Many interesting games were enjoyed after which the honoree was showered with many lovely gifts. Punch, cake squares, potato chips and nuts were served. In addition to the honoree, Mrs. McFarland; and the hostess, Mrs. Shambley, among those present were Mrs. Virginia Stinson and Mrs. Sadie Watson of Durham; Mrs. Allie Smith, Mrs. Myrtle Luther of Carrboro; Mrs. Mary Carroll and daughters, Sally Jane and Lillian of Pittsboro; other local people included Mrs. Mary Tripp, Mrs. Betty Blackwood, Thelma, Pearl, Margaret and Mary McFarland; Mrs. Sam McFarland; Mrs. Sallie Shambley; Lonie and Donie McFarland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sparrow and daughter Michele spent last weekend at Atlantic Beach.

Mrs. Mary Hollingsworth visited Mrs. Charlie Terrell, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lynn of Burlington, and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jordan of Hillsboro Saturday.

Miss Nancy Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ray, is the new secretary for the Carrboro Baptist Church.

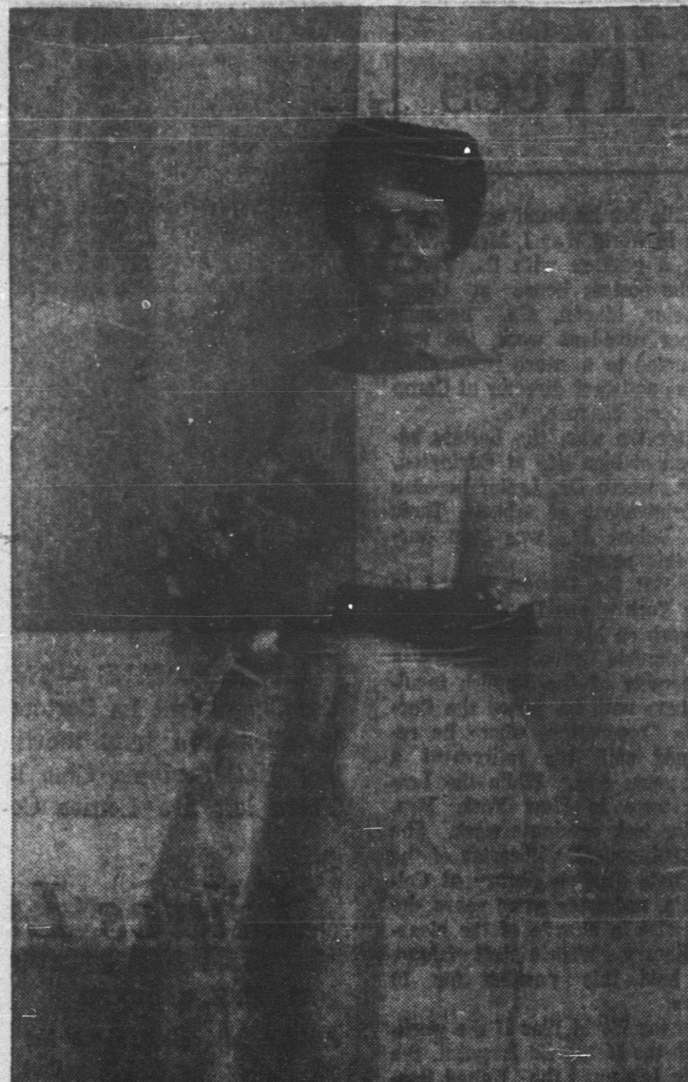

At the Sunday morning worship service last Sunday at Carrboro Baptist Church the congregation was baptized with the music of Meineke, Mendelssohn, Beethoven and Schubert. Now we appreciate the high altitude of these honored music writers, but for a good Baptist service nothing can take the place of good old Baptist songs like "Amazing Grace," "How Firm a Foundation," and "Down at the Cross."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Carolina Inn by the bride's parents. They were assisted by Mrs. Michael Spencer, Mrs. Charlton Prather, Mrs. John Schumacher and Mrs. Kenneth Crawford.

Best man was Robert S. Johnson of Chapel Hill, brother of the bridegroom. The bride received her AB degree from the University here where she was a member of the Valkyries and Phi Beta Kappa. She has completed all requirements for her MA degree at Columbia University. The bridegroom received his AB degree from Georgetown College, Ky., and his MA degree from the University here where he was a member of the Order of the Golden Fleece. He is an instructor in the Department of Political Science at the University of Kentucky.

Proconian Cleans Up Even Cleaner

In addition to first place awards for editorials, features, photography, and sports coverage, and a second place award for news coverage, Chapel Hill Senior High's Proconian has won a second place award for makeup.

All the awards were presented at a banquet Wednesday by the N. C. Scholastic Press Institute, which held its 22nd annual convention here last week.

Through oversight, individual awards and the makeup award were not announced earlier.

Mrs. Martha Gill, Chapel Hill High English teacher and adviser to the High School journalism class, was one of two such teachers in the State to win a special award for her excellent work as adviser.

Mrs. Gill was not at the banquet to receive her award. She is teaching at the Governor's School for Talented Children in Winston-Salem.

Individual awards given to Chapel Hill High students at the banquet were an honorable mention for news writing, to Melanie Riperton; second place for photography, to Jock Lauterer; and honorable mention for feature writing, to Mary Lindsay Spearman.

The Proconian was the only paper in class B (less than 750 students) to win an award in every category.
