Chapel Hill Woman Hurt In Accident

A Chapel Hill hairdresser escaped with minor injuries Thursday morning when her car ran off Highway 15-501, dropped down a 40-foot embankment onto N.C. 751 and caught fire.

Mrs. Hazel Gunter, 46, of Pritchard Avenue, was taken by ambulance to Watts Hospital in Durham where her condition Thursday night was "satisfactory."

Policeman E. C. Wallace credited a passing motorist, Rev. Frank C. Perry of Chapel Hill, with rescuing Mrs. Gunter from the flaming vehicle. First aid was administered to her by another passing motorist, Dr. Bob Johanssen Jr. Firemen were called to the scene but the car had already been destroyed by the fire. Patrolman Wallace said Mrs. Gunter told him that "her steering wheel had given out on her." The car was traveling north on 15-501 when it left the road about 95 feet from NC 751 bridge, and came to rest against the north bank.
