THE RATINGS

- — miserable
- — mediocre
- — enjoyable
- — quite good
- — unmissable

this highly-acclaimed screen version of the Broadway play. It's a gem of a movie, the sort of film made with great affection. And while approaching its gentle comedy-drama plot with a light touch, it manages to say much about race relations. The Best Picture winner; directed by Bruce Beresford. Varsity, Willowdaile

ERNEST GOES TO JAIL ●●●●
Jim Varney returns a third time. Plaza, Willowdaile

FIRST POWER not yet reviewed Satanic stuff starring Lou Diamond Phillips. Ram Triple, Willowdaile

HENRY V ●●●●●

Kenneth Branagh boldly directs and acts in Shakespeare's play about the successful warring monarch who battles with the French at Agincourt. A totally invigorating film, featuring the very best of British character acting: Judi Dench, Derek Jacobi, Richard Briers, Emma Thompson, you name it. But it's Branagh's show: his St. Crispin's Day speech is so spirited, you want to ride off into the breach with him. Ram Triple

THE HUNT FOR RED OCTOBER ●●1/2

The story of a Russian submarine commander who attempts to defect is strangely anachronistic and unsuspenseful: not even Sean Connery can make up for its lackings. But it's not merely a case of bad timing: the screenplay, adapted from Tom Clancy's bestseller, is flat and characterless. With Alec Baldwin, Sam Neill and James Earl Jones. Varsity, Willowdaile

I LOVE YOU TO DEATH
not yet reviewed

Tracy Ullman discovers her husband Kevin Kline is cheating on her, so she employs River Phoenix, William Hurt and Keanu Reeves to get rid of him. Lawrence Kasdan (The Big Chill, The Accidental Tourist) directs. South Square

THE LITTLE MERMAID ●●●●●

The Academy Award-winning soundtrack alone makes it worth seeing this one. Who can forget the immortal words of Sebastian the Crab, "Darling, it's better down where it's wetter, take it from me." Yorktowne

NUNS ON THE RUN ●●●

Robbie Coltrane and Eric Idle star as con men who hide out in a nunnery: "an immaculate deception." Ram Triple, South Square

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS
not yet reviewed

Dana Carvey tries to break out of the small screen. Willowdaile

PRETTY WOMAN ●●●●

Only Disney's Touchstone could get away with a fairy-tale like this pygmalion-style romantic comedy. Richard Gere is a businessman who takes up with thoroughly charming rising star Julia Roberts on the streets of Hollywood. Directed by Garry Marshall (Nothing in Common, Beaches). Plaza, Willowdaile

TEENAGE MUTANT NINJA TURTLES ●●●●1/2

The movie about the breakfast cereal. Carolina Blue and White, Willowdaile, South Square

At the Union

TOM JONES

Albert Finney stars in Henry Fielding's magnificent work. Even though it's set in the 18th century, the infamous erotic food scene makes 9 1/2 Weeks look like a Disney flick.
