

More Generous Hearts Needed By the Empty Stocking Fund

Only 150 families have been should be delivered to the old "adopted" in the Junior Service Institute of Government building...
To adopt a family will cost you from $5 to 7.50. If you are willing to contribute this, either in food or cash, call Mrs. John Crittenden at 8-0275 by not later than December 12 and preferably right now. She will tell you what to put in your box of food for an adopted family. Such boxes some typical cases among these families:

Mr. and Mrs. N. are both very old and feeble. They live alone and have no children or relatives to care for them. The Empty Stocking Fund must try to make their Christmas, one of the last ones they will share, a happy one.
Mr. J. has three children. His wife died of cancer the past summer. With the small income he makes as a sawmill worker he has been unable to finish paying the medical bills from his wife's extended illness nor has he paid the funeral expenses, though he pays a little each month. Christmas, for this family, will be doubly sad for there will not be much gaiety and it is the first one since the wife and mother has died. Make it a happy one.

Post Office Gets Ready for Christmas; To Add about 10 Temporary Workers

"Preparations are being made here at the Post Office to handle the unusual volume of Christmas parcels post and mail," Chapel Hill Postmaster Paul Cheek said yesterday, "and we're calling on all residents to shop and mail early to avoid a possible mailing jam."

Mr. Cheek went on to explain that about 10 additional employees would be hired to help handle the "Christmas rush."

Chapel Hillians at Memphis Conference

Seven members of the University's Chemistry Department are in Memphis, Tenn., attending the Southwest Chemical Conference. The are Arthur Roe, department chairman; H. D. Crookford, S. B. Knight, E. C. Markham, J. C. Morrow, C. N. Reilly, and O. K. Rice. Also attending is C. R. Spell from the Medical School.

Mr. Cheek said Chapel Hill merchants are cooperating with the Post Office by reminding customers to avoid the last-minute rush by getting their Christmas shopping and package sending done early.

Mr. Knight will give a paper on "The Colorimetric Analysis of Ruthenium." Mr. Markham, Mr. Spell, and Mr. Reilly are the authors of a paper to be given by Mr. Spell. Its title is "N Value Determinations by Means of a Constant Current Micro-Polarographic Method."

"We hope to have all Christmas mail out of the Post Office by Christmas and by following the simple instructions of shopping early, mailing early, wrapping carefully, and addressing plainly, the residents can help us do it. Don't let people mislead themselves by believing that there is some special significance in having the card or gift arrive exactly on Christmas Eve, because we all know it is the thought that counts."

Jimmy Pfouts Hurt With Dynamite Cap

Jimmy Pfouts, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pfouts, is in Memorial Hospital suffering from painful wounds resulting from having exploded a dynamite cap last week.
Shrapnel lodged superficially in his thigh and stomach.
Officer Skipper Etheridge, who investigated, said young Pfouts, along with Johnny Hinson, and Alex McKay, found a wooden box of eight dynamite caps in the old railroad meeting Mr. Morrow has been appointed program chairman for the next Southwide Chemical Conference to be held in the Chapel Hill-Durham area in November of 1957 and is attending in that capacity.

Professor Wellesz will speak on "Eastern Elements in Western Chant" at 2:30 p.m. December 8 in Hill Hall. The library exhibition includes selections from his writings, his research on Byzantine music and his musical compositions.

Edwin Lanier Resigns as Commissioner, Pledges Best Service as State Senator

Edwin S. Lanier, who was elected to the State Senate in November, has resigned as a member of the Board of Commissioners. In a letter to Clerk of Superior Court Edwin M. Lynch, Mr. Lanier said in part:
"Although the 1957 session of the North Carolina General Assembly does not convene until February 6, I think it would be well for me to submit now my resignation as a member of the Board of Commissioners of Orange County."
"I want to record here my appreciation and thanks to the people of Orange County for letting me serve them as a member of their Board of County Commissioners. I have tried to do a good and conscientious job for all of them. I have enjoyed my associations with the other members of the Board, and I found our mutual efforts for Orange County pleasant, interesting, and very enlightening."
"I am, also, grateful for Orange County's letting me have the Democratic nomination last June for the State Senate, and for joining with Alamance County on November 6 in electing me to represent the Sixteenth Senatorial District. In that capacity I will do my best to represent well all the people in these two counties and the whole State."

I Like Chapel Hill

By Billy Arthur

I like Chapel Hill, but have our churches declared war on Santa Claus?
We'll have a Christmas parade here on December 16, but it will be a nativity parade. It won't be a Christmas parade because there'll be no Santa Claus in it.
Now, let me be not misunderstood. I approve of the idea of Christmas parade minus floats telling one where to buy ties and handkerchiefs, slips and nighties, and guns and plunkers. And let a compliment go out to the Jaycees and churches for relieving our December 16 affair of advertising.

Humanities Lecture Scheduled Tonight

Duncan Ivey Sees Strange Blue Light

Duncan Ivey, who lives in the country west of Chapel Hill, saw a strange light in the sky when he was on his way to work at the University Laundry at 6:45 Thursday morning.
"It was as pretty a blue light as I ever saw," Mr. Ivey said. "It was shaped like a bullet and was moving from north to south on a level course parallel to the earth. After I watched it a few seconds it faded away."
Mr. Ivey was about three miles from town on Route 51 when he saw the light. When asked if he thought it could have been the flame from a jet plane exhaust, he said he couldn't see or hear any plane when he saw the light.

Mantovani and His New Music Will Be Heard in Memorial Hall Here Thursday

The Student Entertainment Committee will present Mantovani and His New Music, in person, at Memorial Hall Thursday night at 8 o'clock.
The performance of Mantovani and his 45 piece orchestra will be free to students, $1 to students' wives, and $2 to faculty and townspeople after all students and wives are admitted.
Mantovani has been acclaimed by the press of New York, Detroit and other large cities in which he has played since coming to America in the fall of 1955.
"Advance publicity says of him: 'A cascading melodious line supported with a novel concept of orchestral arrangement is the key to the unprecedented popularity of Mantovani and the 'New Music' that is now a byword with record fans."
"The Venetian-born Londoner, coming from a musical family and a background of rigorous training in the classics as violinist and conductor, experimentation in instrumentation with his own orchestra from the age of 21 in fashionable London hotels, in the theatre as musical director for Noel Coward and for motion pictures. With this colorful experience behind him, Mantovani inaugurated the era of 'New Music' with his first album for London for Records 'Waltzing with Mantovani' displaying the ravishing string tones that were to sweep across the seas to capture the fancy of America. Subsequent recordings, which now number in the dozens, including 'Cara Mia,' which Mantovani, as composer, wrote for David Whitefield, have been just as sought after."

Claude T. Pope Is Named to Board

CHAPEL HILL
CHAFF
By Joe Jones

Mac Snipes of the University Barber Shop lives in Chatham County on the farm on which he was born and raised. He has lived there all his life. When asked how far his house was from Orange County, he said it used to be a stone's throw from the county line.
"Used to be? Did you have the house moved?"
"No," Mac said, "I can't throw a stone as far as I used to."
Jane Whitefield, secretary of the Chapel Hill-Carrboro Merchants Association, is an admirer of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt; more so than ever since Monday evening of last week.
Mrs. Whitefield is the wife of Clarence Whitefield, director of Duke University's news bureau. When Mrs. Roosevelt spoke Monday evening at Duke, Mr. and Mrs. Whitefield picked her up after dinner at the Washington Duke Hotel and escorted her to Page Auditorium on the Duke campus.
Members of Mrs. Roosevelt's party in the car included Mrs. Charles W. Tillet of Charlotte, a National Committeewoman of the Democratic party. Chapel Hill was a topic of conversation, and Mrs. Roosevelt said she had been here several times, including that afternoon, and was quite fond of the place. Mrs. Tillet said she was too.
"This will interest you, Mrs. Whitefield," Mrs. Tillet added. "Several years ago I was in Chapel Hill with a group from India. It was when nylon was some-"

Claude T. Pope Is Named to Board

CHAPEL HILL
CHAFF
By Joe Jones

Claude Thomas Pope, well known Cedar Grove farmer, yesterday was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Edwin S. Lanier of Chapel Hill, who has resigned since his election as state senator.
Mr. Pope was appointed by Clerk of Superior Court Edwin M. Lynch, and was sworn in as commissioner along with Donald M. Stanford of Chapel Hill. Mr. Stanford won out over Sim E. Land of Efland in the election this year.
The commissioners passed resolutions commending the service of the retiring commissioners.
Organization of the board for the coming year was deferred because of the absence of Chairman R. J. M. Hobbs of Chapel Hill. Mr. Hobbs was reported to be sick and unable to attend yesterday's meeting.
One was tentatively sent for next Monday by which time, it is hoped, he will be recovered.
Dwight Ray of Carrboro acted as chairman yesterday.
Also deferred was action on proposed recommendations for changes in the Chapel Hill fire district statute.

Letters to Santa Being Answered

The Chapel Hill-Carrboro Merchants Association announced yesterday that all letters to Santa Claus being received at the Chapel Hill post office are being answered.
Mrs. Jane Whitefield, secretary of the Association, said the post office is referring the letters to her office, and from there they were directed to Santa. The child gets a personal reply letter from old Santa himself.
