Carl Bradshaw is improving after an illness of two weeks which kept him confined to bed. He is now able to walk around a little.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren L. Watson have returned to Indian River City, Fla., for the winter so that their grandchildren, Bebe Bell Bodwen, can re-enter Florida school. Bebe's mother, Mrs. Shirley Bowden, recently underwent a severe heart operation at the Institute of Public Health at Bethesda, Md., and will join her family when her recovery permits traveling.

The Carrboro Baptist Church will begin extensive remodeling of the church sanctuary following the first Sunday in October.

Fred Hatcher of Hickory called Mrs. Fred Free Sunday to tell her he would be at the reunion of the Smith Level School, which will be held today. It has been forty years since they saw each other.

Ronnie Edwards, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Edwards of Chapel Hill, Rt. 1, sustained severe cuts Monday when he ran into the path of a power mower. He is a patient of Watts Hospital at this writing.

Mr. Joe Gilmore had supper Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hackney.

Miss Wanda Clark spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gooch of Bulloch. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clark, went after her Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Taylor of Dogwood Acres were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Wilson. In the afternoon the two couples visited Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Weaver on Smith Level Road.

The Tripp family, descendants of Lucien and Corinna Allen Tripp, held a family reunion at Advents Ferry in Chatham County last Sunday. Each member brought a well-filled picnic basket, and an enjoyable get-together was had. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Tripp, Mrs. Nora Tripp Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Leary Colie, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Colie and Larry Colie Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Toby Wrenn and children, Donna, Gayle, Jimmy, Jaunita and baby; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tripp; Mr. and Mrs. Al Tripp and children, Byron, Scott, Roy Griffin and Victor Miles; Mrs. Mag Neal; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Tripp; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert J. Tripp and children, Marian, Libby, Vivian and Bruce, all of Carrboro.

Mrs. Jaunita Tripp Yeargan and children, Donnie and Diane, twins; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tripp, Jr. and children, Kathy, Donna, Buddy, Lanny and Cheryl; Mr. and Mrs. Venable Duncan, all of Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gilliland of Greensboro; Mr. Simon Burke, Mrs. Nellie Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Burke, all of Pittsboro; Miss Peggy Burke of Albemarle.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Tripp and children, Linda, Norma Kay, and Sandra; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Tripp, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Coble, Mrs. Flora Tripp, Mr. and Mrs. James Tripp, Sheila, Susan and Michael Tripp and Stephen White IV, all of Mebane; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Tripp and baby of Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tripp and daughter of Roxboro; and Mr. Tripp's son, Donnie of Roxboro.

The Rev. and Mrs. Sterling Whitener of Hong Kong bought a house on Kay Street the first of September. They have five children: Dana, 2; Bonnie, 7; Kim, 10; Chris, 14 and Karen, 15. Arriving in the United States at the end of June, they spent the summer at Blowing Rock. Mr. Whitener has entered UNC as a graduate student in social welfare.

He and Mrs. Whitener have been missionaries of the United Church of Christ since 1952 except for the year of 1958, when they were on leave. We extend a hearty welcome to our town to this fine family.

The Gleaners Sunday School Class of the Carrboro Baptist Church combined its regular monthly meeting with a farewell party honoring its teacher, Mrs. Winslow Williams, who is retiring from teaching for a while, at the home of Mrs. Milton Latta on North Greensboro Street last Tuesday evening.

Officers for the coming fiscal year were elected: Mrs. Aubrey Harward, president; Mrs. Milton Latta, vice-president; Mrs. Duke Williams, secretary - treasurer; Mrs. R. B. Todd, program chairman; Mrs. Raymond Andrews and Mrs. Bynie Riggsbee, social committee.

After the business session, Miss Doris Lindsay played a tape recording expressing what Mrs. Williams meant to the class. Two interesting games were enjoyed. The first was a quiz in the form of answering 15 Biblical questions. A prize was awarded Mrs. Mary Hollingsworth for answering all questions correctly. The second consisted of groups competing in singing hymns. The group headed by Mrs. Raymond Andrews was judged the best.

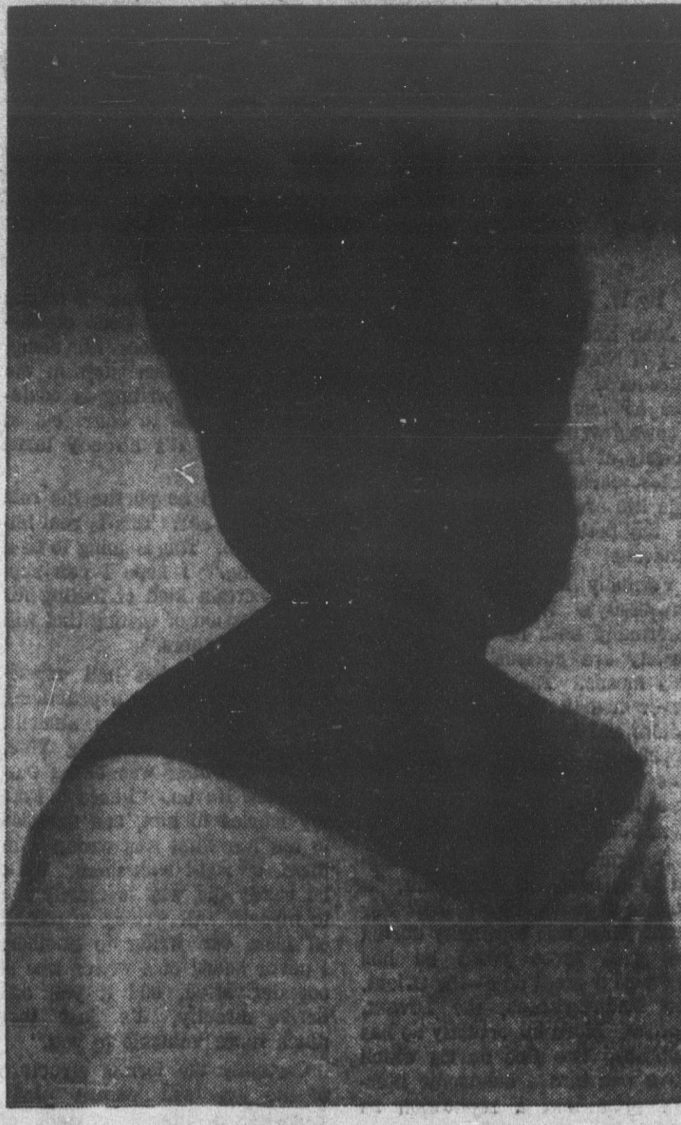

Mrs. Eric Neville, present president, pinned Mrs. Williams with a corsage of red rosebuds and ribbon, and the class presented her with a lovely jewelry box. Party sandwiches, hors d'oeuvres, cookies and Russian tea were served. Those present including the hostesses, Mrs. Latta, and the honoree, Mrs. Williams, were Mrs. Edgar Riggsbee, Mrs. Archie Christopher, Mrs. Harold Ray, Mrs. Aubrey Harward, Mrs. R. B. Todd, Mrs. Raymond Andrews, Mrs. Eric Neville, Mrs. Earl Settlemyre, Mrs. Tom Goodrich, Mrs. Duke Williams, Mrs. Mary Hollingsworth, Miss Doris Lindsay and Mrs. Bynie Riggsbee.

News of the sick: Mrs. Thomas Clark, Jr. suffered a cerebral hemorrhage and is critically ill in Memorial Hospital at this writing. Mrs. Jake Hardee underwent a serious operation this week, but is in satisfactory condition.

The most beautiful singing I've heard in a long time was "In the Sweet By and By" sung at prayer meeting Wednesday night at the Carrboro Baptist Church. Men's voices were more predominant than women's, and the bass was heart-warming to hear. Please, men, sing more often.

It seems everybody is too busy nowadays to actually do what he would like to do, visit friends and neighbors more often. Are we trying to do too many things? Are we letting the unimportant things dominate so that there is not time left for the important? What are people doing, flitting about to this and that, so busy that we hardly know the members of our own family? I have set aside Sunday afternoons for open house to family and friends, and my other time is just as limited. Yet I never find time enough to cover everything. Where does time go?

New and old Candystripers are required to attend a meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 p.m. in the director's office on the first floor of Memorial Hospital. Former Candystripers are required to attend the meeting to register. New volunteers are required to attend for a training course, which also meets Tuesday and Wednesday.

State AAUW Meet Will Be Oct. 11-12

The N. C. State Division of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) will hold its annual convention at Greensboro on Oct. 11 and 12 at the Holiday Inn South with many participants from the University at Chapel Hill.

The theme of this year's convention, "Accent of the Future," will emphasize the explanation and implementation of the new AAUW structure set up at the national convention in June in Denver.

Heading committees will be: Dr. Margaret Swanton, associate professor of pathology, who is chairman of the "Bridging the Gap Between Science and the Layman" committee; Mrs. Kenneth Brinkhous, chairman of the Status of Women committee; Miss Bertie Earp, publicity chairman; Mrs. Paul Guthrie, chairman of the College Faculty Program, and Mrs. George Holcomb, branch president.

Mrs. Brinkhous is the liaison representative for the 1963-64 North Carolina Council for Women's Organizations and the State Legislative Council. Dr. Guion Johnson is liaison representative for the World Affairs Council.

Primary speakers for the two-day convention will be Mrs. Norman W. Hosler, AAUW third vice president and chairman of the Membership committee, who will be the banquet speaker, and Mrs. Douglas Tomkies, AAUW vice president of the South Atlantic Region, who will speak at the luncheon.

Mrs. Hosler is a long-time member of AAUW and has participated in many areas of service since her graduation from Hood College with a B.S. degree. She was N. Y. Division President in 1960-61 and is at present serving on the N. Y. State Attorney General's Committee on Human Rights. Last year she was cited as "Woman of the Year" by the Nassau County Girl Scouts. She is a native of New York.

Mrs. Tomkies of Huntington, W. Va., has served in her capacity as vice president, South Atlantic Region since 1959. She has been active in local, division and association levels of the AAUW, and is past president of the W. Va. division. She is a graduate of Goucher College and received her M.A. degree from Columbia University.

All members of the AAUW are eligible to attend the convention. Members of the AAUW are women who have graduated from accredited and approved colleges. Reservations for the convention can be made by writing directly to the Holiday Inn South in Greensboro. Reservations for the luncheon and banquet can be made through the Greensboro Branch.

New Hope Community News

MRS. SAM RAY — Phone 8-3792

Donnie Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chapman is confined to his home because of an ear infection.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Freeland Sr. were Mrs. Catherine Moody of Morgantown and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Perry and children of Siler City.

Mrs. Louis Freeland is a patient at Watts Hospital where she is recovering from surgery performed last week.

Birthday greetings to Mrs. Neal D. Tapp, Mrs. E. R. Porter of Raleigh, and Henry Tapp.

Mrs. Jacob Hardee is showing improvement at Watts Hospital where she has been a patient following major surgery last week.

The Women of New Hope church will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the fellowship hall of the church.

Mrs. Kelly Davis and Mrs. Sam Ray of the Community, Mrs. Ralph Cheek of Carrboro, Miss Rebecca Crawford of the Orange Grove Community and Wallace Williams of Chapel Hill attended a class reunion at Schley Grange on Saturday night. They were members of the 1938 senior class of Hillsboro High School. This was the first meeting of this class since graduation and the first meeting of this class since graduation and the first time many of the graduates had seen each other in 25 years. It was an enjoyable meeting for those attending. Another meeting is planned in the near future.

The Blackwood Home Demonstration Club met on Monday afternoon, Sept. 18, at the home of Mrs. John Freeland Sr. Following the business meeting, Miss Jessie Trowbridge, Orange County Home Agent, gave an informative program on "Adapt Your Home For Your Child". During the social which followed, Mrs. Freeland served a sweet course to the 10 members present.

Several people in the community went to the Hillsboro Presbyterian Church last Sunday night to hear Miss Florence Root speak. Miss Root taught Bible in our schools some years ago, and for many years has served as a Presbyterian missionary in Korea. It was an interesting and informative talk and gave Miss Root a chance to renew acquaintances with old friends from New Hope, Hillsboro and Chapel Hill.
