Baker asks support of Persian Gulf policy
WASHINGTON — State Sen. John Baker appeared Wednesday for a meeting of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to urge support of the Persian Gulf policy so he could then tell his constituents, "Get out of Kuwait or risk all."

Sen. Baker said a news account of his recent trip to the Middle East missed the human rights aspects of the situation.

Meanwhile, President Bush said in a news account of his recent trip to the Middle East that he faced nothing but human rights issues.

"We have to be very clear and very straightforward with the people of Kuwait that we will not tolerate their attempt to take over the area," the president said.

"I think it's important that we make it clear to the people of Kuwait that we will not tolerate their attempt to take over the area," the president said.
