil Simon play-turned-movie.

10 Burn, Baby, Burn You've wanted it and waited for it — now it's here. Staff writer Susan Dellinger provides a handy guide to get you through the resurrected Burnout, Saturday's Springfest and the birth of Beach Blast.

12 Relax If the parties this weekend are just toomuch for you, there are still other things to do besides study. Look into Week's Fare.

13 Natural Art Staff writer Francine Allen discovers how artist Margaret Mueller gets back to nature in watercolor.

14 Campus Spotlight For weeks you saw his picture everywhere, but now you can meet him: student body president Kevin Martin. Even with that high-falutin' title, he's just a normal guy.

14 Take to the Winds Go to Carowinds. For this week's roadtrip staff writer Amy Gallimore checks out North Carolina's own amusement park. So amuse yourself!

15 On and Off Ontracks, John Sherer reviews Morrissey's Viva Hate — Offtracks, Randy Bullock delves into the underground with Agitpop and Talking Heads.

16 Feminists, Sexists, Kudzu and R.E.M. Find out why feminism isn't half as scary as kudzu or Paul Simon. Elizabeth Ellen tells you why.

16 You're the Director This week's graffiti goes into the studio. Staff writer Richard Smith gives you the seven easy steps to make a blockbuster movie.

Cathy McHugh, editor; Sally Pearsall, copy editor; Jenny Livingston, assistant editor; Laura Ross, design editor; George Brooks, illustrator.

Staff: Francine Allen, Randy Bullock, Susan Dellinger, Karen Enriken, Amy Gallimore, Allison Pike, John Sherer, Richard Smith, Beth Tripp, Rhys Williams and Karen Zimmer.