

UNC Bids for $16 Millions In Permanent Improvements

Officials at the University here have asked the State for $16,160,134 for permanent improvements, including a new pharmacy building and three new dormitories. The largest item is $1,740,000 requested for housing for married students. The requests were presented to the Advisory Budget Commission, which is making a tour of State institutions to hear budget requests for permanent improvements for the 1957-59 biennium.

The report included a list of 18 permanent improvements. Heading the list, in order of priority, is $1,575,000 for a new pharmacy building; $162,000 to remodel Howell Hall for the Journalism School and $60,000 for equipment; addition to Peabody Hall, $776,779, & equipment, $90,000; new wing to the nurses' dormitory, $175,000 (with matching federal funds anticipated); new physics building, $1,200,000, and equipment, $400,000; housing for married students, $1,740,000; intramural fields and tennis courts, $200,000.

Also sought were: Additions and betterments to the dentistry building and the division library, $4,500; renovation of the ground floor of the School of Medicine, $25,000 (with matching federal funds anticipated); Woolen Gymnasium, $18,000; library, $14,380; Venable Hall, $211,725; improvement to the ground floor of the School of Dentistry, $60,000; Davie Hall and the greenhouse, $36,000; Peabody Hall, $4,650; and Radio Station UNC, $24,600.

Three new dormitories, one with a kitchen and dining room, $1,733,000, and equipment $275,000; School of Public Health, $1,000,000 (with matching federal funds anticipated); an addition to wing A of the nurses' dormitory, $200,000; annex to Hill Hall, $398,000, and equipment $100,000; division library enlargement (Health Affairs), $329,000. Housing for ambulatory patients and relatives of inpatients $500,000; Student Union Building, $1,092,500, and equipment $150,000; wing on the School of Medicine $925,000 (with matching federal funds anticipated); wing for the N. C. Memorial Hospital, $1,980,000; and a dormitory for men in Health Affairs, $1,900,000.

Exchangites See Football Movies

Presbyterian Services

The Presbyterian Church will have only one worship service beginning Sunday and lasting through August. It will be held at 11 a.m. Previously, services were held at 9:45 and 11 a.m., but, according to custom, during the second session of Summer School, only the 11 a.m. worship service will be held. The Rev. Vance Barron, pastor of the church, will conduct the services.

Edmisters Leave for Sweden

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Edmister sailed yesterday aboard the S. S. Kungsholm from New York City for Goteborg, Sweden. They will be in Scandinavia about two months.

Giants to End Season Today Against Dodgers

The Giants baseball team (above) of Chapel Hill's Little League will meet the Dodgers at 5 p.m. today (Friday) in the Carrboro Lions Park in the final game of the Little League season. The Giants defeated the Indians, 11-10, day before yesterday to bring their season's record to two wins and seven losses. Shown from left to right are (front row) Bobby Neville, Vicky Williams, C. L. Bowen, Ned Durham, Tony Dale, Bill Tyler, and Jock Lauterer; (back row) Tony Lloyd, Gary Holt, Larry Lee, Head Coach Don Hrabak, George Simpson, and Butch Ragan. Absent are Randy Ellington and Assistant Coach Dallas Durham.

Little League baseball will finish its season this (Friday) afternoon with three games, one of which may determine the championship of the league.

Upset victories Wednesday by the Giants over the Indians, 11-10, and by the Yankees over the Tigers, 11-2, kept the Indians within one place of the league-leading Tigers but with a chance of tying them with a victory in this afternoon's (Friday's) game. The Tigers and the Indians battle in Chapel Hill at 4:30 o'clock.

Other games this afternoon will put the Yankees against the Cubs at 3:30 o'clock and the Dodgers against the Cubs at 5:00, both in Carrboro. Wednesday's other game was a narrow victory for the Cubs over the Dodgers, 9-8.

This game was a win for Ned Martin who gave up only four hits and struck out fifteen batters. Dodger hurlers were Eddie Gendron and Ronnie Pendergrass, who allowed eight hits and had eight strike outs between them. Gendron was the game's only home run hitter with one off of Martin in the fifth inning.

Under the determined mentoring of Don Hrabak, the Giants were set to take a game from the Indians, and so they did.

Lions International President Coming; Senter Inducts Carrboro Club Officers

An honor will come to Lloyd Senter, Carrboro, and the Carrboro Lions Club on August 9 when Lions International President Jack Sticklely of Charlotte installs Mr. Senter as district governor.

It will be the first time that an international president of the civic organization has ever visited Carrboro and Chapel Hill during his term of office.

The installation will be held in conjunction with a ladies night program, and district officers will also be present.

Announcement of Mr. Sticklely's visit was made last (Thursday) night at the regular meeting of the Carrboro Lions Club when 1956-57 officers were installed by Mr. Senter, the district governor who is a member of the Carrboro club.

The year's officers are James L. Perry, president; Jack McDade, first vice-president; Tom Murray, second vice-president; J. S. Gibson, third vice-president; Mack Watts, secretary; Harry Andrews, treasurer; John Boone, Lion tamer; Bob Rush, tail twister; F. M. Durham and June Merritt, directors for one year; and Bob Merritt and Paul Crabtree, directors for two terms.

Mr. Graham was born in Chapel Hill 45 years ago. He took his A.B. and M.A. degrees at the University here and his Ph.D. degree at Cornell. He taught history at Cornell for two years, was assistant to the president for three years, and was secretary of the University for seven years. He went to Washington University at St. Louis in 1947 as assistant dean of faculties and was dean of faculties there when he was appointed to the post in Greensboro in 1950.

While at the Woman's College he was president of the National Association of Higher Education, a member of the selection committee on Fulbright fellowships, and consultant to the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Public Welfare.

Boston University, occupying a site on the shore of the Charles river in Boston and embracing ten undergraduate and five graduate schools and colleges, was established in 1863. The total enrollment is 27,000. There is a faculty of 1,500. The President is Harold C. Chase.

A recently published booklet entitled "The Boston University Story" says: "Like other universities throughout the country, Boston University faces a tremendous increase in enrollment. Figures released by the American Council on Education for the whole nation show the increase will be 16 per cent by 1960, 46 per cent by 1965, and 52 per cent by 1970.

Registration Monday Registration for the second term of the University summer school will begin Monday, and classes will get under way on Tuesday. The first term will close tomorrow (Saturday).

New Preacher on Visit The Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Carnes were here last Thursday and visited several members of the Congregational Christian Church, of which Mr. Carnes will become pastor on August 1.

Colonial Shop Closed The office of Colonial Press will be open all next week, although the printing employees in the shop will be taking their annual vacation.

Episcopalians Are At Kanuga Center

The Rev. Robert Insko, chaplain to the Episcopal Students at the University, and Mrs. J. E. Adams, director of Christian Education at the Chapel of the Cross, will return to their homes this weekend after attending church conferences at Kanuga, the Episcopal Conference Center at Hendersonville.

Mr. Insko has been chaplain for the Camp Counselor's Conference and Mrs. Adams taught a class on "Teaching Missions to Children" for the Adult-Clergy Conference.

Others from Chapel Hill who have been attending the Adult-Clergy Conference are the Rev. R. C. Masterson, Mrs. Brent S. Drake, and Mrs. Herbert S. McKay.

Town Keeps Same Tax Rate of 95c Per $100

A tax rate of 95c per $100 property valuation was levied for Chapel Hill by the Board of Aldermen at its meeting Monday. This is the same as last year's rate. Of the 95c, seventy-seven cents is for the general fund and 18c is for debt service.

The 1956-57 budget of $276,022 was adopted with minor changes that did not change the total of the proposed budget. The budget is $24,608 greater than that of 1955-56, but does not require any tax increase. Minor changes were upping salaries of two policemen, recently hired, to equal the salaries of the men just above them, and increasing one fireman's salary in the same way. The total was not changed because of decreases made in other parts of the budget.

The aldermen also adopted ordinances to levy a $1 poll tax, a dog tax ($1 on males and $2 on females), and a privilege license tax on trades, professions and franchises at the same rates effective for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956, and as are set forth in the "License Tax Schedule for North Carolina Cities and Towns," and in the "Revenue Ordinance for License Taxes."

The town taxicab ordinance was also amended by the board. Every taxicab or motor vehicle for hire shall charge a maximum of not more than 50c for transportation of one to five passengers on a single trip to a designated terminus or destination within the present city limits, except for a single trip to the Laurel Hill Road Section, within the town limits as annexed on June 2, 1956, beyond the junction of the Laurel Hill road with the Country Club Road, the fare shall be 80c. Chapel Hill Chaff

L.G. The doctrine of let 'em do what they please, or, as it is sometimes put in a more formal way, express their personalities freely, has created a vast volume of bad manners and inconsiderateness in children and has caused distress to millions of people who have done nothing to deserve it. This condition has so impressed itself on the articulate section of mankind, that is, the great brotherhood of writers, picture-drawers and commentators of all sorts, that it is a frequent topic of essays, verses, and cartoons in the newspapers and magazines, and sometimes psychologists and sociologists question one another and advise one another, in troubled conferences, as to what can be done about it.

Like everybody else I have had my unhappy experiences with spoiled children, but I have been convinced by recent careful observation that the odious brats are not nearly so numerous in proportion to the agreeable children as I once thought they were. Somebody may say this is because I am getting cured, or partly cured, of my grouchiness, but I don't believe so. I believe it's simply because one little devil makes such a powerful impression on you, with his banging things around and jumping up and down on furniture and shouting and whining and demanding constant attention and all the rest of it, that you are left with a vivid memory of him while a dozen well-behaved children pass quickly out of your mind.

I want to record the fact that the homes on the fringes of ours—I could say the same of others a little more distant but I am speaking now of only the three closest (Continued on Page 2)

Grey Culbreth Succeeds Carl Smith As Chairman of Local School Board

Grey Culbreth, the University's superintendent of utilities, has been elected Chairman of the Chapel Hill School Board to replace Carl Smith, who recently resigned.

Mr. Culbreth was appointed to the board in 1951 and served last year as its vice-chairman and chairman of its building committee.

Mr. Smith's term expires July 1, 1959, but his successor will have to stand up for election next spring. Other members of the board are Mrs. O. David Garvin, R. E. Jamerson, Gordon Blackwell, and Charles F. Miller.

A unanimous motion of thanks has been accorded Mr. Smith by the members for his long service on the board. Several persons were discussed as a possible successor to him, but the board decided to postpone naming one until its next meeting.

Mr. Smith's term expires July 1, 1959, but his successor will have to stand up for election next spring. Other members of the board are Mrs. O. David Garvin, R. E. Jamerson, Gordon Blackwell, and Charles F. Miller.

Storage Shed Is Destroyed When Alarm Is Turned in Too Late

Three volunteer members of the Chapel Hill Fire Department are shown hosing down the remains of the storage shed which burned down last Friday near Caldwell Street. They are (l. to r.) Deputy Sheriff Earl Bush, Top Jackson, and Deputy Sheriff Junior Clark. It is believed the shed was set on fire by children who went there to smoke cigarettes. The alarm was turned in too late for the building to be saved. —Photo by Bill Prouty

Chapel Hill Annexes Three More Residential Areas and Is Asked to Annex a Fourth

Vandals

With the J. C. Lyoneses away on a tour of Europe, vandals armed with knives entered their home on Gimghul Road one night last week and slashed furniture, carpets, upholstery, bed linen, table linen, pictures, and clothing. The discovery was made by neighbors. The police were notified immediately, but no trace of the perpetrators had been found as this paper went to press.

An oil painting of Edward A. Brecht, dean of the University's School of Pharmacy, appears on the cover of the current issue of "Pulse of Pharmacy," a professional pharmaceutical journal. The portrait was painted recently by Furman J. Finck of New York City.

Mr. Brecht joined the faculty of the School of Pharmacy as an instructor in 1939. He became professor of pharmacy in 1946 and dean of the school in 1950.

Mr. Brecht is a member of the National Formulary Committee and co-author of "American Pharmacy" and "Socville's Art of Compounding." He is also the inventor of an automatic device for measuring and mixing parenteral solutions.

The School of Pharmacy is a part of the University of North Carolina Division of Health Affairs, which includes the UNC Schools of Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing, Public Health and the North Carolina Memorial Hospital.

At Memorial Hospital

Local persons listed as patients at Memorial Hospital yesterday were Miss Beatrice Bacon, Donna Lee Baldwin, Mickel Bradley, Mrs. Lewis Cole, Kingston Cotton, Miss Margaret Daniel, Mrs. Allen Durham, W. D. Harrell, Mrs. E. D. Hill, George L. Johnson, Pharoachana Kitpowson, R. W. Mann, Mrs. M. B. Morrow, W. D. Neville, Mrs. Frederick Niggli, C. S. Partin, Albert Register, G. G. Riggsbee, Mrs. W. O. Woods, and W. O. Lacock.

Music Club to Meet Sunday

A called meeting of the Chapel Hill Music Club will be held at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, July 15, in the choir room of the Baptist Church. Mrs. Louise Jefferson, the organization's president, said yesterday that all members are urged to be present. The club is a newly organized local unit of the state and national Federation of Music Clubs.

Here from Norwood

Miss Elizabeth Eddins of Norwood, N. C., is spending the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Pugh of Justice Street. While here she is working in the University's Extension Division.

The Town Board of Aldermen annexed three more areas to the Town of Chapel Hill at its Monday meeting and received a petition asking for annexation of another area from the men who head the Chapel Hill Housing Group.

Annexed were Estes Hills, Hidden Hills and the University Motel area. The area seeking annexation is on the Highway 15 Bypass southwest of the Glenwood Elementary School.

The newly annexed territory and its citizens and property shall be subject to all debts, laws, ordinances and resolutions in force in the Town of Chapel Hill and shall be entitled to the same privileges and benefits as other parts of the town. The territory and its citizens will be subject to municipal taxes levied for the fiscal year 1957-58. The University Motel area is near Glen Lennox off the Raleigh Road, and the other two are northeast of Chapel Hill off the Durham Highway.

An election on annexing these three areas was not necessary, because the board did not receive, at the public hearing Monday, petitions from the persons living in the three areas or from persons living in Chapel Hill asking that the question be put to a public vote. Persons living in the areas appeared at the hearing and voiced no opposition to the annexation, but said they felt the persons living in the three areas wanted to be annexed as soon as possible to get fire protection and as many other services as possible as soon as possible.

O'Sullivan Speaks On Travel by Air

Bill O'Sullivan, a former airlines pilot, spoke on air travel at the weekly meeting of the Chapel Hill Kiwanis Club at the Carolina Inn Tuesday night. Jimmy Wallace was in charge of the program.

Guests included Kiwanian John Turner of Elizabeth City, R. W. Regan of Knoxville, Tenn., Dr. W. G. Gobel of Nashville, Tenn., and Dave Fonville of Chapel Hill.

It was announced that the club would dispense with its meeting next Tuesday night, July 17, and instead attend the annual picnic of the Chapel Hill-Carrboro Merchants Association at Camp New Hope next Wednesday afternoon.

Linford's Pay Visit To Relatives Here

Col. and Mrs. Ted Linford and their daughter were here recently on a visit to Mrs. Linford's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ellis. They were on their way from Lawton, Oklahoma, where they had been living, to Columbus, Ohio, where Colonel Linford has been assigned to a new station.

They were delayed on the way here because of the illness and death of their English bulldog, which was killed by a heat stroke. They said the telegraph operator at each end of the line was quite sympathetic when they wired Mr. and Mrs. Ellis about the delay.
