Men's golf victorious in Georgia

AUGUSTA, Ga.—The North Carolina men's golf team took the title at this weekend's Cleveland Classics/Augusta College Invitational at the Forest Hills Golf Course.

The Tar Heels posted a three-round total of 870, 11 strokes better than second-place Florida.

UNC juniors Steve Albright and Bill Smith tied for third in the individual competition, both logging 217 scores. UNC senior Pat Moore tied for seventh with a 220, junior Tom Scherrer tied for 24th with a 227, and freshman Brian Brown tied for 31st with a 228.

Davis scores 12 in All-Star clash

MINNEAPOLIS — UNC senior guard Hubert Davis scored 12 points Friday in the NABC Collegiate All-Star Game as his East team lost 117-93 to the West. Davis shot 6 of 12 from the floor.

ning tosses were called balls, Roberts protested to umpire Doug Lee.

Lee tossed Roberts from the game. "I just thought that for the second day in a row that when Paul came in the ballgame, they wouldn't call strikes," Roberts said.

Saturday, Shuey had entered the game in the sixth with Clemson leading 2-0. Again, the hulking right-hander couldn't save the day. Shuey walked one runner to load the bases and then walked another to score a run. After Morris hit into a fielder's choice to bring in a run, Tiger left fielder Shawn Satterfield tagged a two-run single off Shuey.

Clemson's lead had ballooned to 6-0, and Shuey was gone by the eighth.

The Tar Heels, who had played the Tigers to a 0-0 tie in the first five innings Saturday, saw their upset hopes dwindle with an onslaught of walks, errors and mistakes.

"It's not the fact that we're mentally struggling," said UNC shortstop/third ### baseman Chris Cox. "It's just the physical things are killing us. We're making mistakes at the beginning of the ballgame and getting a little bit down on ourselves.

"It's tough to win playing that way." Friday, the Tigers pounded 18 hits on the Tar Heels, including two home runs and two doubles, to coast to the win.

non King, 6-4, 6-1. Uihlein was bested at No. 6 by Janice Durden, 6-3, 6-2.

King and Tara Lynch put Clemson in striking distance, defeating Thomas and Kelli Sharp 6-2, 6-3 at No. 3 doubles. Bernal and Uihlein then won before the No. 1 doubles match had ended.

"This is very important for us, not to have the pressure on the No. 1 (doubles) team to get the job done," Harrison said.

Especially since, after it was all decided, Durden and Burgos defeated Gurney and Portnoy 4-6, 7-5, 6-1.
