starting from scratch, just keeping the facade."

As to the Varsity's future, Jim says there are no fears for its survival. "The owner of the building wants it always to remain a theatre," he says. "His father-in-law built it, and his children ran it to put themselves through school." Jim's only shortcoming with the theatre is its lack of space. "We would like to have more screens, because a lot of our films leave prematurely."

What are his favorite films? Jim can't say. "I'm really excited that 'La Dolce Vita' is being issued on laserdisc on a wide-screen format after all these years; it's such a great film," he says. "One of my

"PART 'HIGH NOON' AND PART 'ROCKY.'"
— Merrill Shindler, LOS ANGELES MAGAZINE

"IT'S THE 'FEEL GOOD' MOVIE OF THE YEAR."
— Roy Leonard, WGN RADIO/TV

Eastside High was a training ground for jail.

Then Joe Clark took over.

Now the kids are getting something they never had.

A future.

It's the true story of a real hero from the director of "The Karate Kid" and "Rocky."
