EMILY-YOU LOOKED just as pretty carrying that dress last Sunday afternoon as when you were wearing it Friday night. I was thinking about you on the way over to Carmichael when our paths crossed again. Between your good looks, charm, and friendly personality you made an impression on me that has been hard to forget (and in my job I see scores of females every day). I'm glad I was able to help you feel better when we first met, but the fact is I was just telling you the truth: you are beautiful. Your Complimentary Admirer

DEAR TIGER-Yes, it's me. I just couldn't let this year end without telling you how wonderful you are! No matter how abnormal our year has been, at least we've shared it together and that says a lot. You've kept me sane, you've kept me warm, and you've kept me happy. Wherever the future takes us, I hope you'll always keep me. Congratulations Jeff! You've skipped your last class. Love always, Sandi.

DEEJER and FREIDA-Thanks for providing sanctuary to this oft-fleeing traveller. Hope you look back with fondness remembering your illegal days of Big Dippers and White Russians, as well as Picasso nights and the formal of the polka-dot boxers. TO MY BEST FRIENDS--the attention manager, the airheaded future movie director, the Southern belle, the one that is always out of control and the tough Northerner with a sensitive Southern heart. You've made my freshman year unbelievable. We've done it all: Def Leppard; the gold Birthday Box; Student Hell; frat parties; kannihilated; D.C. at the C.R.; student body elections--what a buzz-crusher; those weekends from hell we've all had; coordinated heel-kicking to the less coordinated attempts at aerobics and falling off the loft; letters to Janell from Hell; all those pseudo-relationships we've had; "He loves me. He hates me."; "I'll call you;" "It's just a dick-thing."; "Come and see my fish tank."; too many guys named John; Gotta love those Sig-Eps--our group total is 16 (Steph, you need to catch up, babe); What QT we had in Daytona--from burning our buns to herbal tea, from half and half to UNC football players to a real cute guy with a real bad accent to surfer dudes to the two guys from two different worlds being in one place, and to Dennis--all I can say is "We had hookage!" (I'm finally admitting I hooked with Dennis.) I couldn't have survived without you guys. We laughed and cried and had a hell of a time. You all are as beautiful inside as on the outside. You will be in my heart over the summer. I'll miss you guys! I love you to the moon and stars! Kerry K.
