

New Exhibits Open At the Planetarium

Two new exhibits opened in the Morehead Planetarium Art Galleries here this week. Both are collections of photographs. One group was made by students in Ross Scroggs' photography class at the University here, and the other contains 26 photographs of the inventions of Leonardo da Vinci, the celebrated Italian artist of the 15th and 16th centuries.

A New Boy in the Neighborhood

Bobby Lonon, age 10, moved to town August 24 and settled at 402 Pritchard Avenue, much to Jock Lauterer's delight. Jock, age 11, lives across the street, and a new prospect for a pal in the neighborhood is an exciting affair to a boy. While the moving van was still in the Lonons' yard Jock had Bobby over for lunch, showed him how to play badminton and took him swimming that afternoon. Last week the Lauterers gave a wienie roast in Bobby's honor, with Jock presiding as chef in his backyard, inviting other boys of the neighborhood. Ricky Williams, Timmy Merritt, C. L. Bowen, Shane Liston, Ned Durham and Dennis Andrews. Bobby has barely been in town two weeks but he's already a full-fledged member of the gang, playing football, baseball, riding bikes, building models, and taking part in all the hundreds of other activities of young boys in a friendly neighborhood that we like to think is typical of Chapel Hill.

He came from Hickory with his mother, his sister Julia, age 9; his little brother Grady, age 6; his parakeet and his black rabbit. In school here Bobby will be in the 5th grade, Julia in the 4th, and Grady is starting the first grade. Mrs. Lonon has been teaching the 5th grade in Hickory, and brought her family to Chapel Hill so that she could study at the University for her Master's degree in teaching.

The Death of Mrs. Vandever

Mrs. Martha Vandever, who was house mother of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity for several years and had many friends here, died August 7 at her home in New York. T. F. Hickerson, a member of the fraternity and an old-time friend of Mrs. Vandever's, saw her when he was in New York on his way to Europe in June. The news of her death came to Chapel Hill in a letter to him from her executor after his return home. Mrs. Vandever's next of kin is Mrs. Frances E. McKinnon of 355 Virginia Avenue, San Mateo, California.
