Men's soccer beaked by Billikens in NCAAs

Staff reports
ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis University Billikens defeated UNC 4-0 Saturday in the second round of the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament before 1,085 fans at the Billiken Sports Center.

SLU, ranked No. 2 in the nation and the South Region's top seed, raised its record to 19-1-2. Fourteenth-ranked UNC closed its season at 15-6-1.

Four players scored for the Billikens as both squads braved 28-degree temperatures and light snow throughout the

The Billikens scored at 27:42 when Steve Kuntz hit a 9-yard shot off an assist by Jeff Davis. St. Louis then tallied three goals in the second half behind the play of Shane Batelle, Brian McBride and Mike Sorber.

UNC goalkeeper Watson Jennison tallied nine saves, but the Billikens outshot the Tar Heels 17-8.

Swimmers in 'Bama invite

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - North Carolina swimmers David Monasterio and Carrie Szulc garnered second-place finishes at the Alabama Invitational last weekend.

Monasterio clocked in at 4 minutes. 39.31 seconds in the 400-meter individual medley while Szulc finished in 5:05.87 in the women's 400 individual Monasterio and Szulc both finished fourth in the 200 butterfly with times of 2:06.71 and 2:23.13, respectively. Monasterio also helped lead North Carolina's 400 freestyle relay to a fourthplace finish.

The meet, attended by eight Tar Heel dual meets with Duke today in Koury Auditorium and at N.C. State Tuesday

Harriers in NCAA finals

The UNC men's cross country team will compete in the NCAA Championships today in Tucson, Ariz., the team's first appearance in the finals since 1985.

Led by sophomore Andre Williams, the Tar Heels finished third in the NCAA District III Championships Nov. 16 in Greenville, S.C. Williams came in third individually in the meet.

By Jennifer Dunlap

What a turnaround. After a crushing exhibition defeat to the Canadian National Team Nov. 17, the UNC women's basketball team started its regular season with something to prove. Well, the team proved it could be at the giving end of a blowout Friday afternoon in its season opener against

USC-Aiken at Carmichael Auditorium. When it was all over, the scoreboard read: UNC 87, USC-A 56. But at the game's beginning, it looked as if the blowout might have been on its way in the other direction. The Pacers jumped out to an early 10-3 lead. Meanwhile, the Tar Heels racked up foul after foul, giving the Pacers the bonus with almost 12 minutes left in the

"We were reaching," said UNC head coach Sylvia Hatchell. "We weren't playing defense with our feet. We put them on the foul line 18 times in the first

But the Tar Heels turned the momentum around after Hatchell called a time out midway through the first half. The UNC coach changed her defense to a full-court press.

The switch seemed to frustrate the Pacers, as UNC forced some turnovers that resulted in fast-break baskets.

was just a big burden lifted off my off L'NC's back. The extra point after

Means' touchdown gave the Tar Heels

a 40-14 lead and ended any hopes of a

Blue Devil comeback. With its blowout victory in hand, UNC closed out a win that closely mirrored Duke's 41-0 shutout of the Tar Heels two years ago in piled 479 yards on 33-of-54 passing;

after that contest, the quarterback said

First Quarter First Quarter
UNC — Blount 6 run (Gwaltney kick), 10:55
Second Quarter
UNC — Gwaltney 19 field goal, 12:04
UNC — R. Jordan 37 run (Gwaltney kick),

6:35 UNC — Gwaltney 26 field goal, 0:01 Third Guarter Duke — Farquhar 31 from D. Brown (Gr

- W. Henderson 3 run (pass failed),

- Faulkerson 3 run (Gwallney kick),

Jones 27 from D. Brown (Gardner

82-351

14-24-2 2-42.0

8-103 37.07

Individual Statistics
Bushing: UNC — Means 30-181; Jordan 12-108, W. Henderson 5-22; Stanicek 4-14; Williams 3-8; Blount 1-6; D. Henderson 3-6; Faulkerson 2-4; Atkinson 2-2; Duke — D.

Brown 13-32; Wright 24; Gallman 1-3; G. Brown 4-2; Jones 1-65; Passing: UNC — Stanicak 14-24-2 178. Duke — D. Brown 15-42-1 168; Gardner 1-1-

Pleosiving: UNC — Holliday 3-50; Jauch 3-23; Slount 2-44; W. Henderson 2-22; Jordan 2-18; Feiton 1-12; Means 1-9; Duke — C. Brown 4-86; Farquhar 3-43; Jones 2-40; Wright 2-3; Mays 1-32; Ellis 1-17; Redmon 1-

Missed Field Goals: Gwaltney 43.

21-36

16-43-1 6-38-3

3-2 2-19 22:53

Fourth Quarter

Vick), 13-50 UNC — Means 68 run (Gwaltney kick), 13-94 UNG — W. Henderson 9 run (Pignetti kick), 7-20 A — 50,500 he could have done better.

168 yards and one interception.

In that game, Duke's Brown com-

Saturday, Brown was 15 of 42 for

0 0 7 7 14 7 13 13 14 47

Kenan Stadium.

North Carolina

kick), 10:55 UNC — W.

First downs

Rushes-yards Passing yards

Punts Avg. Fumbles-lost Penalties-yards

Time of possession

4:23

The run also lifted a two-year burden

Charlotte Smith

North Carolina took the lead for the first time with 8:56 left in the first half, when junior guard Toni Montgomery hit a 3-pointer to make the score 18-15

In the second half, the Pacers continued to lose their composure, fouling more often and throwing the ball away. The Tur Heels, using a balanced attack of outside and inside shooting, never let USC-Aiken back in the game

The Tar Heels' balance also showed in the statistics. Senior guard Tanya 4 for 6 from treyland and shot 60 percent within the circle. Montgomery, with 12 points, also shot 50 percent from the 3-point line.

But UNC's second-leading scorer was an inside player, freshman forward Charlotte Smith, who had 16 points. Another inside player in double figures was center Sylvia Crawley with 11.

Senior point guard Emily Johnson dished out 11 assists to round out the attack. Crawley and Smith each pulled down seven rebounds.

All told, the Tar Heels launched 123point shots and made six of them. Hatchell said her offense was built around the outside shot.

'All our offenses are set up to take the shot right around the basket or to take the 3-point shot," she said.

For USC-Aiken, the scoring was far from balanced. Senior guard Tisha England scored 23 points and ran the offense from the point. She was also a threat on the free-throw line, with nine of her points coming from the stripe.

Ironically enough, Hatchell said England had signed to play for North Carolina during her freshman year but had failed to qualify academically.

"At halftime I told my players, 'Now you know why we signed Tisha England," Hatchell said. "She's a great player. She could play in the ACC, there's no question about it.

from page 10

41-0," Thigpen said. "So I think we had an off day on defense today by letting

For the first half, it looked as if the Far Heels would return Duke's 1989 favor at par, shutting out the Devils 20-0 while compiling hefty offensive totals themselves. UNC held the ball for 20:52 of the game's first 30 minutes.

The contest began with a 70-yard kickoff return by UNC's Eric Blount that put the Tar Heels on Duke's 28yard line. Eight plays later, Means reversed the ball to Blount, who raced 6 yards into the end zone. Clint Gwaltney's extra point made it 7-0.

Blount said his beginning-of-thegame kickoff return was no surprise.

He had an off day when they beat us We thought coming into the game that we were going to be able to do that because of the way they run their lanes and stuff," Blount said. "I got two great blocks from (Brian) Bollinger and (Andy) Dinkin. There was a big hole there, and I just ran through it.

> "I believe my kickoff return set the tempo for the whole game."

With the tone set, both squads reter, when UNC went on a rampage:

After a pass from UNC's Jason Stanicek to Corey Holliday put the ball at Duke's 27, and a penalty advanced the Tar Heels to the 13, UNC stalled and settled for a Gwaltney field goal with 12:04 left in the quarter, Score: 10-0.

On UNC's next possession, Jordan capped a six-play, 68-yard drive with a 37-yard run through the middle in which the junior emerged untouched. After a Gwaltney extra point, it was 17-0 with 6:35 left in the half.

After a Jonathan Perry intercep-tion gave UNC the ball at Duke's 22 with 2:21 left, the Tar Heels advanced the ball to the 3 before a Deems May clipping penalty reversed the ball to the Duke 25. When a Stanicek pass to Holliday in the end zone fell incomplete, UNC settled for a field goal with 01 remaining in the half. Score: 20-0.

At the start of the second half, it appeared as if the Duke offense might reemerge. On the Devils' first posses sion, Brown engineered a 14-play, 73yard touchdown drive that was capped by a 31-yard pass to tight end John Farquhar with 10:55 left in the third.

But the UNC defense stood tight thereafter, as linebackers Thigpen, Dwight Hollier and Eric Gash continued to pressure Brown. Gash and Hollier finished with three tackles and a sack. Thigpen had six unassisted tackles.

Duke managed only one more score in the contest, a 27-yard pass from Brown to Walter Jones UNC responded with two touchdowns by fullback William Henderson, one by fullback Mike Faulkerson and Means' 68-yard jaunt.

All in all, bowl bid or not, UNC's victory stood as a monument to the Tar Heels' seniors, who withstood back-toback I-10 seasons before last season's 6-4-1 record and this year's 7-4 outing.

These seniors have been through a lot of hard times," said UNC head coach Mack Brown. "(They) really felt like it would have been a finishing touch to win seven games, put themselves in a position to go to a bowl and hang on and hope that happens.

"I think it's amazing what they've been able to do.

Another North Carolina/USC-Aiken connection is through Pacers head coach Gail Moody-Johnson. She played under Hatchell for four years at Francis Marion College, and later assisted Hatchell there before both left the school for their current coaching positions at UNC and USC-Aiken. "I knew she'd have them fired up," Hatchell said. "I thought they played an excellent game.

USC-Alken (56)
Jones 1-11 5-6 7, Sriyder 1-5 1-2 3, Sims 2-6
0-0 4, England 6-12 9-12 23, Ryans 3-6 0-0 6,
Smith 0-0 0-0 0, Bushy 0-00-0 0, Henry 0-0
3 2, Frankin 3-5 5-8 11, Davis 0-0 0-0,
Cleveland 0-0 0-0 0, Totals 18-45 22-31 56.

Cleveland 0-0 0-0 0, Totals 16-45 22-31 56. North Carolina (87)
Kerinsely 0-20-00, Bradley 0-21-21, Crawley 5-91-211, Montgomery 4-12-2-212, Johnson 3-7 2-2-8, Smith 7-9 2-4-16, Sarripson 2-6-0-0-4, Lamb 6-10-17-2-17, McKes 3-3-3-4-9, Gillingham 4-6-10-2-9, Turner 0-1-0-0-0, Suddreth 0-2-0-6-0, Totals 34-69-13-20-87. Halftime — North Carolina 44, USC-Alken 29, Fouled out - none, Rebounds - USC-Alken 32 (England 7), North Carolina 40 (Crawley, Smith 7), Assists - USC-Alken 7 (Snyder 3), North Carolina 40 (Crawley, Smith 7), Assists - USC-Alken 7 (Snyder 3), North Carolina 20 (Johnson 11), Steats - USC Omith 7), Assists - USC-Aken 7 (Strycer 3), North Carolina 20 (Johnson 11), Steals - USC-Aiken 9 (Jones, Sims 2), North Carolina 16 (Crawley, Sampson 3), Turnovers - USC-Aiken 34 (England, Ryans 8), North Carolina 22 (Kennedy 6), Blocks - USC-Aiken 1 (Jones), North Carolina 2 (Crawley, McKee), Total fouls - USC-Alken 17, North Carolina 24 Atlandance - 250 Peistrup said.

Volleyball ousted early in ACC tourney by FSU

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. Florida State scalped the North Carolina volleyball team in the first round of the ACC Tournament Friday night in Memorial Gymnasium.

By David Monroe

The sixth-seeded Seminoles rolled into the semifinals by sweeping the third-seeded Tar Heels 15-7, 15-6 and 15-7. UNC concluded its season with an 18-15 record, 4-4 in the ACC

Duke defeated seventh-seeded Virginia Sunday for the ACC crown. The top-seeded Blue Devils swept the Cavaliers 15-12, 15-5, 15-5. Duke had defeated Georgia Tech in the semifinals, and Virginia had knocked off FSU.

Friday, UNC found itself looking iphill throughout its quarterfinal up et. The Tar Heels fell behind by scores of 13-2, 6-0 and 11-0 at the start of games one, two and three, respectively.

'We never put the pressure on Florida State to challenge them to make a clutch play," said North Carolina head coach Joe Sagula. "It's tough to win when you are giving up five or six points at the beginning of each game." The Seminoles chopped up the Tar Heels from the start. In game one, FSU turned a 2-2 score into a 13-2 advanage before UNC scored again.

We were playing scared to lose instead of wanting to win, which is what happens when we play aggressive," said junior setter Amy Peistrup.

Game two began similarly for UNC as FSU jumped to a 6-0 lead. But the Tar Heels turned things around by narrowing the score to 6-5.

But just as quickly as UNC had closed the deficit, FSU regained the momentum. The Seminoles extended their lead back to six by scoring the

"I think we all started to look at each other for answers and no one had any."

In game three, Florida State picked up right where it had left off by racing out to a quick 11-0 lead. The momentum was clearly in FSU's favor, and a trip to the next round was not far away.

Before the match, Sagula said good defense would be a key to victory for the Tar Heels. Unfortunately for North Carolina - a ream that prided itself on good defense the entire season - good defense did not exist against PSU.

"Our defense directly affects how our team plays as a whole," Sagula said. "Because we were real sluggish on defense, we could not get anything going on offense, either.

The Tar Heels entered the tourney looking for their third ACC title in the last four years. Several UNC players said they had overlooked the Seminoles, a team North Carolina had easily beaten during the regular season. 'I think we completely overlooked this team," said senior Melissa Mroczek. "I think since they were so prepared, we couldn't get it together." The Seminoles, who only won two ACC matches in the regular season, played one of their most consistent matches of the year against UNC. "Obviously, that's the best we've played all year," said FSU head coach Cecile Reynaud. "I thought we really concentrated. We were aggressive the whole time and made some good deci-

Peistrup agreed that FSU was on target Friday. "They played a great match and we didn't." she said. "We should have given them a better match. It's hard to end the season like that. I still can't believe it.

Carolina Open(s) home slate, wins 4

By John C. Manuel

Ric Flair was not there, but UNC's wrestling team fought like a champion

Saturday at the Carolina Open. Led by junior Shane Camera, who von outstanding-wrestler honors for the tournament, the Tar Heels had four overall winners, one second-place finisher, and two third-place competitors. The tourney's finals were held in Carmichael Auditorium, while the opening round matches took place in Woollen Gym.

Camera, moving up from the 167pound class where he won last season's ACC title, won the 177-pound weight class by decision against Bret Gustafson of Tennessee-Chattanooga,

"The guy Shane beat was fifth in the nation at 177," said UNC head coach Bill Lam. "Shane was eighth at 167, so we're very pleased at the way he moved

Sophomore Ty Moore, ACC runnerup at 118 pounds last year, dominated howan's Corey Dye in the 126 final. The Tar Heels' other two winners were freshmen. At 142 pounds, Dave Leonardis defeated Chris Burns of pounds, Marc Taylor decisioned Vic-

Balmeceda of Appalachian State. UNC freshman Jody Staylor lost a close final to Joe Stukes, who is five years his senior, at 134 pounds. The open competition enabled wrestlers like Stukes, who have either exhausted their eligibility or who will be redshirted this year, to compete

UNC senior Pete Welch, who won the ACC title last year at 158, finished third at 167 with a decision over Matt Caro of Maryland.

Returning ACC finalist Todd Hartung, wrestling in his familiar 190

Save the turkey for Thanksgiving class, pinned the Terrapins' Mike Caro for a third-place finish.

Lam said he was pleased with the work of his wrestlers, considering the level of competition the open provided,

There were 220 wrestlers here, and by the quarterfinals, things were pretty tough," he said. "But I'm very pleased with the attitude of the team. They're not afraid of hard work, and it's one of the best attitudes I've seen in my 19

TUESDAY

50c DRAFT

Live Music With

Two B's Please

$1 cover after 10 PM

Now having mono can pay off. Make $50 right now! If you have or have had mononucleosis in the last month, you could receive $50 each time you donate plasma!

For details call: 942-0251

1091/2 E. FRANKLIN ST. (above Rite-Aid)

One coupon per customer per visit. Expires Dec. 31, 1991

Timberlyne Shopping Center 2:00 PM-9:30 PM 967-7771 WE DELIVER! On/Off Campus

$10.00 Minimum

At Planned Parenthood, You're a Person. Not just a patient.

Planned Parenthood professionals care about your health. Your feelings. Your privacy. And your right to the best in family planning services and personal health care at an affordable price.

Complete birth control services.

. Pregnancy testing and counseling. Gynecological exams — yearly check-ups, Pap tests, breast exams, treatment for common · Cervical caps and morning after pill, now available Special Rates for Students:

Village Plaza (next to Wellspring), Chapel Hill 93 S. Elliott Rd. • 942-7762 820 Broad St., Durham • 419-8081

MOVINGSA 25% to 50% OFF EVERYTHING IN THE STORE

Order of Homemade Potato Chips with any purchase Good thru Nov.30, 1991

Home and car stereo • Telephones • Furniture • Portable stereos • Radar detectors • CB radios • Scanners

Short waves • Answering machines Accessories • Chapel Hill store only

Sorry, NO special orders NO layaways

*Except cellular phones

