really had an apprentice program for people coming up. ... The music changed, too. When rock'n'roll came in, it was such an immediate musical form that it was not easily translatable into the traditional Hollywood type of musical. Although I must say I see 'Jailhouse Rock' every now and then, and I think it's still fabulous."

Much has been written about the new Bette, contented wife of Martin Von Haselberg and ecstatic mother of 5-year-old Sophie. She readily admits the change in her life.

"I let go of a lot of things," she said. "And I found some things that meant a lot to me. I looked up from my grindstone, and I discovered that there was a world out there. There are a lot of Bette Midlers now."

"I'm a kind of studious person; I rely a lot on research," she said. "I'm very interested in history, in big trends and waves of fashion. I have a kind of bookish, scholarly side that is really important to me."
