Juncosa

most distinctive feature of Nature is Juncosa's vocals. It's hard to liken her to anyone, but songstress like Patti Smith and Nina Hagen come to mind. Juncosa's smouldering vocals dip and rise over the songs as if riding waves.

Sylvia Juncosa's show is one not to be missed. What should one expect at one of her shows?

Probably some tie-dyed clothing, maybe some dark sunglasses and most likely a lot of jumping around. Don't miss this woman - she's wild!
