Shire, Robert Duvall, and Marlon Brando as Don Corleone. Saturday at 7 and 10:15.

THE GODFATHER, PART TWO

Perhaps the only sequel to gain more praise than the original, The Godfather II also won twice as many Academy Awards as its predecessor. This second film contrasts the life of the "don" (Pacino) with the early life of his father (Robert DeNiro) as an immigrant in New York City. Beware — only one showtime: Sunday at 8.

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE

Another chance to see the great Marlon Brando in action, this time as Stanley Kowalski in Elia Kazan's brilliant film version of Tennessee Williams' play. Vivien Leigh won an Oscar for her role as Blanche Dubois, as did co-stars Karl Malden and Kim Hunter, but it's Brando that you'll remember. Wednesday, 7 and 9:30.
