

Graduation Goodbyes So Long We'll Miss You Ciao Good Luck! Au Revoir

Laura W.

First a roommate, then a friend. From casual conversation to mind-boggling debate. We clashed for being equally strong; we had met our match. But when no one else could give us that level of challenge and fulfillment, we realized that the differences were gone. We came back to each other. And I'll never say goodbye again. Love, Robin.

Stephen Roberts

You made it! Congratulations and love from Mom and Dad.

Chrissy

May 10 we will drink lots of booze/ but you'll still suck your thumb while you snooze./ You're my #1 sober laugh attack/ But at Subway they all think we're quacks./ Every month life can add a new stress/ But as we know you're still not in the mess/ And our Freudian slip isn't salt or pepper yet/ But my friend you're the best that they get.

Ernie

You know who you are and so do the three gorgeous women in your life. You're a hoser but we love ya! Congrats on your graduation—let's get drunk! Ang, Donna, Deena

Bam-Bam

Dating you has changed my life forever!—No more first dates! I'm gonna miss the way you smell (oh-so-good), your penetrating smile, and your strong cuddly teddy-bear arms wrapped around me this summer. Despite the distance between us we'll have each other in our hearts. I love you! Pebbles

JENNIFER S.—Congratulations! I'm so proud of you. I love you and wish you all the best! Love, your sissier Lauren

JENNIFER—I have had a wonderful semester. We've had a good start and we're getting good run. I LOVE YOU, Jim.

JOHN with the red hat—It's too bad we didn't get to spend more time together. I really would have liked to. I told you that you'd get a personal. Keep in touch and take care—Your AMC in Carolina sweatshirt wearing buddy.

JULIEN: REMEMBER CAPS and gowns? Just blue sea under golden sun. Remember term papers? Just laughing in Davis Library. Remember my rebel? Just the way you kiss. Remember life is sweet—just us. Christina.

KATIE AND KAREN Here's to Dunkin' Donuts runs, James Taylor, 9th East memories, the ten hour trip to Emerald Isle, the Clefs, the Halloween dish detergent, and two wonderful friends. Thanks for all the laughs! Remember, "you've got a friend" Love, Amy.

KEITH, JEN KEITH, KRITZER, ANNE-MARIE: Enjoyed our talks and van rides and general silliness. Share and give and be and do lots next year. You're still too sexy... Love, Elif

LAURA, MARK, NEIL, DOUG: The last 3 (4 for some) years have been great, especially the Final Four! Congrats to those with jobs and good luck to those of us without. Happy Graduation!—Leah.

LAURIE, DON'T STOP! Rah, rah, Carolina! 3am... Ohmigod! It's Eric! Convertibles and Hondas. GPA? Rosey's. No not the place—the man. Disciplining the kids—Turbo and Bentley. Remember the green beans? 6th grade hamsters! "Did you know that someone's in your bed?" Friends for ten years. Christine.

LORIN: Let's talk about sex; no more vodka shots; Troll's fiasco; camping for nosebleeds; Speak my Language; I do too party; Phi Beta Kappa no show; It's been fun; Sorry we're so silly. Love Julie & Diana.

MATT—Congratulations on graduation, but what are you gonna do without my computer and bike? Girl Scout cookie money? Gonna miss Tippy? NOT!—The youngest roommate p.s. Joe—Too bad you're not graduating because you could have had your own personal.

MICHAEL P. "I wanna be like Mike!" except you have two legs and suck at Bomberman. To my fellow Star Wars freak, thanks for a great year. Call me from England—FWGIII

MIJETTE—I didn't want to graduate without thanking you for the tender sundae. I liked your fingers but now I'm crazy over your belly! Love ya even if you run away with Dolly Parton. PS. Because of you I want to make my bed, grow flowers, wear my seat belt. Hmmm!! Love always, Sunset Susie.

MIKE AND JODY, Well ayy! Big real world coming! We'll miss you two. Yaki! Yaki! Yaki! Yaki!—Harley Girls from the Cruise Crew '92

MISSY: Union, Soci, MyStat, Parties, ballgames at Ham's, studying, scoping, library, computer lab, "Jim", cinnamon buns, coffee at 800, what a year! Right? Thanks! Becky.

NANANANA NANANANA

Hey Hey Hey goodbye to the graduating Connorites: Kristie, Beth, Judy, Bill, Mark, Mike, Melissa, Markland, et al. Good luck in the real world! The rest of us Connor kids will miss you. Keep in touch. Love, Carrie and Amy.

PARUL, Thanks for putting up with us and thank us for putting up with you! We will miss you so keep in touch. Sam, Tweedy, Manchichi, Dhorio, and the other Whitey. P.S. Remember your stock value.

PEOPLE CAME AND WENT: for "Miriam," my true friend, here's a collage of four years. Kyoto. Morgantown. Pittsburgh. Swim test. Lotus Inn. Big Red. Humvee sharks. Pumping basketballs. Cafe Giorgios. Desert Storm Victory Parade and concert, neon bracelet, clutching Marines and belting out "God Bless the USA." Hit me with your best shot. Moaning "I'll Give All My Love to You," eyes closed, getting lost at Fort Bragg. Vietnam flicks. Lou. Outstanding rebounding. Chase. Me babbling, you listening. Boone's Farm. The Rat. Waiting for "it's your world" to call collect. Mean boys down with OPP. "The horror," laughs, tears, hugs, support, love and unconditional friendship. "Your friend is your needs answered."—Kahlil Gibran. I love and thank you. I leave UNC now; U, never. PSN

RMK—Where did the time go? Good luck with medical school. You're going to be a super doc, but you'll always be a slacker to me. Willie and I will miss you terribly. Thanks for everything. I love you. JAH.

ROXXY—Stop studying and buy me a motorcycle! You'll be the best teacher ever. To the most beautiful lizard on campus, I love you—FWGIII.

SEAN—Thanks for all the late night talks and slumber parties. You've made my year quite memorable. I hope all your dreams come true. Love, The Freshman. PS. Sorry I play too much!!

SHAWN & ELLA—Congrats! Have a nice life! And don't call me at 4:00am drunk anymore.—Diane

SNUFF: As graduation is coming near/ we'd like to leave you with some/ memories that may not be very clear./ First and foremost, / the truth about you and Thucker./ Did you ever suck her? Playing card games late at night/ The predictions were out of sight/ Squeaky springs heard throughout the house/ Every creature was stirring, even your mouse/ The soccer pplayers that are dear to your heart/ Or is it your other body part? / The night you flattered us with your physique/ In the pink and black bathing suit/ that was oh so chic! / One night stand with that Rebecca girl/ We bet that made your "head" swirl/ We have one thing to ask before we say goodbye/ So answer honestly and tell no lie./ How many of our friends did you/ like./ One, two, or just KW

SOME KNOW HER AS LOUCRETIA, some as Lou, others as Secretions or Flotations, I know her as a great friend. Thanks for being one. Love Anita.

STUDLY: I wish you the utmost success and happiness. YOU control your life, so stop pretending you don't. Please quit the wimpiness, make some decisions, and help me make mine. Love, (Not 2) VIXEN.

PAM, HOW WILL I survive without your advice that I have come to depend upon here? Easily with someone like you to admire! Congratulations, Tara.

SUELOO—Here's to M&M's, Zingers, Mom's cookies, MEN (lack thereof), Virginia (the superior state—NOT) & all our little crisis in the morning (what am I going to wear?) We will miss you. Good Luck. Love—Christina, Aliza, Kim, Michelle & Darice.

TARA: Thanks for the laughs, hugs, and friendship. Trolls, He's Not, and Time Out will miss us! Remember: "Good friends never say good bye" and you're the best! Love Ya! Wendy.

2ND Place

THERESA, We came, we saw, we drank, we laughed, we cried, we played lacrosse, we wore black, we felt stupid, we got stressed, we got dumped, we dumped, we had "the best time!" Get psyched for bar golf! You're the best! Love ya, Jeannine

TO KENDALL—Congratulations! "RN!" you glad you're finally graduating? Hey Daydoll, never forget the memories: Burned spaghetti boxes, $1500 for stainless steel? The farting shoe. What's for dinner? Rob= Raleigh= Can I have the car? Eat cake! "Amoeba Lady," Another paper massacre on the computer, "Rob-style" sofa boxed up for your 20th! I missed the bus... Again! We may be roommates and sisters, but we're also the best of friends. I'll miss you, Sis!—Keri

TO MY INSANE friends in Parker and Shelley (I remembered my promise! Thanks for 4 GREAT years and good luck in the future! Love, Wendy.

TO THE FUTURE O.T. Chapel Hill has had you for 4 years. Now it's time to conquer Richmond. Kick butt in grad school. Love the future (hopefully) dentist. PS. I will work on your teeth for half price.

TO: Shyrtle, Hayna, Allicat, Jules, Steph, Dawn and Sueby (and those long lost Delta Jays, Amy K. and Tricia) We've come a long way from the days we lived in Joyner, wore way too much hairspray, hooked up with bizarre frat boys and were total cheeseballs. Thanks for all those memories that have made the last four years the best of my life. I couldn't have made it through college without ya'll... or at least I wouldn't have had as much fun. You are my best friends. Remember Sue El's rule that said, "Don't leave college with anything permanent—scars, tattoos, husbands, babies." Well, I think we'll all break it, because we are leaving with each other and that's forever. I love you to the moon and stars.—Kerry K.

ANITA You are halfway home! Keep loving me, fix my teeth for free, you're the greatest, 'nuf said. Congrats and I love you. Grant

BNB, To my "True Companion." It's time to move on and I'm so glad we found each other so we can meet the challenges together. Ovela lwaysAA, Mr. Goob.

CHALK, to countless nights at Bub's, He's Not, etc. "Get You Some" at Yale but watch having more than one interest in a bar at the SAME TIME! See ya and I wouldn't wanna be ya! SCRUGGS

PETER wasn't sick!

SAM—I'll miss you next year! But, when I'm depressed I will remember that you are working hard in Med school so I can have joint checking! Right? I Love You!—Diane

These are a few of my favorite things. Matt B., Avery (NOT), Hardee's, ZZ Top (NOT) Lasagna, Cheers, Darryl's, Pink Floyd, Love peace, a mature summer, Grove Park Inn, green eyes, knee reflex checks, parkway, Kelly imitations, hot pink undies, Siena Hotel, pound cake, Kool-Aid toys, chias, "Whatever You Owe Me," the running man, sweet walks and talks, April 13, cold kisses, being called a type of head, Your mouthwash (NOT), phlebotomists, being in love, my precious babe, I.P.I.P. I love you. SDS.

YO SCATTMAN—Moving your arms faster is definitely one way of dancing through life! Here's to discovering many more... Sincerely, XOK

To The DTH Finest Anita & Lorrie

I'm sitting here in my tiny cubbyhole trying to say what I feel. But the words won't come. But the tears do. Saying goodbye is my least favorite thing, especially to you two. You each personify grace under pressure (flame, fury, not to mention cussing), splendid friendship and a warmth that's hard to find. Remember us as we will remember you—always. Love, thoughts & best wishes, Leslie

The Wingster

Whether it's newspapers or classrooms, you'll do great. (But stand on the podium if it's a classroom!) It's been neat to get to know you (& Christina); too bad that edit thing kept you from walking before. Keep in mind that debatable topics always make the time fly when you're pounding the pavement. Hope that cross-country thing works out well (don't fall in any canyons) and L.A. treats you better than other motorists. All the best to you (but only if you stay in touch)—Leslie

Grad Goodbye Winners

To pick up prizes, please come to the Daily Tar Heel Office before 5pm Tuesday, April 28 or call 962-0252. Remember to bring your ID!

The DTH will resume publication May 18
