

Committee Requests Children's Clothes

The Interchurch Committee for Community Needs is appealing for used clothes of all kinds for distribution to needy children.

There are at least 100 children in the Chapel Hill area who are badly in need of clothes and shoes. These children range from infants to teenagers.

The Interchurch Committee, organized two years ago, has been working closely with the Welfare Department and the Red Cross. The Committee has established a driving pool to deliver surplus commodities, and has provided transportation to and from the Hospital.

The Committee has also helped to provide furniture and equipment for families whose houses have burned down, and has been active in the drive for better housing in the community.

The Committee is asking those persons having items of children's clothing to donate to bring them to the Roberson Street Center this week between the hours of 4 and 6 p.m.

For further information, call the Center, 942-2056.

AAUN Program In Progress

The High School World Peace Study and Speaking Program is now in progress in Chapel Hill and Hillsboro. Four high schools—Chapel Hill, Central High School in Hillsboro, Hillsboro High School and Lincoln High School—have registered with the American Freedom Association in Salisbury for the chartered bus trip to New York City, the United Nations and Washington, D. C., on April 21-24, for the winners of the essay and speaking contests and their sponsoring teachers who will accompany them.

The program is directed by the University Extension Division and is sponsored locally by the Orange County Chapter, American Association for the United Nations. This chapter is arranging for the financing of the trip for the winners and their teachers through a portion of the membership dues, supplemented by contributions from civic organizations and other interested individuals.

Membership enrollment in the Orange County Chapter, AAUN, is now in progress under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edward M. Everts, 309 Sycamore St. She will receive new memberships as well as renewals from any resident of Orange County. Contributions from others, groups or individuals, may be sent to Miss Elizabeth Henderson, treasurer of the Chapter, at 5 Carolina Inn Apartments.

The topic for this year's contest is "The Responsibilities of the United Nations to World Peace." Aside from the training students receive in analyzing the material, sent by the Extension Division, and writing and delivering their speeches, a broader and deeper understanding of current problems in the world is acquired by the participants. And for the winners there is the trip to the United Nations and to Washington.

Commenting on the Church Attendance Crusade church officials have stated that "A church can be no more important to its community than it is to its people. Our community, our business, our home are all infused with new purpose and reinforced with new power when we meet regularly in the house of the Lord to learn His will for our lives."

If you want a truck that does its work without yelling for attention all the time, buy a "new reliable" Chevrolet.

You have to take care of it; it's a machine. But this isn't a full-time activity. The clear idea is that the truck works for you, not vice versa.

The way to build such a truck is to put more quality into it. For example, Chevrolet doesn't build one type of suspension system for all sizes of trucks. Chevrolet designs suspension systems to fit your need. The light-duty type is strong on comfort. Another kind for heavier trucks stiffens up as you increase your load and vice versa. Make sense? Conventional pickups have double-wall construction in cabs, doors, lower side panels. Roofs are insulated. Body floors are select wood, not metal. Tailgate chains are wrapped in rubber. If you'd like to examine or drive a new '63 Chevrolet truck, just call us. We'll be right over.
