

CAA

from page 7

ing week as well as an educational one.

This year, Rampage '92 and Parents' Weekend will be held during the same weekend. Rampage '92, therefore, provides different forms of entertainment for students and their parents. Friday night is considered our biggest event with a parade, a pep rally to be emceed by Woody Durham and the Franklin Street Extravaganza, Carolina's version of a mini-carnival.

Through the help of various student organizations and the athletic department, the CAA is able to bring this fun-packed week to the UNC campus. Rampage, therefore, is a vehicle through which all student organizations may interact in an informal manner. It attempts to relate all aspects of the UNC campus to other students.

Plans for Rampage '92 were started immediately after Rampage '91 last November. After choosing a game and a name for the event, my Homecoming directors, Caroline Swift, Landa Burney and Adam Beck, began working on planning this year's events. The coordination and involvement that goes on behind the scenes for the week of Homecoming is amazing. Each morning of Rampage, balloons are blown up to decorate the Pit for that day's activities.

At lunchtime each day, Carolina Fever directors Kim Cooper and Jennifer Rasmussen have coordinated various games and entertainment groups.

This year, some changes were made to the general structure of Rampage by the CAA cabinet. First of all, the women's soccer game on Sunday was the kickoff for the week. This attempted to start the week by focusing on one of our non-revenue teams. We also have moved the Pit movie, "The Bugs Bunny and Roadrunner Show," to Sunday night to expand Cross-Cultural Night.

The newest addition to Cross-Cultural Night is the inclusion of a storyteller. This event still will include presentations of the individual cultures of the campus.

The Homecoming queen policy also has been stated clearly. This revision was made to avoid ill feelings that surfaced last year about the selection process. It is designed to keep Rampage in line with its original intent. All of these changes were made to improve Rampage '92 so we could better convey the true spirit of Homecoming.

Before one has experienced Rampage, one is tempted to ask: Why would anyone be willing to get up at 6 a.m. every day to inflate hundreds of balloons that will be discarded at the end of the day, coordinate games to entertain students and spend his or her evenings sponsoring one of a variety of shows? (It's a question that I ask myself daily.) No, honestly, each year Rampage provides a means by which a group of individuals can help increase the spirit of the University and local communities. At the end of the week, one is able to look back on the past year of planning for this one extremely hectic week and know that he or she did something positive for Carolina.

I would like to encourage all students and student organizations to become involved in this Carolina tradition. There are many opportunities to expand Rampage '92, but the effort of the entire campus is needed to do this. If you have any questions, please call the CAA office at 962-4300.

Tracy Kirincich is president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

It's Our CUSTOM To Offer FRAMING SERVICES On SALE
SAVE 25% ON CUSTOM FRAMING SERVICES
 Includes: Mats, Glass, Mounting & Installation Charges
 Save on our quality framing services at Deck The Walls. Choose from our large selection of custom frames and you'll receive 25% OFF the mats, glass, mounting and labor! Bring in your prints, posters or memorabilia or choose from our large selection of art.
DECK THE WALLS®
 Expressive Art and Custom Framing
 4001 Chapel Hill Blvd., Durham, NC 27707 • 490-6583

looking glass café gnizlool 2251g 9169
University Square, Chapel Hill
 eat in 929-0296 take out
 ☛ Homemade Soups ☛ Custom built burgers ☛
 ☛ Stuffed Spuds ☛ Vegetarian Sandwiches ☛
 ☛ Salad Bar ☛ Salad Platters ☛ Beer ☛
 ☛ Desserts ☛ And Much More ☛
 Free Parking • Downtown Chapel Hill facing Granville Towers
133 W. Franklin St. lunch and dinner

kimono robes

 in our hand-printed cotton T'boli
 University Square Chapel Hill 967-8935

S O U T H • S Q U A R E • M A L L

NO BETTER

Place

...NO BETTER PEOPLE

There's no better place to find the best of shopping, dining and entertainment every day.

From your favorite department store to more than 100 specialty shops and services, you'll find it all at South Square Mall.

South Square

More than 120 fine shops, restaurants, and theaters including Belk-Leggett, Dillard's, JCPenney, Montaldo's
 Chapel Hill Boulevard and 15-501 • Exit 270 on I-40 • Durham, North Carolina • 493-2451