Nuptial music was provided by James R. Holmes, organist. The church was decorated with altar flowers of white carnations and snapdragons.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marian Minturn Walter of Bloomington. She is a graduate of Indiana University. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Alonzo Groves of Gastonia. Recently awarded a fellowship, he will do graduate work in philosophy at the University of California. He received his BA degree from the University here.

Given in marriage by her friend, Mack R. Creech of Wendell, the bride wore a full-length gown of white silk organza which was fashioned with a scoop neckline trimmed in lace appliques and seed pearls. The full skirt, which ended in a full chapel train, was also appliqued in lace. Her veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Thierry de Bremond of Washington, D. C., sister of the bride, who wore a pale blue dress with a matching veiled hat. She carried a bouquet of mixed blue and lavender flowers.

Bridesmaid was Miss Patricia Parker of Washington, D. C., a former classmate of the bride. She wore a lavender dress with matching veiled hat. Her bouquet was of mixed blue and lavender flowers.

Best man was R. Sheldon Durham of Cary.

For the ceremony, the bride's mother wore a beige lace sheath dress with a matching veiled hat. Her corsage was of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua chiffon sheath with matching veiled hat. Her corsage was of white roses.

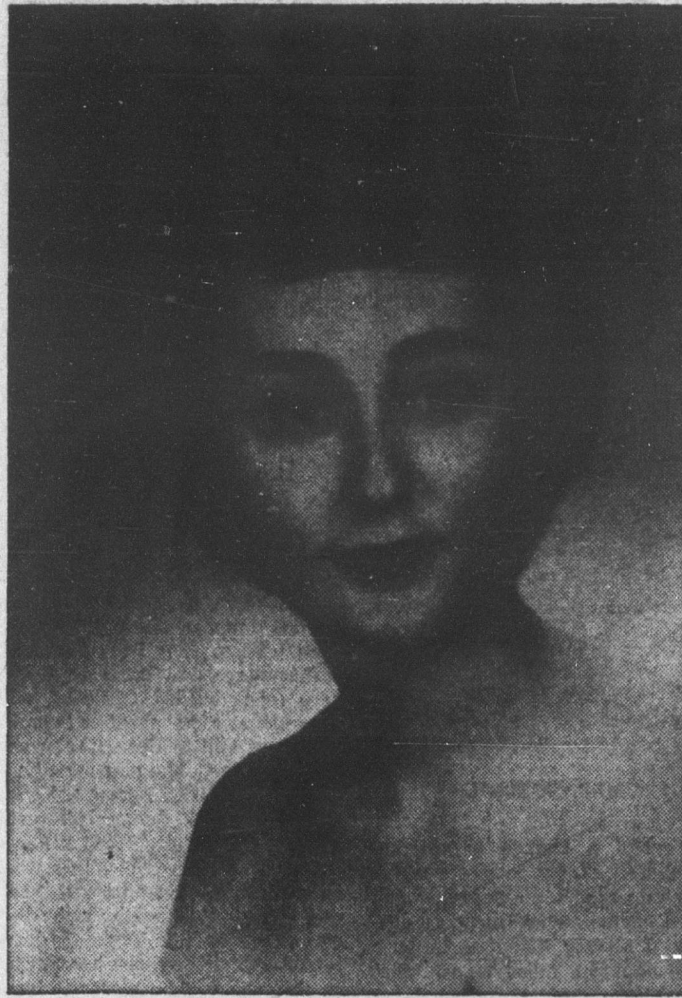

The wedding was followed with a reception in the Pine Room of the Carolina Inn.

After a wedding trip to the beach, the newlyweds will make their home in La Jolla, Calif.

Dr. Janis Klavins Will Sing Tuesday

Dr. Janis Klavins, bass-baritone, will present a concert with Mrs. Juanita White, pianist, Tuesday evening at 8 in Hill Music Hall. The recital is sponsored by the University Music Department's Tuesday Evening Series. Dr. Klavins and Mrs. White will perform in its entirety the song cycle "Die Schone Mullerin" by Franz Schubert.

Dr. Klavins, a native of Latvia, received his early musical training under Madame Cinkaberzinska in Riga. After the Soviet occupation of Latvia he continued his studies at the Landes Music School in Lubbeck, Germany. In 1948 Dr. Klavins graduated from Christian Albrecht University in Kiel, Germany, receiving degrees in both the Arts and Medicine.

In 1952, Dr. Klavins came to the United States to accept a position as assistant professor in the Department of Pathology of the School of Medicine, Western Reserve University. In 1960 he became director of the School of Cytotechnology at Duke's School of Medicine.

He has appeared in operas and as a solo recitalist in New York, Boston, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Chicago, Detroit, and Cleveland, as well as in Canada. At the request of West Germany's Concert Agency he is currently making plans for a series of concerts in Europe.

Mrs. Juanita White is a former student of the Peabody Conservatory and of Mme. Vengerova in New York City. She has appeared in numerous concerts in New York, Washington, D. C., and North Carolina. She is presently director of the Juanita R. White School of Music of Durham and Chapel Hill.

ENGAGED — The engagement of Miss Dora Lee Jeffreys of Chapel Hill to Jon Jay Lancaster of Norfolk, Va. is announced by her mother, Mrs. Romulous Saunders Jeffreys. A September wedding is planned. The bride-elect attended High Point College and the University here. She received her AB degree in June. Mr. Lancaster, the son of Commander (USN-Ret.) and Mrs. J. Van Lancaster of Norfolk, Va., will graduate this summer from the University. He will be commissioned an Ensign in the Navy in August.

Little Symphony Will Play Here

A number of Chapel Hill musicians will be among the performers with the Triangle Little Symphony under the direction of Dr. Paul Bryan when the orchestra makes one of its regular summertime appearances here on August 5, at 8 p.m.

The Little Symphony will be heard in a concert, open to the public without charge, in Hill Hall, a concert which will feature the playing of Julia Mueller, violinist, in the Mozart violin concerto in A major, K. 219.

Mrs. Mueller, violinist with the Duke String Quartet, and well-known Duke music faculty member who has been heard in many solo and ensemble appearances in this area, is a graduate of the Eastman School of Music. She also studied with Lionel Tertis in Europe on the William Huntington Beebe Scholarship given by Eastman.

A former member of the Rochester Philharmonic and the National Symphony Orchestra, she also played with the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra in its statewide tours.

Dr. Bryan is director of bands at Duke University and is professor of music in the Dept. of Music here. He holds the Ph. D. in music from the University of Michigan.

A former president of the North Carolina Bandmasters Association, he is a member of the College Band Directors National Association, the American Musicological Assn., and the American Bandmasters Association, having been elected just last year.

The Chapel Hill musicians playing in the concert here included violinist, Lt. Col. Earl Wolslagel, a UNC graduate now retired from the U. S. Air Force and residing here; Mrs. Suzanne Parker, violinist; Mrs. Marjorie Renner, violinist; Mrs. Yvonne Williams, flutist; and William Bennett, doublebassist.

The program, sponsored by Graham Memorial as part of its summertime entertainment series, will also include the Schubert Symphony No. 5 in B-flat, and the Haydn Symphony No. 77, also in B-flat major.

Miss Macklin Feted At Kitchen Shower

Miss Ariene Macklin, August bride-elect and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Macklin, was honored recently at a kitchen shower given by Misses Beth and Kay Marley. The hostesses presented their honor guest with a corsage of miniature kitchen utensils.

The refreshment table, covered with an imported green linen tablecloth and decorated with yellow summer flowers, was presided over by Mrs. D. D. Marley, mother of the hostesses. Special guests were the bride-elect's mother, and Mrs. Harry Bergman, mother of Barrie Bergman, the bridegroom-elect.
